New year offers fresh start

By John Crook
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Now that the Y2K thing has died down a little (assuming you're not hiding in a bunker under a state of martial law while reading this), everyone has a little more free time to evaluate what the year 2000 could bring.

After all, a new millennium is the perfect opportunity to make a new beginning and turn your life around — even if you are a TV character.

Take Elaine Vassal (Jane Krakowski) of Fox's "Ally McBeal." Here's a bright, funny, creative young woman who consistently thinks outside the box. That face bra thing? So close. So close.

But Elaine's entrepreneurial spirit is hampered by the fact that she's constantly meddling in other people's business. This is the perfect time for her to resolve to improve her focus, especially now that she has a strong prospect for financial backing: dragon lady Ling Woo (Lucy Liu).

As for Ally (Calista Flockhart), she could publish her resolutions in multivolume form, but Chapter 1, Page 1 really should to be a vow to choose her next therapist based on her professional competence, not her ability to sell a musical number.

Cover story

Moving from Boston to the nation's capital, several of the "advisers" on NBC's "The West Wing" would be well advised to take a little self-inventory. Toby Ziegler (Richard Schiff), the tightly wound communications director, has yet to crack a smile all season. He should resolve to explore some anger-management classes before that throbbing vein on his head gets any bigger.

Deputy Chief of Staff Josh Lyman (Bradley Whitford) should resolve to let go of his failed relationship with his ex-girlfriend, political consultant Mandy Hampton (Moira Kelly), and move on with his life.

And press secretary C.J. Cregg (Allison Janney), a jewel in most respects, should resolve to find more personal time. A brilliant, witty and attractive woman, C.J.'s current idea of indulging herself is to get up before dawn to spend an hour on a gym treadmill. Now that she has a smitten reporter (Timothy Busfield) appreciatively bringing her goldfish, C.J. needs to step outside into that famous rose garden and smell the posies more often.

Luckiest of all, though, are Will Truman, Grace Adler and Jack McFarland (Eric McCormack, Debra Messing, Sean Hayes) of NBC's "Will & Grace," who don't have to lift a finger to write their resolutions.

Their friend and associate, Karen Walker (Megan Mullally), already has the situation covered with the same succinct resolution for all three: "Just follow my lead, honey."

Quin to leave WB Network's 'Angel'

By Taylor Michaels
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Pipeline

What happened to Doyle on "Angel"? Is Glenn Quinn leaving the show? -An "Angel" fan via e-mail.

Shortly after "Angel" premiered, series creator Joss Whedon announced that he discovered there simply was no long-range potential in the character of Doyle. Despite a write-in campaign from fans, the character was written out.

I remember an A&E series a few years ago where people sent in questions to a guy named Cecil. What was the show? Who was Cecil, and who was the host? -Blake Wilson, Petersburg, Va.

You're thinking of "The Straight Dope," a short-lived 1996 series based on Cecil Adams' syndicated newspaper column of the same name. The host was Mike Lukas.

If you can't find the column in your local newspaper or in one of the book collections of past columns, it's on the Internet at www.straightdope.com. The motto is "Fighting ignorance since 1973 (it's taking longer than we thought)."

I heard former "Match Game" host Gene Rayburn died in 1999. Can you confirm? -David Carson, Redmond, Wash.

Yes, Rayburn, 81, succumbed to congestive heart failure at his daughter's Massachusetts home on Nov. 29.

My husband and I enjoyed Fred Willard's comedy appearances on "The Tonight Show." What other shows has he been on before? -Judi Lentz, Elkhart, Ind.

In recent seasons, Willard is best known as Scott, Leon's (Martin Mull) lover, on "Roseanne." He and Mull first teamed up in "Fernwood 2-Night," a 1977-78 spinoff of "Mary Hartman, Mary Hartman."

The 60-year-old comedy veteran had other series roles on "The Burns and Schreiber Comedy Hour," "Sirota's Court," "Forever Fernwood," "America 2-Night," "Real People," "Thicke of the Night" and "D.C. Follies, "as well as numerous movie roles and TV guest appearances.

Who starred in TV's "I Led Three Lives"? And was Frank Lovejoy the star of "Meet McGraw"? -Gayle Lazar, Swartz Creek, Mich.

Richard Carlson played Harry Philbrick, the nervous double agent in "I Led Three Lives," a syndicated 1953-56 drama airing at the height of the "Red Scare" about Communists infiltrating U.S. institutions.

And yes, that was Lovejoy as McGraw, a sort-of-detective whose first name was never revealed. The series premiered and ran for one season (1957-58) on NBC, then ABC reran the episodes as "The Adventures of McGraw" during the following season.

TRIVIA

- Actress Allison Janney ("The West Wing") was encouraged by Paul Newman and Joanne Woodward to try her talents in New York.

- "Roswell" executive producer Jonathan Frakes ("Star Trek: The Next Generation") appears in the first episode of the series.

- Dennis Haysbert ("Now and Again") received many athletic scholarships after high school but decided to pursue a career in acting instead.

- Christopher Meloni ("Law & Order: Special Victims Unit") made his living as a construction worker prior to getting his acting break.

- Mary Elizabeth Gore, a k a Tipper, was given her nickname by her mother. It was from one of Tipper's favorite children's stories.

- As a joke, in the season premiere's credits of "Friends", all the stars added "Arquette" to their names after newlywed Courteney Cox changed hers.

SUNDAY'S BEST BETS

Figure Skating

3 P.M. ON NBC

Christmas is over, but the spirit lives on in "Brian Boitano's Holiday Spectacular." Composer-musician John Tesh and R & B star Deborah Cox join the Olympic gold medalist for a two-hour theatrical production on ice, which also includes performances by Kristi Yamaguchi, Oksana Baiul, Alexei Urmanov, Brian Orser and Yuka Sato, among others. The show was taped Dec. 18 at the Mandalay Bay Resort in Las Vegas.

The Best Commercials You've Never Seen (And Some You Have) 2

6 P.M. ON ABC

"Where's the beef?" "I'd like to teach the world to sing ... " "It keeps going and going ... " We love to hate commercials, but they can be fun to watch. This special from last year showcases clever ads from around the world (warning: Some other countries aren't as strict as we are about what's OK to show on TV), along with some of our familiar favorites. ESPN anchors Dan Patrick and Kenny Mayne host the fun.

College Football

7 P.M. ON ABC

Two of the nation's better quarterbacks will be on display when Nebraska battles Tennessee in the Fiesta Bowl. Sophomore Eric Crouch triggers the Cornhuskers' potent option attack with his running skills. He led the nation this year in rushing among quarterbacks and accumulated 2,158 total yards. The unquestioned leader for the Volunteers is Tee Martin. The senior quarterback mirrors Crouch's ability to run, and his penchant for making the clutch pass has helped him compile a 22-2 record as a starter. These two teams are heavyweights in the college football ranks, making this bowl contest a must-see for pigskin fans.

Movie: Beyond the Prairie: The True Story of Laura Ingalls Wilder

8 P.M. ON CBS

Meredith Monroe ("Dawson's Creek") plays the beloved author in this new TV movie, which recounts Laura's transition to young adulthood. Shortly after meeting the handsome Almanzo Wilder, she leaves the family homestead for a teaching job 30 miles away, where visits from her new love help lift her homesickness. Then it's time for another big change when Almanzo pops the question. Richard Thomas and Lindsay Crouse star as Ma and Pa Ingalls, with Walton Goggins ("The Apostle") as Almanzo.

Movie: The Saint

8 P.M. ON NBC

A renegade Russian leader hires globe-trotting rent-a-spy Simon Templar to steal a nuclear fusion formula from a beautiful physicist. Employing a campy array of costumes, makeup, and accents, Val Kilmer fearlessly throws himself into the title role, leaving Elisabeth Shue, as the scientist, with little to do but look bewildered, bothered and finally bewitched. Alun Armstrong also stars in the 1997 adventure.

Consultant to 'Leeza' developing therapy show

By Lorri Antosz Benson

TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

What does the new millennium mean for talk television? Will we see new lows in exploiting people and their problems, or will there be a change in agenda?

Jamie Huysman, director of the Aftercare program for talk shows and a potential future talk show host himself, is looking — and hoping — for change.

"Talk television should make a New Year's resolution to create total new beginnings for people," he says. "These shows have such power, but most of the time, people lose themselves watching others. It can be 'Find Yourself TV' or 'Lose Yourself TV.' "

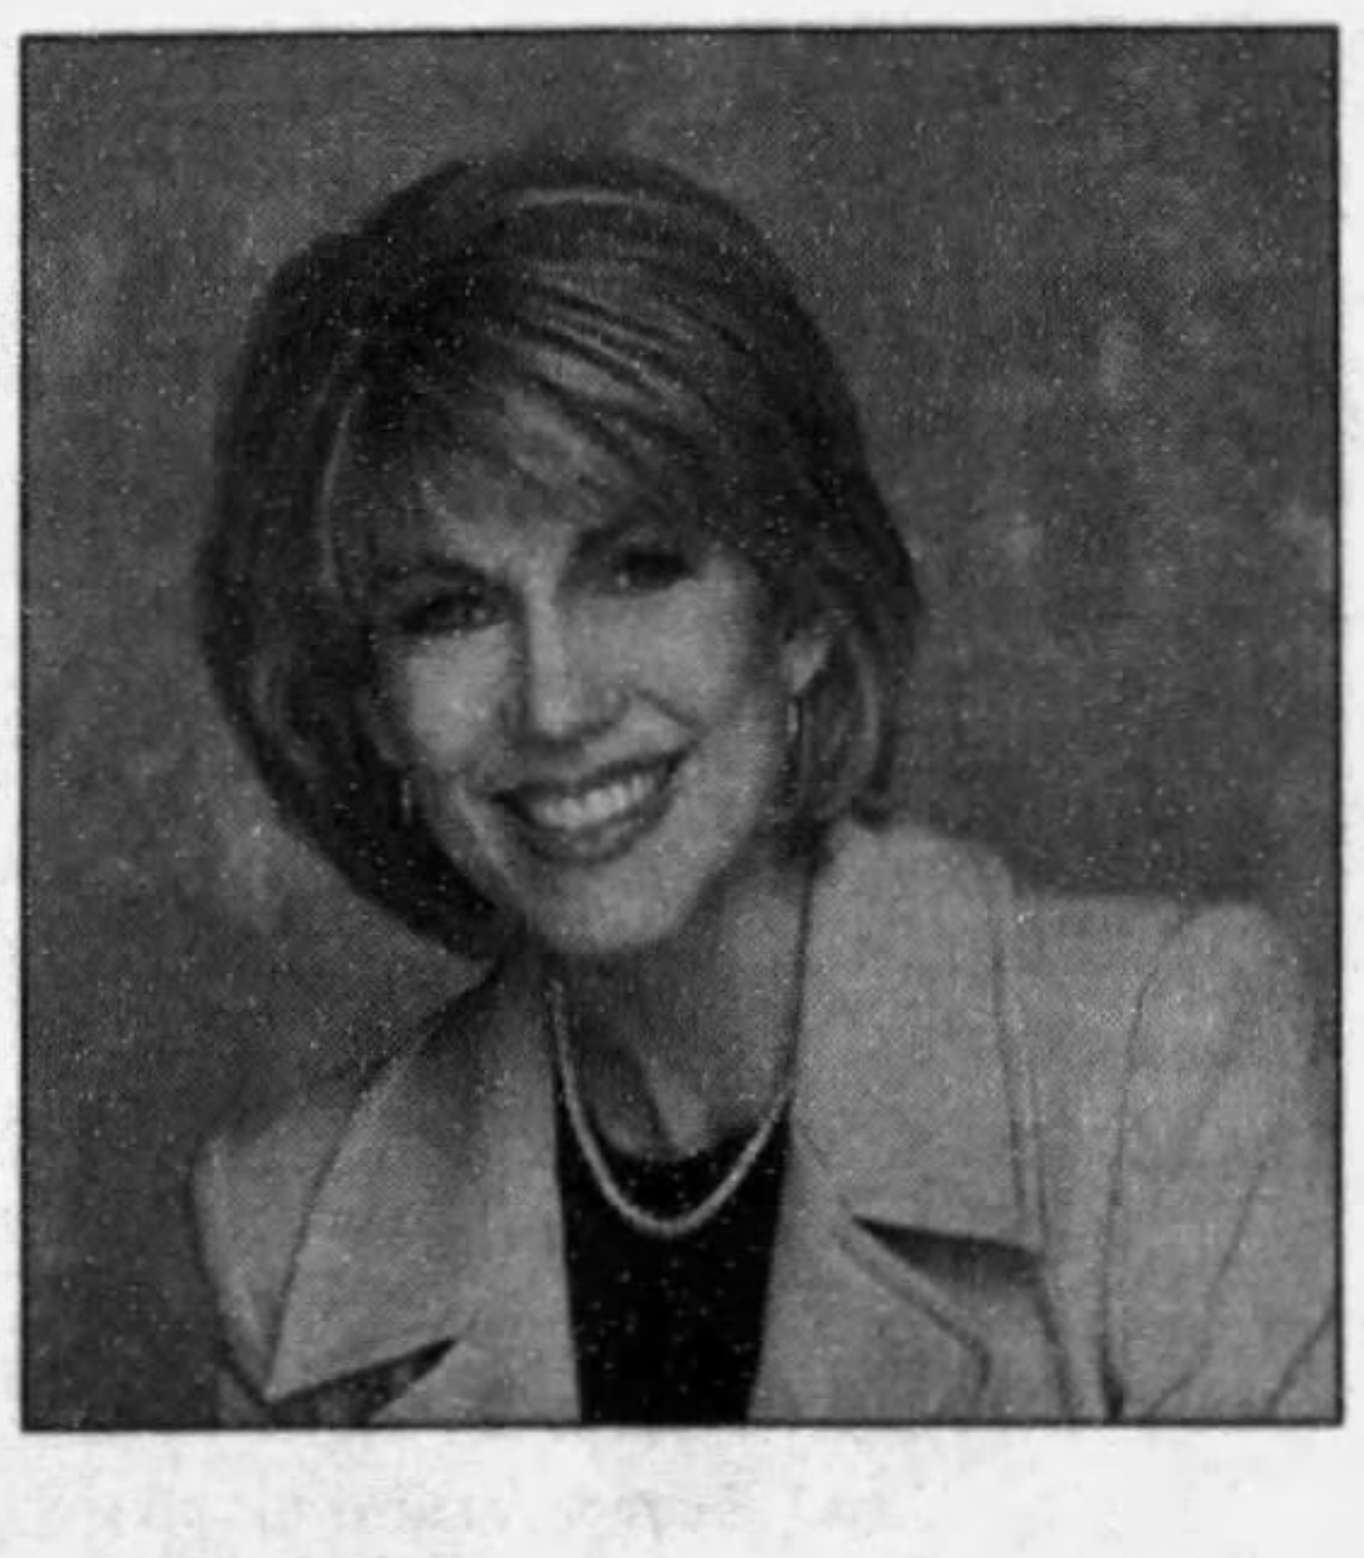
Talk the Talk

Huysman, who created an Aftercare program for Geraldo Rivera, now assists guests of Leeza Gibbons who need psychological help. He and producer Dan Weaver are also developing "Family Affairs," a show in which on-air therapy sessions are provided to one family per hour.

Speaking of New Year's resolutions, some guests who have participated in Aftercare are trying to change their lives.

An amazing example is that of Scott, a severely obese man, and the love of his life, Jenny, a 21-year-old anorexic runner. Huysman first met Scott almost four years ago when he appeared on "Geraldo" weighing 800 pounds.

Placed in several treatment centers, he lost 200 pounds but suffered a setback after the death of his mother. He went back into treatment at the Rogers Memorial Hospital in Wisconsin, where he met and fell in love with Jenny in the Eating Disorder Center.



Leeza Gibbons

Jenny, dealing with her own life-threatening condition, joined Scott to discuss their problems and relationship on Gibbons' show in November. Huysman did an intervention, pointing out that they have to concentrate on their separate recoveries before they can successfully be reunited.

"They both have very difficult tasks ahead of them," Huysman says, "especially Jenny. Anorexia is especially complex, but they are both doing well. Their New Year's resolution is to get well, but they need to concentrate on themselves and keep separate from each other."

Huysman and Weaver are feeling optimistic, not only about Scott and Jenny, but about "Family Affairs" as well. They recently entered into a contract with Gibbons' production company to produce the show.

"There is strong synergy between what we're doing and what Leeza thinks TV should be doing," Huysman says. As the New Year begins, it's nice to see the positive side of what talk TV can accomplish.

MONDAY'S BEST BETS

Ladies Man
7:30 P.M. ON CBS

What woman can stand to see a grown man cry? Jimmy (Alfred Molina) discovers that a tear is worth a thousand words when it comes to getting his way and starts using his newfound power every chance he gets, priming the pump with a picture of a childhood pet. But when the women get wind of his scheme, they really give him something to cry about. Sharon Lawrence and Betty White also star in the encore of "Jimmy's Song."

The American Experience
8 P.M. ON PBS

As we begin a new century, the encore of "America 1900" recalls the start of the last one, a time of optimism tempered by challenges similar to those we face today. Just as we deal with the Internet, sex and violence on TV, racial tensions and America's role in foreign wars, the Americans of 1900 were adjusting to electricity, indoor plumbing and the automobile, conflicts between African-American leaders over the best way to empower blacks, and a divisive war in the Philippines.

Investigative Reports
8 P.M. ON A&E

For most of us, the flu is unpleasant, but not deadly. But in 1918, a nasty influenza bug claimed more than 40 million people around the world. And it could happen again; a deadly strain hit Hong Kong not long ago. "Hunt for the Killer Flu" chronicles two separate expeditions to get samples of the virus from frozen victims of the 1918 epidemic. The hope is that analyzing it will provide clues to preventing more lethal outbreaks. The risk is that harvesting it will turn an old killer loose on the world.

LADIES MAN

Ladies' Home Journal's Most Fascinating Women
9 P.M. ON CBS

Roma Downey ("Touched by an Angel") hosts the magazine's annual salute to some of the women who made headlines in 1999. The list includes two Oscar winners — Jodie Foster and Susan Sarandon — as well as veteran singing sensation Aretha Franklin and up-and-comer Christina Aguilera, "Friends" star Lisa Kudrow, soccer's Mia Hamm and author J.K. Rowling. Would-be first ladies Tipper Gore, Laura Bush, Ernestine Bradley and Cindy McCain, are also featured.

City Confidential
9 P.M. ON A&E

"Middleburg: Pistols, Ponies, and Foul Play" recalls the high-profile 1997 murder that rocked a wealthy, horsy enclave in Virginia. The victim was Roberto Villegas, a polo star from Argentina with a rocky past and an equally tumultuous relationship with arms heiress Susan Cummings. When Cummings was accused of gunning down her boyfriend, she claimed she was defending herself from his knife attack. The prosecution called it an ambush killing. The verdict in the case was an even bigger shock to the community than the killing had been.

Tuesday's Best Bets

College Football

7 P.M. ON ABC

After tonight, there should be no debating who's No. 1. It's the national championship game to close the college football season as top-ranked Florida State battles No. 2 Virginia Tech in the Sugar Bowl. This is old hat for the Seminoles, who are playing in the title game for the third time in four years. Senior receiver Peter Warrick, who has 71 catches and 12 touchdowns in only nine games, gets a chance to shine on a national stage before cashing in on a career in the NFL. The Hokies star player — freshman quarterback Michael Vick — is just beginning his college career. Vick's running and passing ability has brought national recognition to a team known in recent years just for defense.

Just Shoot Me

7 P.M. ON NBC

An article about lost loves sends Elliott (Enrico Colantoni) on a melancholy journey down memory lane, accompanied by a kicking and screaming Nina (Wendie Malick). Turns out she was the hit-and-run driver responsible for his losing the love of his life 15 years ago. Speaking of lost love, immigration officials threaten to throw a monkey wrench into Finch's (David Spade) marriage to Adrienne (Rebecca Romijn-Stamos). George Segal also stars in the encore of "When Nina Met Elliott."

Biography

7 P.M. ON A&E

Before the purple dinosaur, before Fred Flintstone's neighbor, TV's most beloved Barney was a bumbling deputy sheriff. "Don Knotts" profiles the shy actor who made a career of playing lovable misfits, from Sheriff Taylor's high-strung sidekick to the original fish out of water, Mr. Limpet. Former co-stars Andy Griffith, Ron Howard and John Ritter are among the interviewees.

Lee Marvin: A Personal Portrait by John Boorman

7 P.M. ON AMC

British director John Boorman ("Excalibur," "Deliverance") presents an unconventional profile of his close friend, actor Lee Marvin. The encore special is marked by Boorman's affectionate, and sometimes rambling, recollections of the late star, who won the best actor Oscar for "Cat Ballou." Director Jim Jarmusch and actor William Hurt also share their thoughts.

Will & Grace

8 P.M. ON NBC

In the encore of "Grace, Replaced," Grace (Debra Messing) gets too busy at work to hang with Will (Eric McCormack), so he starts spending time with neighbor Val (guest star Molly Shannon, "Analyze This"). But Grace feels threatened and begins a ferocious defense of her position as Will's No. 1 gal pal. Guy pal Jack (Sean Hayes) has problems of his own; he had a minor attack of the Zsa Zsas and slapped a meter maid, and the judge is talking trash (as in "I sentence you to pick up ... "). Megan Mullally also stars.

THURSDAY'S BEST BETS

Diagnosis Murder
7 P.M. ON CBS

In "Man Overboard," Mark (Dick Van Dyke) gets a plum gig filling in for a cruise ship's doctor, but he soon discovers this is no love boat. The nice lady he befriends is planning to dump her husband ... into the drink. When Mark finds out what's going down, guess who becomes the would-be black widow's next target.

Biography
7 P.M. ON A&E

The encore of "Tim Conway: Just Clowning Around" profiles the man who's been making us laugh since 1961. That's when he made his network debut with Steve Allen, who heard about the then-local TV comic from Rose Marie ("The Dick Van Dyke Show"). From there, Conway went on to play Ensign Parker in "McHale's Navy," a variety of unforgettable characters on "The Carol Burnett Show" and the title character in a string of goofy "Dorf" sports spoofs. Burnett, Allen, "McHale's" star Ernest Borgnine and others talk about their comical colleague.

Movie: The Outlaw Josey Wales
7 P.M. ON TNT

A peaceful Civil War-era farmer (Clint Eastwood) is transformed into a Confederate vigilante after Union soldiers kill his family. Unwilling to surrender after the war, he flees, hooking up with a friendly American Indian and rescuing a pretty young farm woman from unfriendly Indians and other threats. Sondra Locke and Chief Dan George also star in this 1976 Western, which Eastwood directed.

DIAGNOSIS MURDER

Whose Line Is It Anyway?
7:30 P.M. ON ABC

In an encore from October, the ever-popular "Let's Make a Date" segment casts regulars Ryan Stiles as a full-of-himself fraternity fellow, Wayne Brady as a schoolmarm and Colin Mochrie as a model. Mochrie takes on the role of a dentist in another sketch, while Brady sings a bit of rock opera. Drew Carey hosts.

Totally Out of Control — People
8 P.M. ON ABC

If your faith in human nature is shaky, you may want to avoid this special. It's a clip compilation showcasing people at their worst, from teen-age vandals and firebugs to criminals, schoolyard bullies and rioting sports fans. The hour is narrated by former kid star Danny Bonaduce, whose own out-of-control behavior made headlines a few years back (but he's feeling much better now).

Movie: Blind Faith
8 P.M. ON TMC

Courtney B. Vance ("The Preacher's Wife") stars as a defense attorney whose relationship with his police officer brother (Charles S. Dutton) becomes strained when the latter's son is suspected of murder. Set in 1950s New York, the 1998 drama also stars Kadeem Hardison ("A Different World") as their younger brother Eddie, a musician.

FRIDAY'S BEST BETS

Boy Meets World
7 P.M. ON ABC

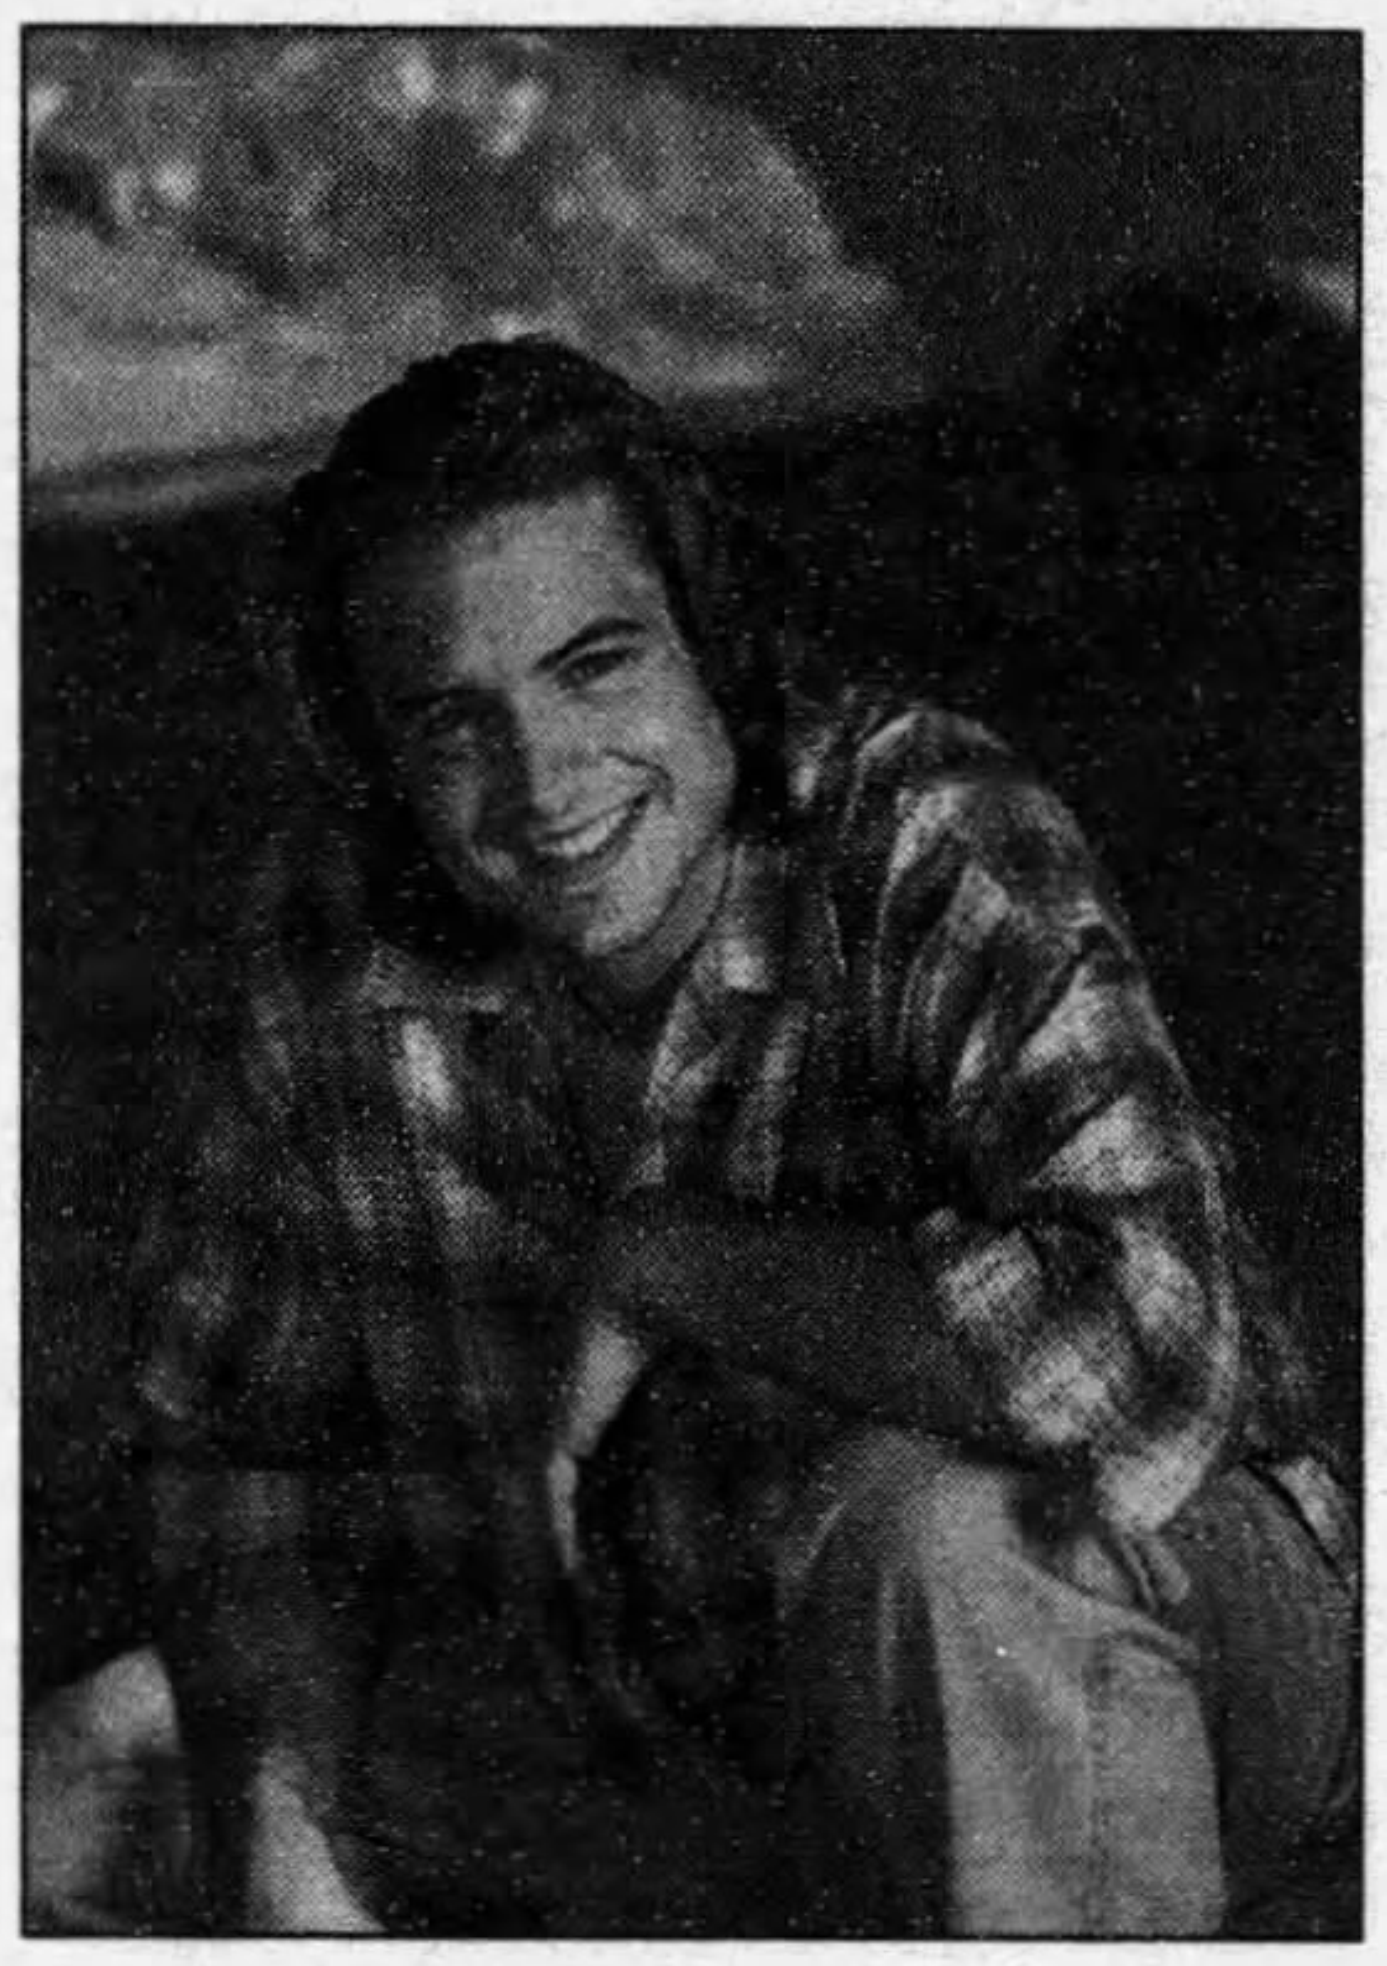
Cory (Ben Savage) may be a '90s guy, but part of him is old-fashioned enough to be uncomfortable about his wife making more money than he does. Topanga's (Danielle Fishel) great new job is the catalyst for the pair's first argument as husband and wife. Maybe he'll feel better if he just chalks it up to luck — something that Eric (Will Friedle) knows all about lately. He's come into possession of a lucky penny that actually seems to work.

Providence
7 P.M. ON NBC

Just as Sydney (Melina Kanakaredes) is wishing for a little romance in her life, she meets a very romantic figure: a young Russian (guest star Ariel Joseph Towne) with an artistic gift, an interest in her ... and, sadly, a life-threatening illness. Joanie (Paula Cale) tries to track down her own mystery man: a fellow in a Zorro costume who kissed her at a party.

Movie: Affliction
7 P.M. ON MAX

A fatal hunting accident that may actually be murder brings small-town sheriff Wade Whitehouse's (Nick Nolte) personal and professional despair to a head. Nolte earned an Oscar nomination for his performance in this intense 1997 drama, and James Coburn took home the best supporting actor statuette for his portrayal of Wade's abusive, alcoholic father. Willem Dafoe, in the role of Wade's brother, narrates the story. Mary Beth Hurt and Sissy Spacek also star.



Will Friedle
BOY MEETS WORLD

Sabrina, the Teenage Witch
8 P.M. ON ABC

Girls, don't try this at home. Eager to look her best for the Winter Ball, Sabrina (Melissa Joan Hart) goes on a diet from the Other Realm that proves much too effective. She doesn't just shrink; she disappears. Speaking of shrinking, an angry Hilda (Caroline Rhea) takes desperate measures when a competitor threatens her shop, turning him into an insect. B

L.A. Detectives
8 P.M. ON A&E

Homicide detectives from the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department use old-fashioned legwork and all the technology at their disposal to identify a fatally burned woman and catch her killers. Two others go after a clever burglar, stalker and rapist who gets into his victims' homes by telling them he's fleeing a rival gang. Bill Kurtis hosts the gritty reality series.

Law & Order: Special Victims Unit
9 P.M. ON NBC

Benson and Stabler's (Mariska Hargitay, Christopher Meloni) latest case, a sexual assault, appears open and shut. They have a suspect who matches the description that the victim gave them, and he's even been caught using her credit card. But there's one problem: The victim can't identify him now. Tracy Pollan and Terry Serpico guest star.

SATURDAY'S BEST BETS

Elvis in Hollywood

6 P.M. ON AMC

It's Elvis Presley's birthday, and the cable channel celebrates with this hourlong retrospective of his big-screen achievements, which has had previous airings on Disney Channel and VH1. The king of rock 'n' roll starred in more than 30 movies, from musical romps such as "Viva Las Vegas" with Ann-Margaret and "Girls! Girls! Girls!" to the unlikely slum-doctor-and-nun love story "Change of Habit." He even made a few big-screen appearances after he died, thanks to archival footage (mostly in documentaries, but remember when he met Forrest Gump?). A screening of his second movie, 1957's "Loving You," follows the special.

Movie: The Fifth Element

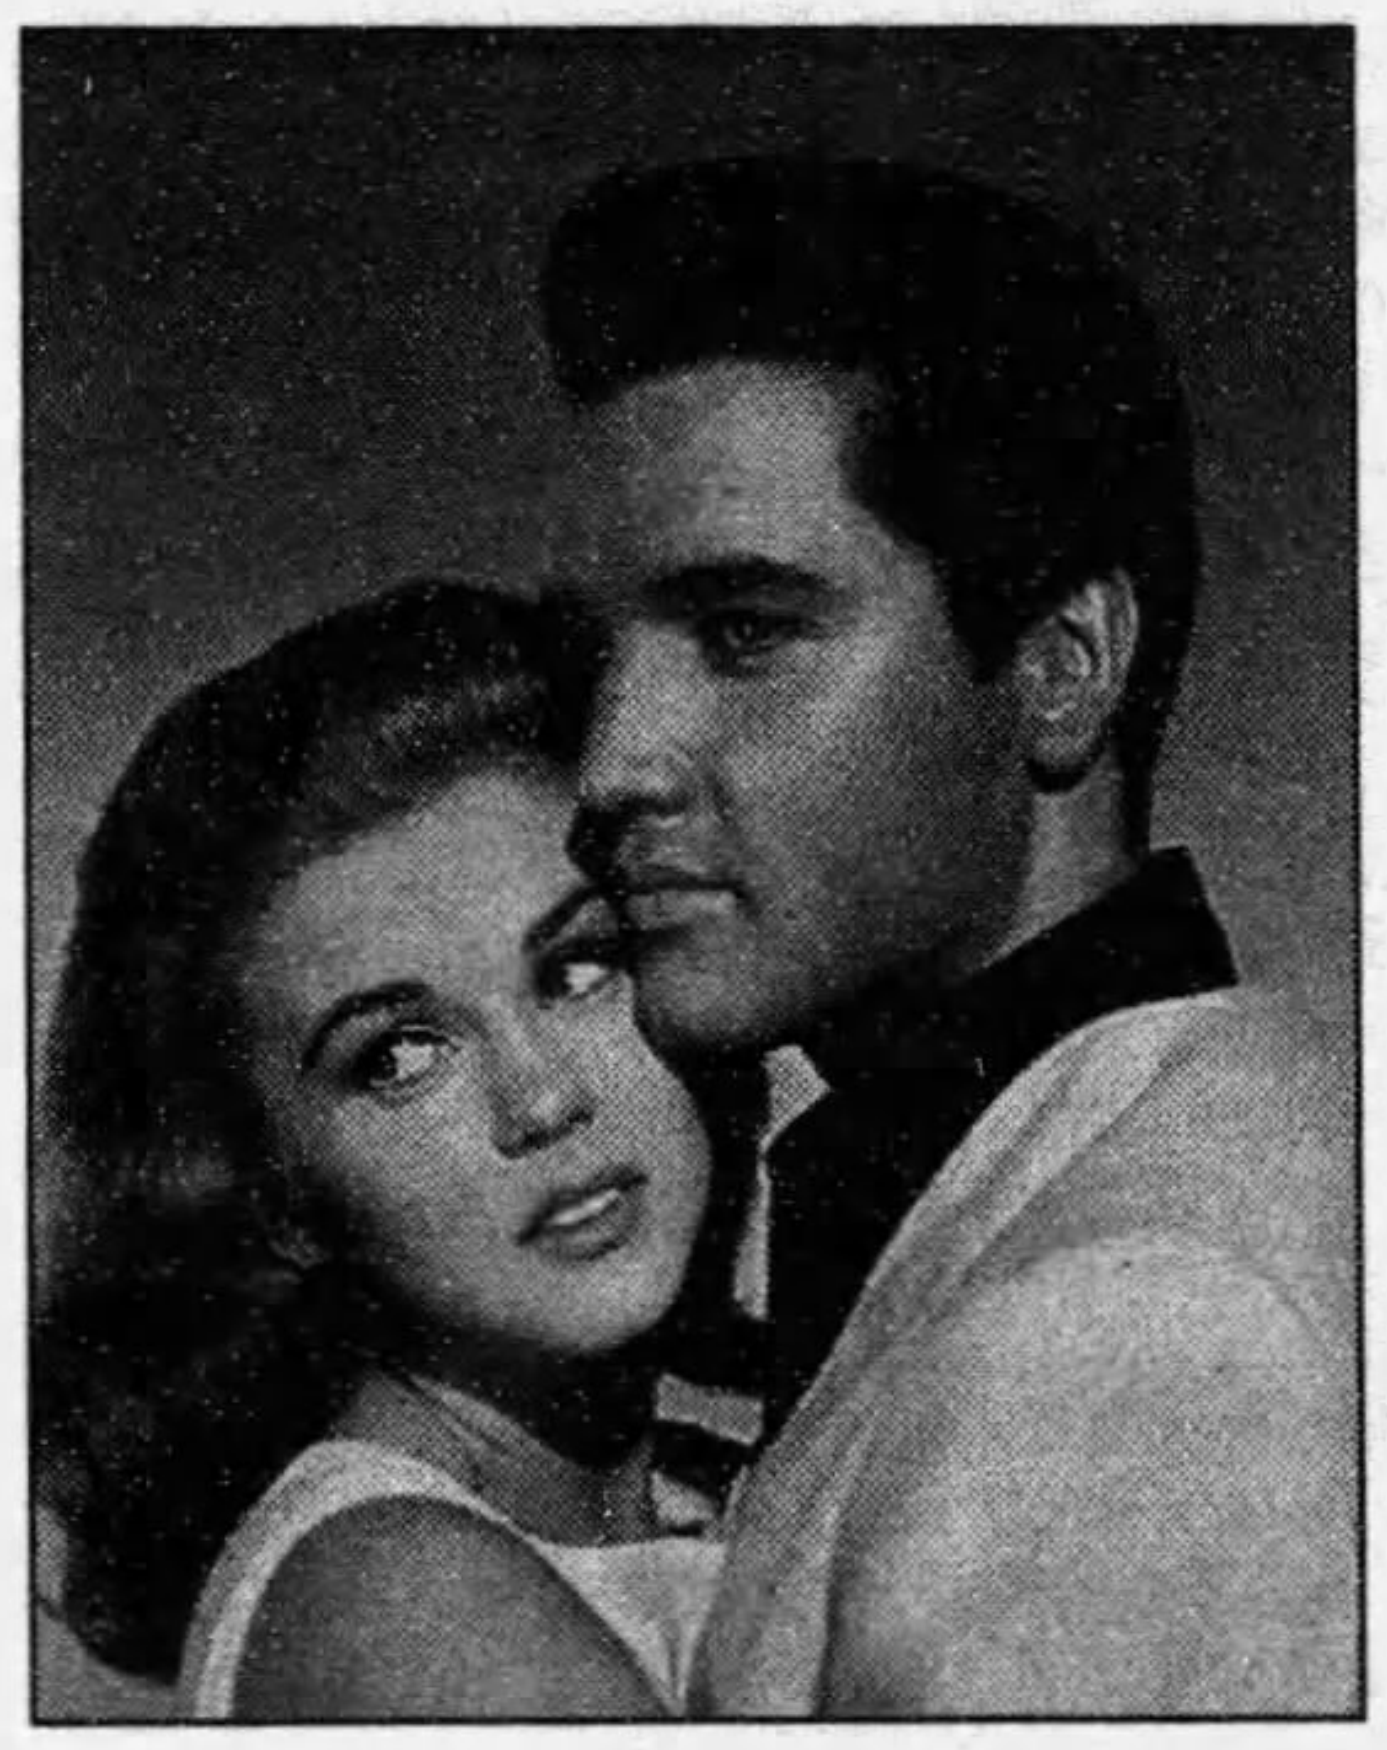
7 P.M. ON ABC

After a prologue about a set of five totems discovered in 1914, the action in this 1997 sci-fi thriller leaps forward 300 years. With a planet headed for impact with Earth, an evil overlord (Gary Oldman) prepares to battle a high priest (Ian Holm) with knowledge of the totems. The driver (Bruce Willis) of a flying taxi lends his fists to the fray. Milla Jovovich and Luke Perry also star.

Movie: The Thin Red Line

7 P.M. ON HBO

Despite being upstaged in the public consciousness by "Saving Private Ryan," Terrence Malick's take on World War II in the Pacific snagged seven Oscar nominations, including best picture and best director. Nick Nolte shines as the colonel who wants the glory of a full frontal attack, no matter how many lives it costs. Elias Koteas plays the defiant captain who wants no part of such a suicide mission. Sean Penn, George Clooney, Woody Harrelson and John Travolta also star.



Ann-Margaret and Elvis Presley

ELVIS IN HOLLYWOOD

Movie: Star Trek: Insurrection

7 P.M. ON SHOW

A race of aliens, with Federation support, wants to uproot the forever-young inhabitants of an idyllic planet and claim it for the billions who need its fountain-of-youth radiation. But Capt. Picard (Patrick Stewart) sees a violation of the Prime Directive — don't mess with other civilizations — in the plan and openly defies the powers that be. F. Murray Abraham, Marina Sirtis and Brent Spiner also star in the ninth big-screen "Trek" outing, the second to be directed by Jonathan Frakes (a k a Cmdr. Riker).

Midsomer Murders

8 P.M. ON A&E

In "Death's Shadow," a wealthy developer is murdered, and Inspector Barnaby (John Nettles) initially suspects that someone unhappy with the man's property plans took him out. But when two more people are slain, one of them a likely suspect in the developer's death, Barnaby and Troy (Daniel Casey) have to refocus their investigation all the way back to the victims' childhood.

Believe it! "Ripley's returns with new, bizarre stories

By Jacqueline Cutler
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

If you love circus sideshows, the latest incarnation of "Ripley's Believe It or Not!," premiering Wednesday, Jan. 12, on TBS, is for you.

Even if you don't want to be drawn in, or are squeamish, there's just something about watching cannibals chomping on human flesh, or men sticking large hooks into their bodies, then hanging around — literally — that makes you stop and watch.

"It was always out there, like Moby Dick," says Erik Nelson, executive producer of "Ripley's Believe It or Not!" "The great reality TV franchise hadn't been properly exploited in too long."

The original show ran from 1949 to 1950 and was brought back from 1982 to 1986. This newest incarnation is hosted by Dean Cain ("Lois & Clark: The New Adventures of Superman").

"As the TV audience has gotten more sophisticated, and probably more jaded, you have to serve up more engaging and interesting stories to satisfy," Nelson says.

The research staff has been contacting photographers and camera crews around the world for six months, says Dan Jbara, supervising producer.

Cover story

"What the people do may be bizarre, but the people themselves are average, ordinary people, someone we feel you could relate to."

Well, that's subjective, as one episode visits Erik Sprague, a k a Lizard Man, who is gradually altering his body through tattoos, implants and other cosmetic changes to look more reptilian.

The show is designed to spark conversations around the company water cooler, and it most likely will, with a premiere episode that opens with cannibals in India who ingest human flesh as part of a religious rite. The Aghoree tribe's ceremony had never been filmed until now, and participants are careful to never use their hands, just their teeth.

The show is well-paced, in that it allows the audience to catch its breath. After the cannibals, Dean Ortner, a science teacher at Moody Bible Institute, shows how he courses one million volts of electricity through his body. Just when viewers may be feeling a bit drained, a talking dog is shown to lighten the mood.

Viewers are warned that the next segment is not for the squeamish. Take the warning seriously if the sight of maggots eating a live man might disturb you. But take heart in the fact that maggots are used in some hospitals to eat decaying flesh and bacteria in instances where surgery wouldn't do.

Robert "Bulldog" Bricoe look-a-like

By Taylor Michaels
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Pipeline

The guy who plays Robert "Bulldog" Briscoe on "Frasier" looks a lot like movie actor Ed Harris. Are they related? -Mrs. C. Wilenken, Santa Rosa, Calif.

You are right about the resemblance, but Harris is not related to "Frasier" actor Dan Butler.

I was deeply touched by your recent comments about Madeline Kahn's battle with ovarian cancer. Your readers may not have heard that, at your column's deadline, this beautiful actress lost her fight. I miss her terribly, and I never even met her. Thanks for caring, Taylor. -Michael via e-mail.

I think we were all stunned by how swiftly Kahn's death (on Dec. 3) followed her public announcement about her illness, and I share your grief, Michael.

In the tributes following the death of this adorable actress, I was deeply struck by an uncannily perceptive comment by "Entertainment Weekly" writer George Hodgman, who wrote, "She could deliver a Rorshach on a character with a single word; by the end of the sentence, you had the complete biography."

My thoughts are very much with Kahn's husband, John Hansbury, and her colleagues on "Cosby" as they try to cope with a loss that is almost beyond comprehension. Her memory will shine on for years to come.

Can you refresh my memory about a TV show called "Down to Earth"? It involved an angel named Ethel who tried to take care of a family. -Chad Goodman, Delaware, Ohio.

"Down to Earth," which aired in syndication from 1984 to 1987, starred Carol Mansell as Ethel MacDoogan, a flapper struck down by a trolley in 1925 who was sent back to Earth to earn her angelic wings by helping the Preston family. The series also featured former "Bewitched" star Dick Sargent, Ronnie Schell, Rip Taylor and Kyle Richards.

I recently read that young actress Heather O'Rourke died shortly before the release of "Poltergeist III." Of what did she die? -Robert C. Pritchard, Columbus, Ohio.

The 12-year-old actress died during emergency surgery for a condition called intestinal stenosis on Feb. 1, 1988. Her mother charged that a misdiagnosis contributed to the death.

At the same time Westerns "Sugarfoot" and "Cheyenne" were on the air, Ty Hardin had a similar show. Could you please remind me of the name? -Julia M., Port Orange, Fla.

Hardin starred as a loner named Bronco Layne in "Bronco," an ABC Western set in post-Civil War Texas. It ran (sometimes under the "Cheyenne" banner) from 1959-62.

TRIVIA

Justin Berfield ("Malcolm in the Middle") auditioned for the role of Anakin Skywalker in "Star Wars: Episode I — The Phantom Menace."

Christopher Kennedy Masterson ("Malcolm in the Middle") is the brother of Danny Masterson, who plays Steve Hyde on "That '70s Show."

David Cassidy, son of actors Evelyn Ward and Jack Cassidy, is the stepson of actress Shirley Jones and the half brother of Shaun Cassidy.

Jeff Daniels ("The Crossing") received only $500,000 for his work in "Dumb & Dumber," which grossed more than $246 million worldwide.

SUNDAY'S BEST BETS

3 P.M. ON CBS

College Basketball

With conference play just beginning, both Duke and Maryland look to get a leg up in the ACC when they battle in College Park, Md. Duke haters were gloating when the Blue Devils began the season 0-2, but the team rebounded in the next six weeks, including consecutive victories over Illinois, DePaul and Michigan. With junior forward Shane Battier leading the way, Duke has the goods to win a fourth consecutive ACC title. Maryland is in the midst of arguably its toughest conference stretch, with North Carolina State and Georgia Tech sandwiched around Duke. They'll need a big game today from junior forward Terence Morris, whose all-around skills led to preseason ACC Player of the Year predictions.

7 P.M. ON NBC

Twenty One

The soundproof booths are back, but let's hope the scandal isn't. Maury Povich hosts this new incarnation of the popular '50s game show, in which two contestants are isolated from each other as they answer increasingly difficult questions. The goal is to be the first to score 21 points, and there's no limit to the big bucks a player can take home as long as he keeps winning. Another episode airs Wednesday, with two more next week.

7 P.M. ON SHOW

Death of a Salesman

Brian Dennehy makes a small man larger than life in this brilliant 50th-anniversary revival of Arthur Miller's searing drama. But you don't have to go to Broadway to see it; Showtime caught it on tape. Dennehy won a Tony for his portrayal of Willy Loman, a simple man with simple dreams who is destroyed by their failure to come true. A Tony also went to Elizabeth Franz for her performance as Willy's wife.

7 P.M. ON TNT

Movie: The Virginian

Bill Pullman ("While You Were Sleeping," "Spaceballs") is director, producer and star of this sharp new adaptation of Owen Wister's classic Western novel. Seeking his fortune in wild Wyoming, the Virginian falls for another transplanted Easterner, the opinionated schoolmarm Molly (Diane Lane), and takes a respectable ranch job to win her heart. But a friend's betrayal and a threat to his ranch force him to resort to the rough Western justice she abhors. James Drury, star of the '60s TV series "The Virginian," also stars.

7:30 P.M. ON FOX

Malcolm in the Middle

"Pilot" introduces a 9-year-old boy from a chaotic but loving family who walks the tightrope between normal childhood and the demands of a genius IQ. Frankie Muniz ("What the Deaf Man Heard") stars in this bright new family sitcom created by actor-turned-director Linwood Boomer (Adam from "Little House on the Prairie"). Bryan Cranston (Jerry's dentist in "Seinfeld") and Jane Kaczmarek ("Felicity," "Frasier") play Malcolm's folks. Christopher Kennedy Masterson (brother of Danny from "That '70s Show") also stars.

Love must "Forgive or Forget"

By Lorri Antosz Benson

TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Talk the Talk

"Dr. Joy Browne" executive producer Burt Dubrow wants to start the new year out by setting the record straight.

Contrary to reports of "rocky waters" and possible impending cancellation, Dubrow assured this reporter — as of press time — that "every indication is that (syndicator) Eyemark sees this show lasting, and there's no talk within the company of cancellation."

A report that Dubrow delivered an early warning to the staff "is just not true," according to the producer.

"That's not even my style," he asserts, "and there would've been no reason to do it anyway."

Dubrow discussed plans to bring the show to the National Association of Television Program Executives later this month, a sign of faith from Eyemark.

What about the low ratings?

"Joy is a magnificent personality," he says, "and the show is unique. It takes time in this complicated world for people to find you. We're no different from anyone else just starting out."

Although Browne's professional New Year's resolution may be to keep her show on the air, she has several personal ones, too.

One of them is to try to get more sleep. Browne's rigorous schedule — five radio shows and six TV shows each week — is leaving her plumb tuckered out.

Sleep is not the only thing of which she is deprived; resolution No. 2 is to resuscitate her personal life. Lastly, she will try not to carry grudges into the millennium.

That might be a tough one for Mother Love, host of "Forgive or Forget." In a year when almost all talk show ratings are heading south, "Forgive or Forget" is no exception. Love apparently is being made the scapegoat; she's out, and actress Robin Givens is in.

This week begins regular airing for the runaway hit "Who Wants to Be a Millionaire? "with talk host Regis Philbin.

The show, which handed ABC the November ratings crown, will now be seen on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Sundays.

NBC is taking the winning formula one step further. This week, it debuts its own game show, "Twenty One."

Mother Love

Maury Povich — whose current show, "Maury," saw the largest increase in audience of any talk show this year — will host four hourlong broadcasts of this revival of one of the most popular game shows in television history.

The original show sparked the scandal upon which the hit 1994 feature film "Quiz Show" was based.

MONDAY'S BEST BETS

7 P.M. ON FOX

Time of Your Life/Ally McBeal

In "The Time They Decide to Date," Sarah, Romy and Joss (Jennifer Love Hewitt, Jennifer Garner, Gina Ravera) come up dry when they go fishing for romantic prospects. Then Ally (Calista Flockhart) thinks she's found the perfect guy: a homeless man who's actually a writer researching the subject. But Mr. Writer has a dark side that rules out his Mr. Right potential. Also in "Out in the Cold," Ling (Lucy Liu) is arrested for operating a brothel. Gil Bellows also stars.

8 P.M. ON ABC

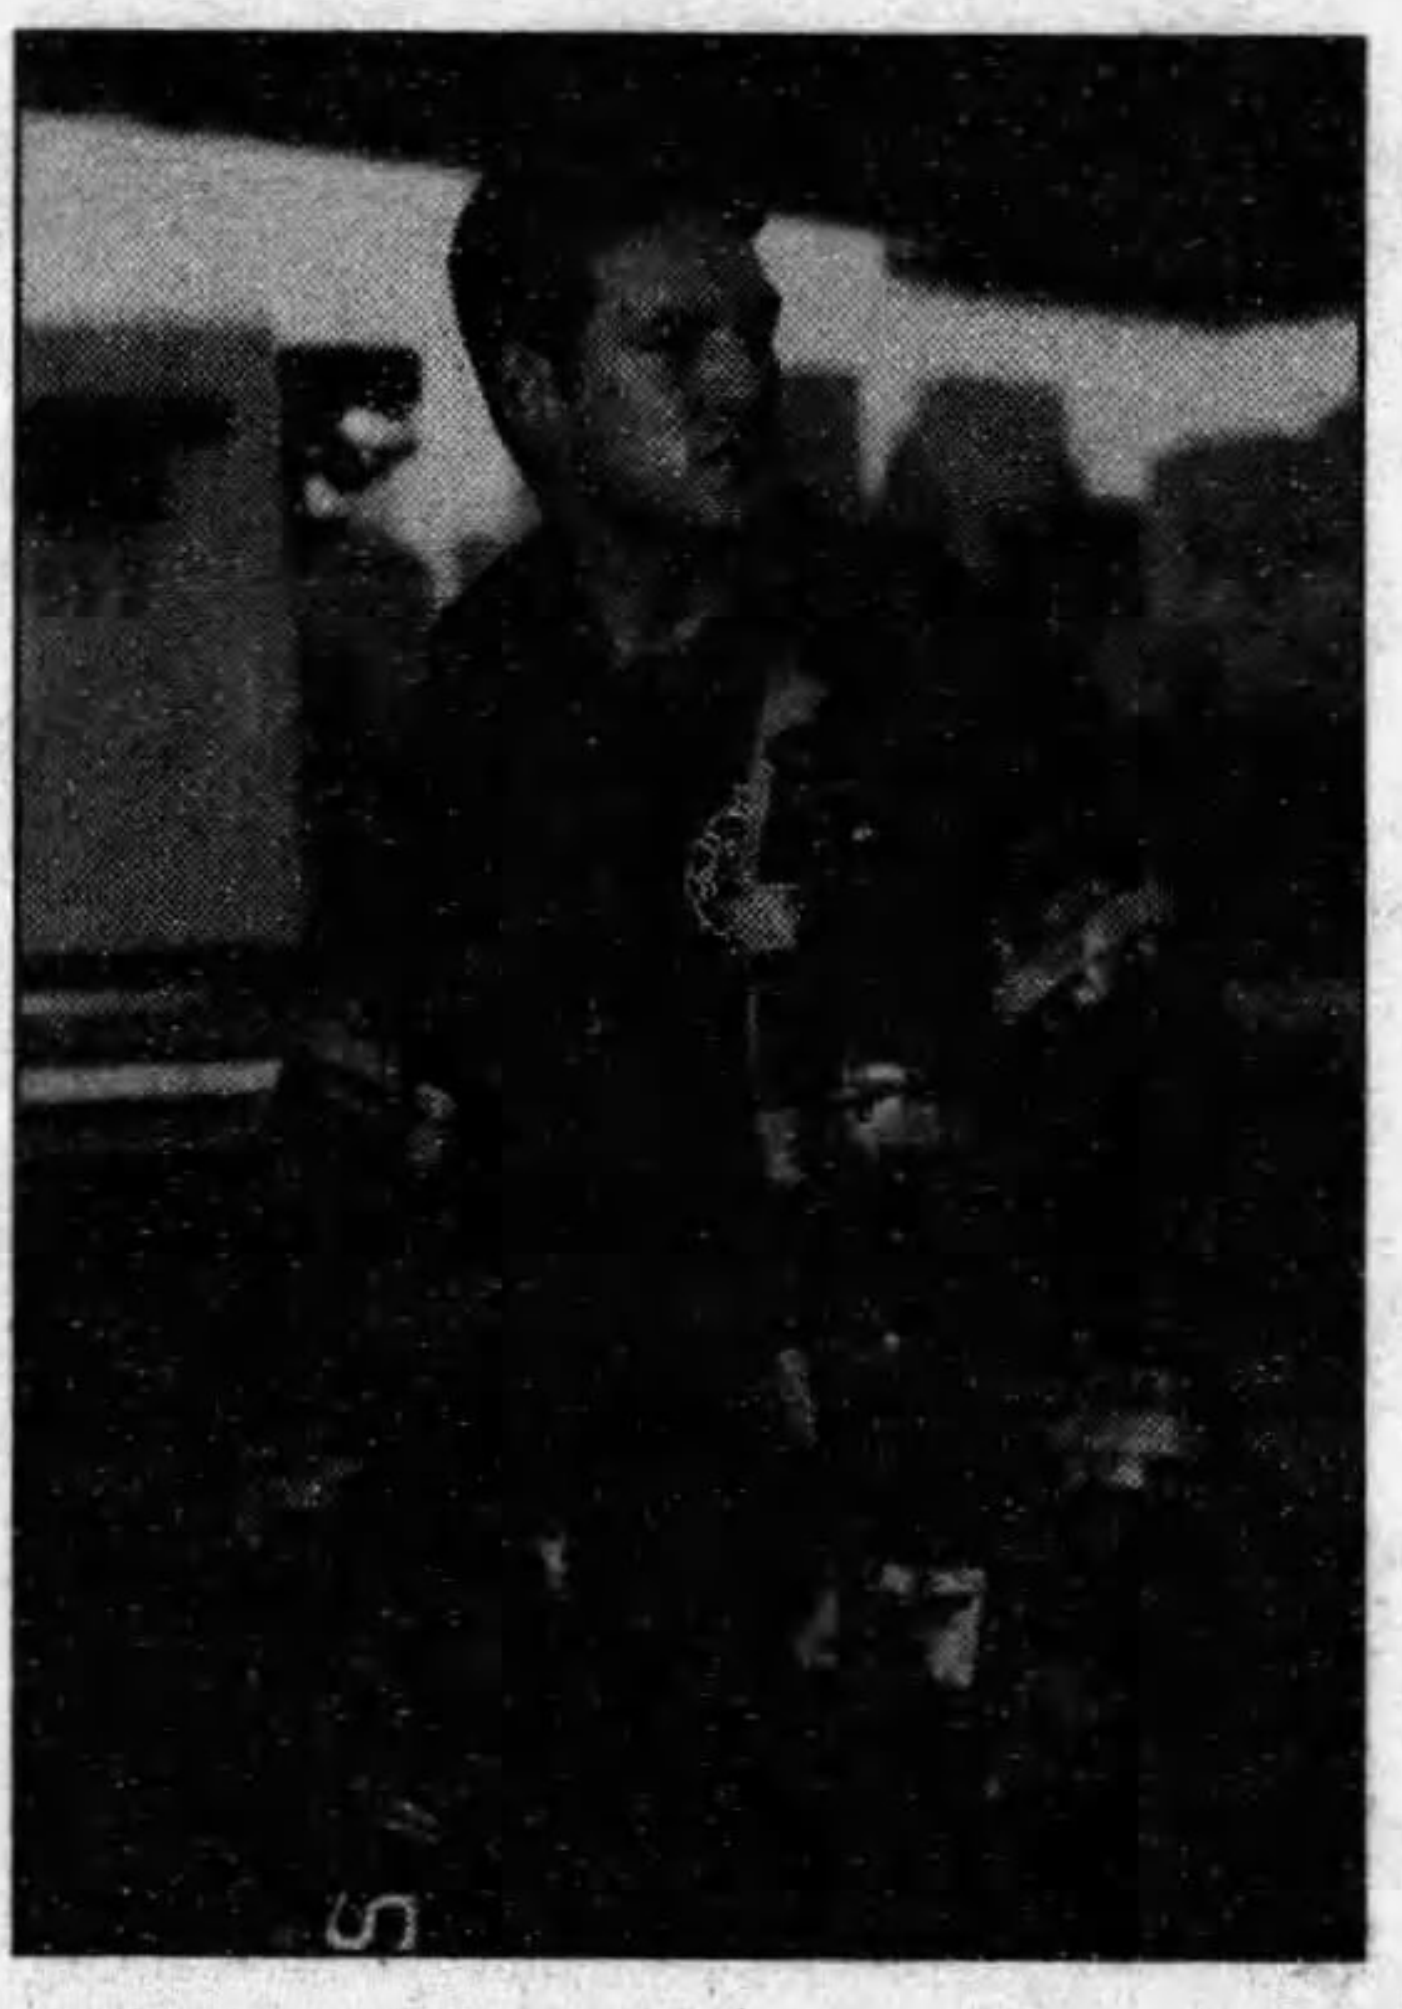
Movie: Muhammad Ali: King of the World

Two networks have been working on TV movies about Ali, but ABC beats Fox to the punch with this adaptation of David Remnick's biography of the fighter. It focuses on the early and mid-'60s, when the young boxer then known as Cassius Clay was developing his reputation, his ring style and his faith. The climax is his history-making defeat of Sonny Liston in 1964, from which he emerged with new fame and a new name. Terrence Howard ("The Best Man") and Steve Harris star.

8 P.M. ON CBS

Everybody Loves Raymond

Robert (Brad Garrett) has been dating Amy (Monica Horan) for two years now. So why can't he commit? Could it be ... he's gay? That's Debra's (Patricia Heaton) theory, which Ray (Ray Romano) poohpoohs until he takes a closer look at his brother. Robert has at least a couple of stereotypically gay traits, including his flair for design, so Ray starts to wonder whether Debra might be right. Doris Roberts and Peter Boyle also star in "What's With Robert?"



Eddie Cibrian
THIRD WATCH

9 P.M. ON CBS

Family Law

When Rex (Christopher McDonald) asks Lynn (Kathleen Quinlan) to help him get through to his client, a 10-year-old boy accused of murder, her discomfort with his legal tactics is compounded by the media spotlight shining on the case. On the home front, Don's (Jason Beghe) ex-fiancee drops a bombshell that brings his relationship with Danni (Julie Warner) to a turning point. Georg Sanford Brown and Conrad Janis guest star in "Media Relations."

9 P.M. ON NBC

Third Watch

A building in the process of being torn down collapses prematurely, trapping two demolition workers and injuring several other people. While Doherty and Zambrano (Eddie Cibrian, Kim Raver) defy death — and orders to get the heck out of there — to help the two men, Yokas and Bosco (Molly Price, Jason Wiles), try to keep a stubborn reporter at bay. Doc (Michael Beach) massages a victim's heart during a frantic ride to the hospital in "Demolition Derby."

TUESDAY'S BEST BETS

7 P.M. ON A&E

Biography

"Redd Foxx: Say It Like It Is" remembers the comic who honed his craft in all-black clubs and won a mixed-race fan base with his often raunchy but always clever observations of the human condition. He hit superstardom not with stand-up, however, but with his portrayal of a curmudgeonly junkman in TV's "Sanford and Son." Recordings of Foxx's early performances, clips from his last interview, and input from admirers and former co-stars, including Della Reese ("The Royal Family") and Damon Wayans, help tell his story.

7:30 P.M. ON NBC

3rd Rock From the Sun

In "The Loud Solomon Family: A Dickumentary," the Solomons agree to be the subjects of Mary's (Jane Curtin) film about a typical American family. But "typical" hardly describes this merry band of aliens, who explain their strangeness with some wild excuses: Harry (French Stewart) is a lush, Sally (Kristen Johnston) is a lesbian, and Tommy (Joseph Gordon-Levitt) is a bedwetter. Needless to say, hilarious problems ensue when these "truths" come out. John Lithgow and Wayne Knight also star.

8 P.M. ON FOX

Party of Five

The new year brings a new beginning for Charlie (Matthew Fox) in the form of a promotion at work. But for most of the others, the talk is about endings. While the Salingers debate the fate of their ailing dog, Bailey (Scott Wolf) tells Holly (Rhona Mitra) he's not ready to be exclusive, and Julia (Neve Campbell) is shaken by the news that her book may not be published. Lacey Chabert also stars in "Dog Day After New Year."

PARTY OF FIVE

9 P.M. ON ABC

NYPD Blue

The wait is over for fans of the long-running police drama, whose new season was delayed by the presence of another hit show in its time slot. In "Loogie Nights," Sipowicz and Sorenson (Dennis Franz, Rick Schroder) are faced with an ugly scenario: Two officers are suspected of fatally beating a man and want their fellow cops investigating the incident to cover for them. At home, Sipowicz continues grieving for his wife and struggles to raise his son without her, while Kirkendall considers seeing her ex-husband again.

9 P.M. ON NASH

The Life and Times of The Osmonds

The Jacksons weren't the only singing brother act whose youngest member became a breakout star before his voice changed. While lots of girls in the early '70s were mad for Michael, many were equally devoted to Donny, who left the Osmond Brothers for bigger things with his sister Marie. Several Osmonds, including parents Olive and George and brothers Alan, Merrill and Jay, recall the squeaky-clean siblings' rise to stardom, the toll taken by their declining popularity and their later rebound. Several of the brothers are now performing in live-music mecca Branson, Mo., while Donny and Marie try their hand at a very '90s venture: TV talk.

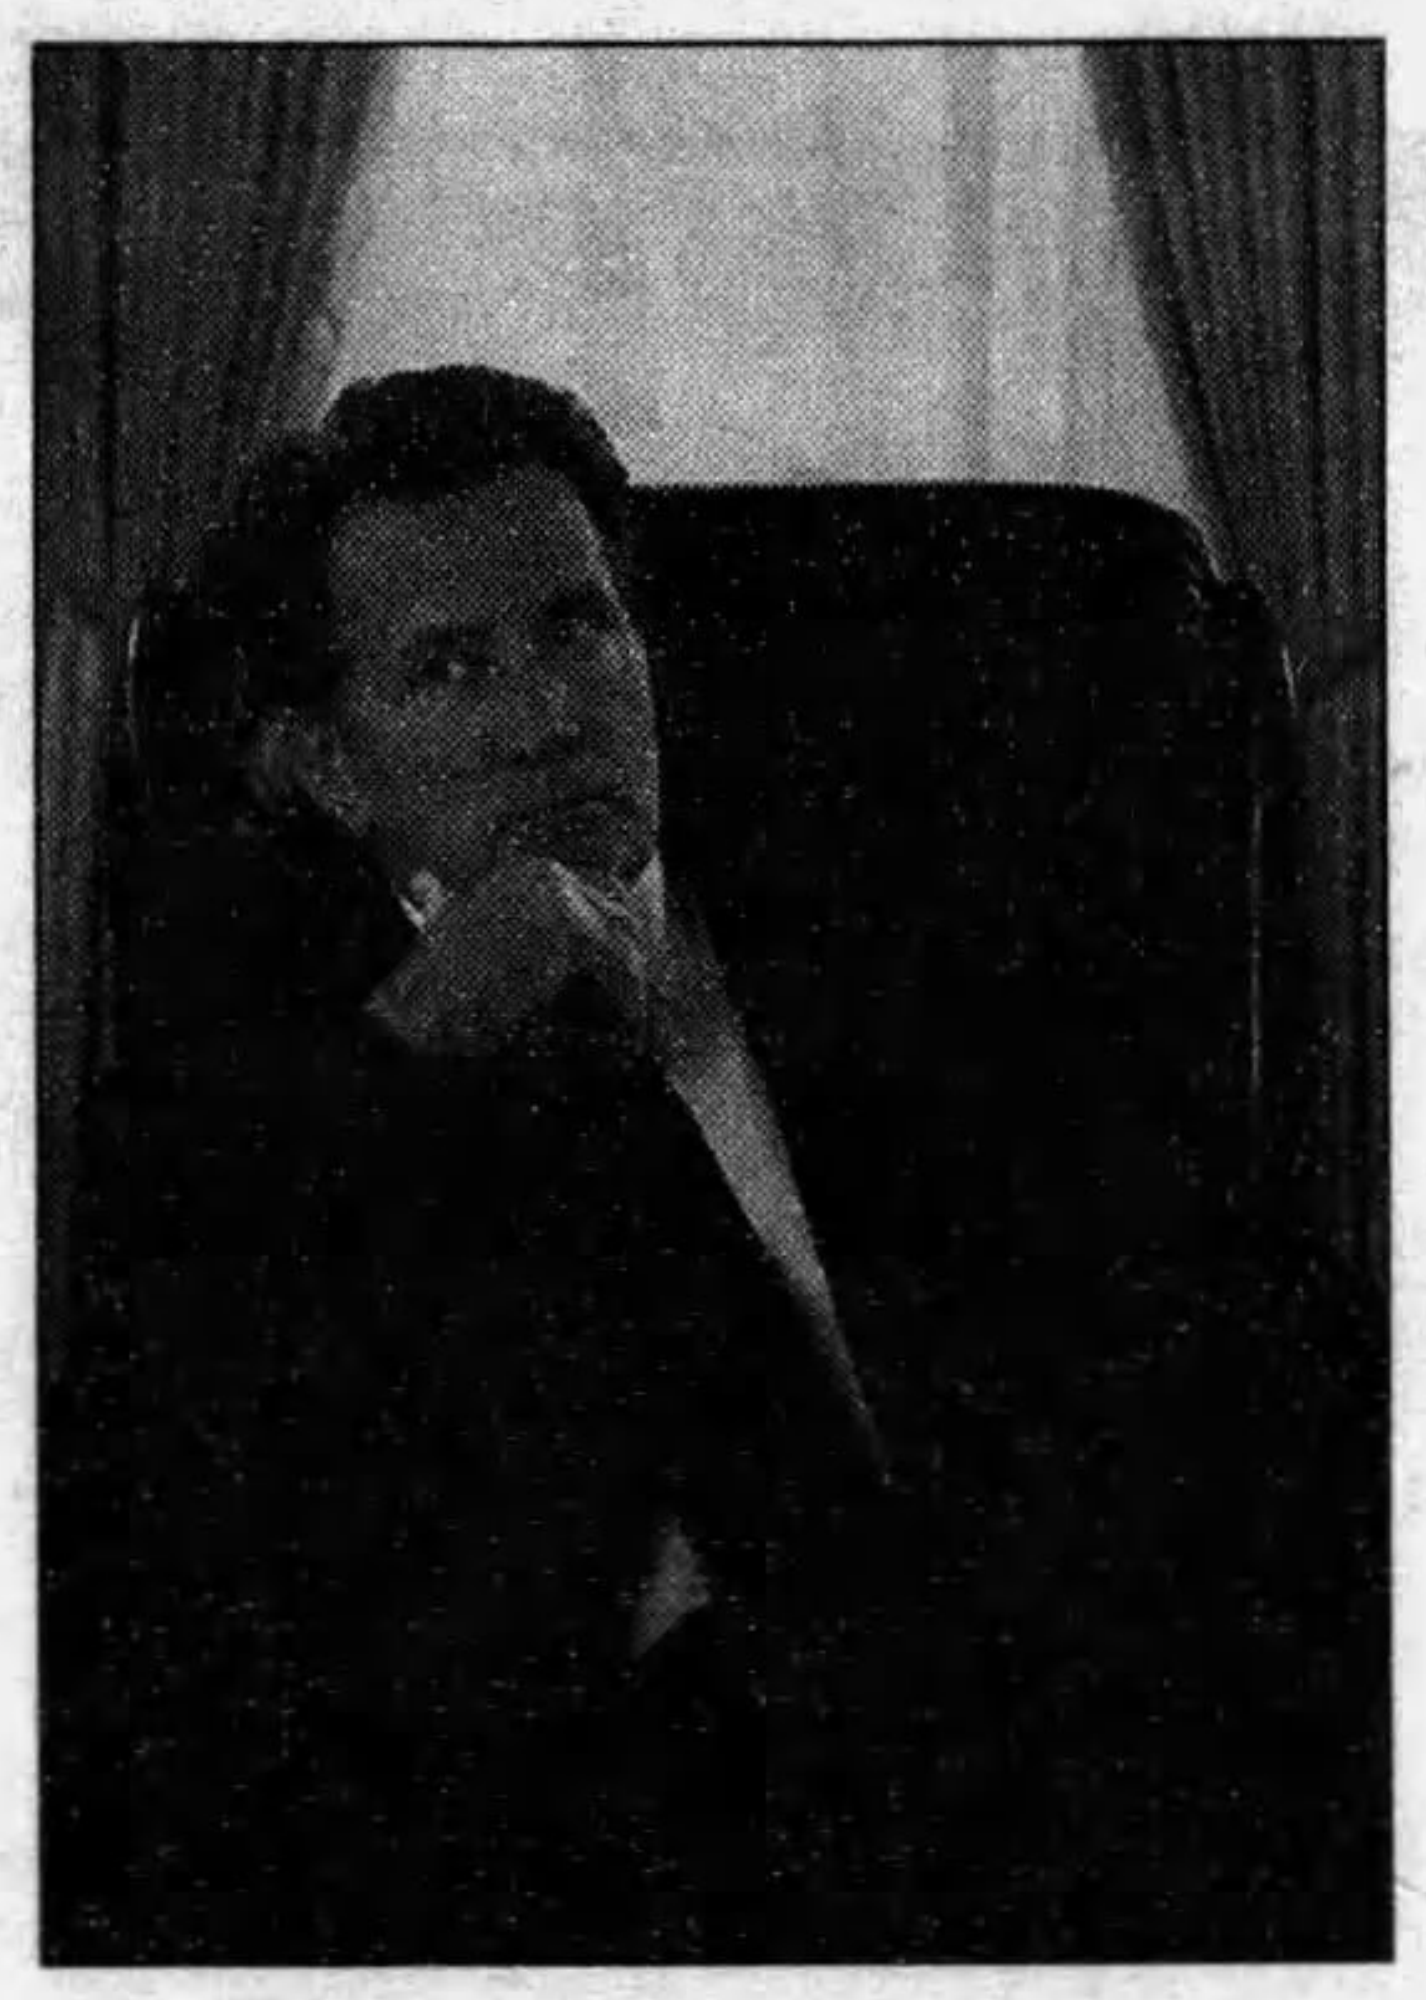
WEDNESDAY'S BEST BETS



Martin Sheen
THE WEST WING

7 P.M. ON FOX

Beverly Hills, 90210

Matt and Kelly's (Daniel Cosgrove, Jennie Garth) engagement has Matt in deep doo-doo and Dylan (Luke Perry) in deep denial. Matt is in trouble for dipping into the till at work to buy Kelly a pricey ring. And Dylan is having trouble accepting the engagement but won't admit it, any more than he'll admit the thought of being baby Madeline's godfather is stressing him out. Ian Ziering and Tori Spelling also star in "Tainted Love."

7 P.M. ON WB

Dawson's Creek

Bianca Lawson ("The Temptations," "Goode Behavior") guest stars as Nikki, the principal's daughter, whose skill with a movie camera threatens Dawson's (James Van Der Beek) position as Capeside's premier junior filmmaker. Joey (Katie Holmes) is hurt by Dawson's refusal to talk to her about the pain of his parents' split. Jack (Kerr Smith) makes his first gay pass, with poor results. Extracurricular pursuits bring Pacey and Andie (Joshua Jackson, Meredith Monroe) together — much to their discomfort — in "Barefoot at Capefest."

8 P.M. ON CBS

Movie: A Father's Choice

A cowboy (Peter Strauss) is thinking about rejoining the rodeo circuit when he's forced into instant dadhood. His ex-wife has been murdered, and his two daughters (Yvonne Zima, Michelle Trachtenberg) are placed in his care. The girls' grief over their mother isn't the only obstacle facing this family in the making; there's the culture shock of Dad's bunkhouse life, the uncertainty of his career and the aunt who's fighting for the girls' custody. Mary McDonnell and Susan Hogan also star.

8 P.M. ON NBC

The West Wing

The president (Martin Sheen) is found unconscious during preparations for his State of the Union address. The official explanation is that he has the flu, but his wife (Stockard Channing) has her own suspicions. The speech is the least of his staffers' problems, though; they're dealing with the very real threat of nuclear war when the field commanders in Pakistan's border conflict with India get the go-ahead to use nukes. Lady-chasing lush Lord Marbury (Roger Rees) returns to advise the staff on the situation. Richard Schiff also stars in "He Shall, From Time to Time ... "

8 P.M. ON NASH

18 Wheels of Justice

A federal agent whose wife and child were killed by the crime lord he testified against refuses to go gently into that good Witness Protection Program. Instead, he becomes a long-haul trucker, staying one step ahead of his nemesis and easing his guilt by helping the folks he meets in his travels. Lucky Vanous (the hunky construction worker from those Diet Coke ads) stars, with the colorful G. Gordon Liddy as the resident bad guy.

THURSDAY'S BEST BETS

6 P.M. ON LIFE

NFL Stories Straight From the Heart

Football stars show how they play the game of life — family life in particular — in this hourlong special. Among those in the spotlight are Dan Marino, whose newest daughter is a Chinese orphan; Charles Dimry, recently widowed and raising three children on his own; and Geraldine Barber, whose twin sons, Tiki and Ronde, are both in the NFL, but on different teams. Actress Felicity Huffman ("Sports Night") hosts.

7 P.M. ON CBS

Diagnosis Murder

Mark (Dick Van Dyke) becomes more than a visiting observer on the set of a popular TV Western series when stunts keep going wrong and endangering the star. It's apparent someone is trying to kill the egotistical actor. Mark suspects the stunt coordinator (guest star Robert Fuller), but it turns out he's not the only crew member with a grudge. "Frontier Dad" is a family reunion for Van Dyke and his son and co-star, Barry. Four of Barry's children have guest roles, including son Carey as the actor targeted for murder.

7 P.M. ON FOX

Movie: Lethal Weapon 3

Odd-couple police partners Riggs and Murtaugh (Mel Gibson, Danny Glover) go after a policeman-turned-gunrunner (Stuart Wilson) in this 1992 film, filled with the requisite shoot-'em-ups, car chases and Gibson bare-derriere shot. Rene Russo co-stars as a tough Internal Affairs sergeant who teams up with Riggs and Murtaugh to bring the bad guy down. Joe Pesci also stars.

7 P.M. ON A&E

Biography

It's easy to be confused about Ann Miller's age. As a teen, she passed herself off as four years older to get a movie contract. Today she's 76 and could easily pass for someone 30 years younger. "Ann Miller: I'm Still Here" chronicles the long and varied career of the Texas-born beauty whose radiant smile and tap-dancing skill have earned her six decades of stage and screen stardom. The profile includes rare film footage — including color home movies from the '30s — as well as interviews with Debbie Reynolds, June Allyson, Art Linkletter and director David Lynch.

8 P.M. ON NBC

Frasier

Frasier's (Kelsey Grammer) radio show could use a theme song, and the good doctor is more than happy to create one. But instead of the short, sweet and simple ditty everyone has in mind, he comes up with a big, extravagant number requiring a huge ensemble of musicians and singers. He may enjoy the chance to flex his creative muscles, but he's stretching the station's purse strings to the breaking point. John Mahoney and Peri Gilpin also star in "They're Playing Our Song."

FRIDAY'S BEST BETS

7 P.M. ON ABC

Sabrina, the Teenage Witch

Sabrina (Melissa Joan Hart) has a few surprises waiting as she starts her senior year. First, she discovers she's not the only witch on campus anymore when she meets Dreama (China Shavers), a precocious newcomer who enlists Sabrina's help with her magic. Then there's the news that Principal Kraft (Martin Mull) is dead-set against her becoming yearbook editor. Caroline Rhea also stars in the encore of "Dream a Little Dreama Me."

7 P.M. ON TNT

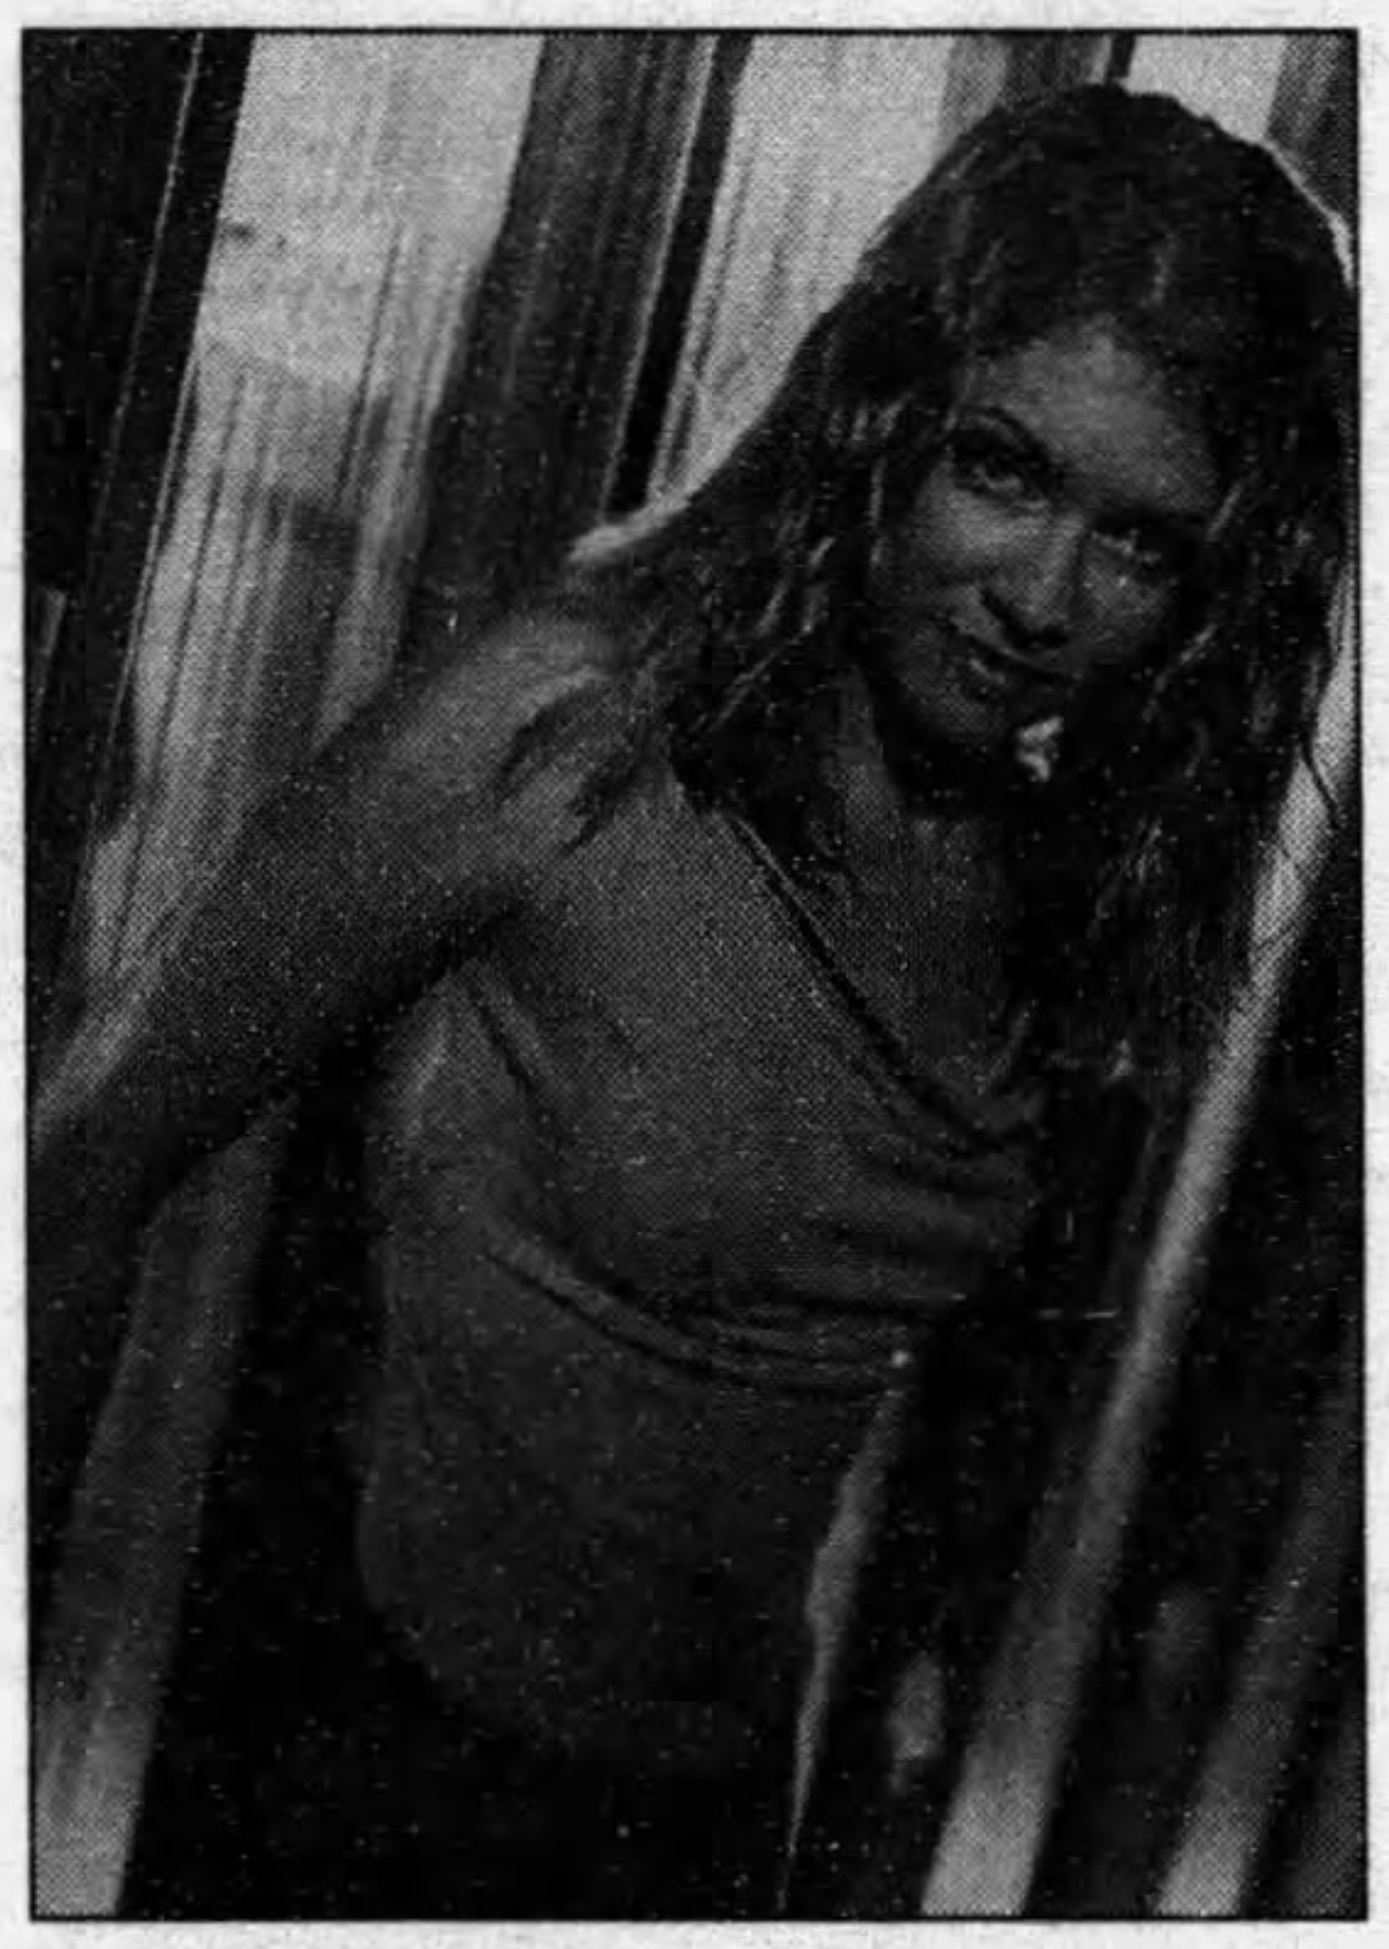
NBA Basketball

The Los Angeles Lakers are emerging as the top team in the Western Conference. In the middle of a three-game road trip that takes them to Indiana tonight, the Lakers seemed to come together the last time they hit the road, an Eastern swing that ended with victories over Atlanta, Minnesota, Toronto and Boston. Powerhouse teams, no, but four games in five nights can be grueling, although big man Shaquille O'Neal claimed, "I don't get tired." That's bad news for the Pacers, who hope center Rik Smits can contain O'Neal in the paint. Smits has rebounded nicely from recent foot problems, giving Indiana an inside presence every contending team needs. Smits is on pace to block more than 100 shots for the first time since the 1991-92 season.

7:30 P.M. ON ABC

Boy Meets World

When her father (guest star Julius Carry), an Army sergeant, comes to teach an ROTC course at the college, Angela (Trina McGee-Davis) finally sorts out her feelings about getting back with Shawn (Rider Strong). As the girls set up a new living arrangement, Cory (Ben Savage) continues trying to talk Topanga (Danielle Fishel) into getting re-engaged. Will Friedle also stars in the encore of "Angela's Men."



Melissa Joan Hart
SABRINA, THE TEENAGE WITCH

8 P.M. ON A&E

Investigative Reports

Bill Clinton may be the president who's been most outspoken about his extramarital sexual activity, but he's not the only one who's engaged in it. "All the Presidents' Women," a report from 1998, revisits the extracurricular relationships of presidents from Franklin Roosevelt to Clinton, shining the spotlight on the "other women" in their lives. Bill Kurtis hosts.

9 P.M. ON NBC

Law & Order: Special Victims Unit

In "Bad Blood," Benson and Stabler (Mariska Hargitay, Christopher Meloni) investigate the murder of a young gay man whose father happens to be a prominent conservative. Speaking of fathers, Munch (Richard Belzer) incurs the wrath of Benson when he makes it his mission to find her biological father — who sired her by rape. Jerry Lanning ("Another World") guest stars.

Saturday's Best Bets

6 P.M. ON USA

Movie: Wayne's World

Despite having a designated "Oscar clip," this 1992 adaptation of a "Saturday Night Live" sketch was ignored by the Academy. But lovable slackers Wayne and Garth (Mike Myers, Dana Carvey) did take home an MTV Movie Award as best on-screen duo. Rob Lowe stars as the unscrupulous TV producer who sets out to exploit Wayne's cable-access show and his girlfriend (Tia Carrere) for fun and profit. Brian Doyle-Murray and Lara Flynn Boyle also star.

7 P.M. ON FOX

Cops

In "Indianapolis," a drunken man makes things worse for himself by allegedly leaving his 3-year-old granddaughter unattended. Elsewhere in the city, police arrest suspected customers in a red-light district and chase a reckless motorcyclist. Next, an encore of an earlier visit to Indiana's capital includes a case of assault involving two girls that turns sticky — literally. When the alleged victim's father confronts the other girl's mother, she throws beer in his face.

7 P.M. ON A&E

One-on-One With David Frost

In "Gen. H. Norman Schwarzkopf," the veteran interviewer chats with the man who earned a large share of credit for winning the Persian Gulf War. The hourlong interview visits Schwarzkopf in both the sunny South — his Tampa, Fla., home — and the mountainous West — Telluride, Colo., where he volunteers his time to help disadvantaged youngsters.

THE PRETENDER

7 P.M. ON SHOW

Movie: A Simple Plan

Two ordinary brothers (Bill Paxton, Billy Bob Thornton) have some extraordinary luck that quickly turns from good to bad in this suspenseful 1998 drama. They find a crashed plane in the woods with a dead body and a bag of cash. Their decision to keep the loot and not report the find has disastrous consequences for both men and their families.

7 P.M. ON NBC

The Pretender

Miss Parker (Andrea Parker) is occupied by matters of birth and death on the first anniversary of Thomas' murder. Jarod gives her some information that may reveal the killer's identity. But a more urgent matter is demanding her attention: helping Mr. Parker and Brigitte (Harve Presnell, Pamela Gidley) deal with the approach of parenthood and the danger of assassination. Patrick Bauchau also stars.

8 P.M. ON NBC

Profiler

In "Quid Pro Quo," Rachel (Jamie Luner) is torn between two agendas when she gets close to a powerful mob boss whose daughter is a serial killer's latest victim. She needs to gain his confidence in order to catch the killer, but her colleagues in the FBI's Organized Crime Division want her to exploit the relationship by wearing a wire and getting him to confess to killing another mobster. Ray Wise and Greg Kean ("Summer Dreams: The Story of the Beach Boys") guest star.

Viewers tune in as TV shows make shrewd use of music

By John Crook
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Cover story

Some say it started in a big way the night Maggie O'Connell danced with a lumbering forest creature.

A March 1992 "Northern Exposure" episode called "Wake Up Call" featured a haunting and romantic scene in which Maggie (Janine Turner) danced with a mysterious stranger who later turned out to be a bear.

That was pretty much business as usual in that show's surreal landscape, but the question viewers were asking in droves was: "What was that incredible music?"

(Answer: "Bailero" from Joseph Canteloube's "Chants D'Auvergne, Volume 1.")

TV producers have been using catchy music in their shows for decades now, but few people would argue that the unpredictable "Exposure," with its eclectic musical underpinning of jazz, rock 'n' roll, classics and new age melodies, raised the creative bar by several notches.

Post-"Exposure," probably no show on television has made such inventive use of music as Fox's Monday hit "Ally McBeal." It's pretty easy to understand why: Like "Exposure," "Ally" unfolds in a nontraditional style that blurs the lines between reality and fantasy.

In the world of "Ally," soul man Al Green can turn up in a story line and lend some tuneful support to the proceedings, Emmy winner Tracey Ullman can burst into song during one of Ally's bizarre therapy sessions, and Tony winner Jennifer Holliday can pop up to bring the house down as a heartbroken choir member.

Of course, Vonda Shepard owes much of her career success to "Ally" executive producer David E. Kelley, who hired her to provide songs and sly vocal commentary in each week's episode. As a result, Shepard has risen swiftly from the ranks of obscure club singers to become the "voice" of a hit show.

NBC's "Providence" — still another series that makes ample use of fantasy — likewise has captivated viewers with some felicitous musical choices to underscore its scenes.

While there's no official "Providence" soundtrack CD in stores — yet — several other shows have spawned hugely successful soundtrack recording tie-ins, such as the recently released soundtrack to HBO's "The Sopranos," which includes the show's creator, David Chase, as one of the executive producers.

Which actor played Max Headroom?

By Taylor Michaels
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Pipeline

My wife doesn't agree that the actor who played the pilot on "The A-Team" also played Max Headroom. -T. R., Lake Orion, Mich.

Way to go, Mrs. R.! Dwight Schultz played Capt. H.M. "Howling Mad" Murdock on NBC's "The A-Team." Matt Frewer, who looks uncannily like Schultz, played the title role in ABC's "Max Headroom."

Why was "7th Heaven" taken off the air? And the Gregory Harrison show was only on for a short time! -Vera Emerson, Creston, Iowa.

Rest assured, Vera, that both "Heaven" and "Safe Harbor" (Harrison's series) are alive and well on The WB Network. I assume you used to watch them on WGN, which carried WB programming for a few years. Since most parts of the country now have WB affiliates, WGN decided to drop those programs.

Badger your local cable company to pick up a WB affiliate, pronto. I am hearing from dozens of readers in your situation, but that's your only recourse.

Linda Darnell did an extraordinarily kind thing for my wife and me during World War II. I know she died a very tragic death, but does she have a family I could write to and tell them what a wonderful lady Linda was? — Col. Joseph A.L. Greco, Colorado Springs, Colo.

Sadly, I have no information for you, Col. Greco, but I will keep your address on file in case I can put you in touch with a relative. Darnell, who was only 41 when she died in a 1965 fire, was widely known in the industry as a beauty with a big heart.

My wife insists that Irene Ryan was the mother of Don Knotts. Is she right? -T. R., Smyrna, Ga.

No, but thanks for the laugh.

What was the TV movie starring Joanne Woodward as a teacher suffering from Alzheimer's disease? -Brooks Page, Daytona Beach.

Woodward won an Emmy for 1985's "Do You Remember Love."

I am haunted by the theme to the former ABC show "Twin Peaks." Could you find the title and tell me where I could find it? -L. Hanf, Columbus, Ohio.

Angelo Badalamenti's theme — also known as "Falling" in its vocal version by Julee Cruise — is available on the "Twin Peaks" soundtrack. It can be found through major music stores or online through Amazon.com.

What has the actor who played Mickey Muldoon in NBC's "The Magical Legend of the Leprechauns" done? -Irish at Heart in Dixie, Ky.

Daniel Betts, a native of Great Britain, previously appeared in an episode of A&E Network's "Midsomer Murders" called "Blood Will Out," PBS' "The Prince of Hearts" on "Masterpiece Theatre" and "Carrington," among other credits.

SUNDAY'S BEST BETS

4 P.M. ON NBC

The North Face Expeditions

It's probably not what Leonard Nimoy had in mind, but the adventurous outdoors type will be stoked. Skiers and snowboarders Rick Armstrong, Jeremy Nobis and Hilaree Nelson go in search of the most extreme slopes on Earth to test their competitive juices. Beginning in the town of Manali in northern India, the three tackle the granite cirques and steep terrain of the Himalayas, requiring them to ski technical lines down the world's largest mountain range.

6 P.M. ON ABC

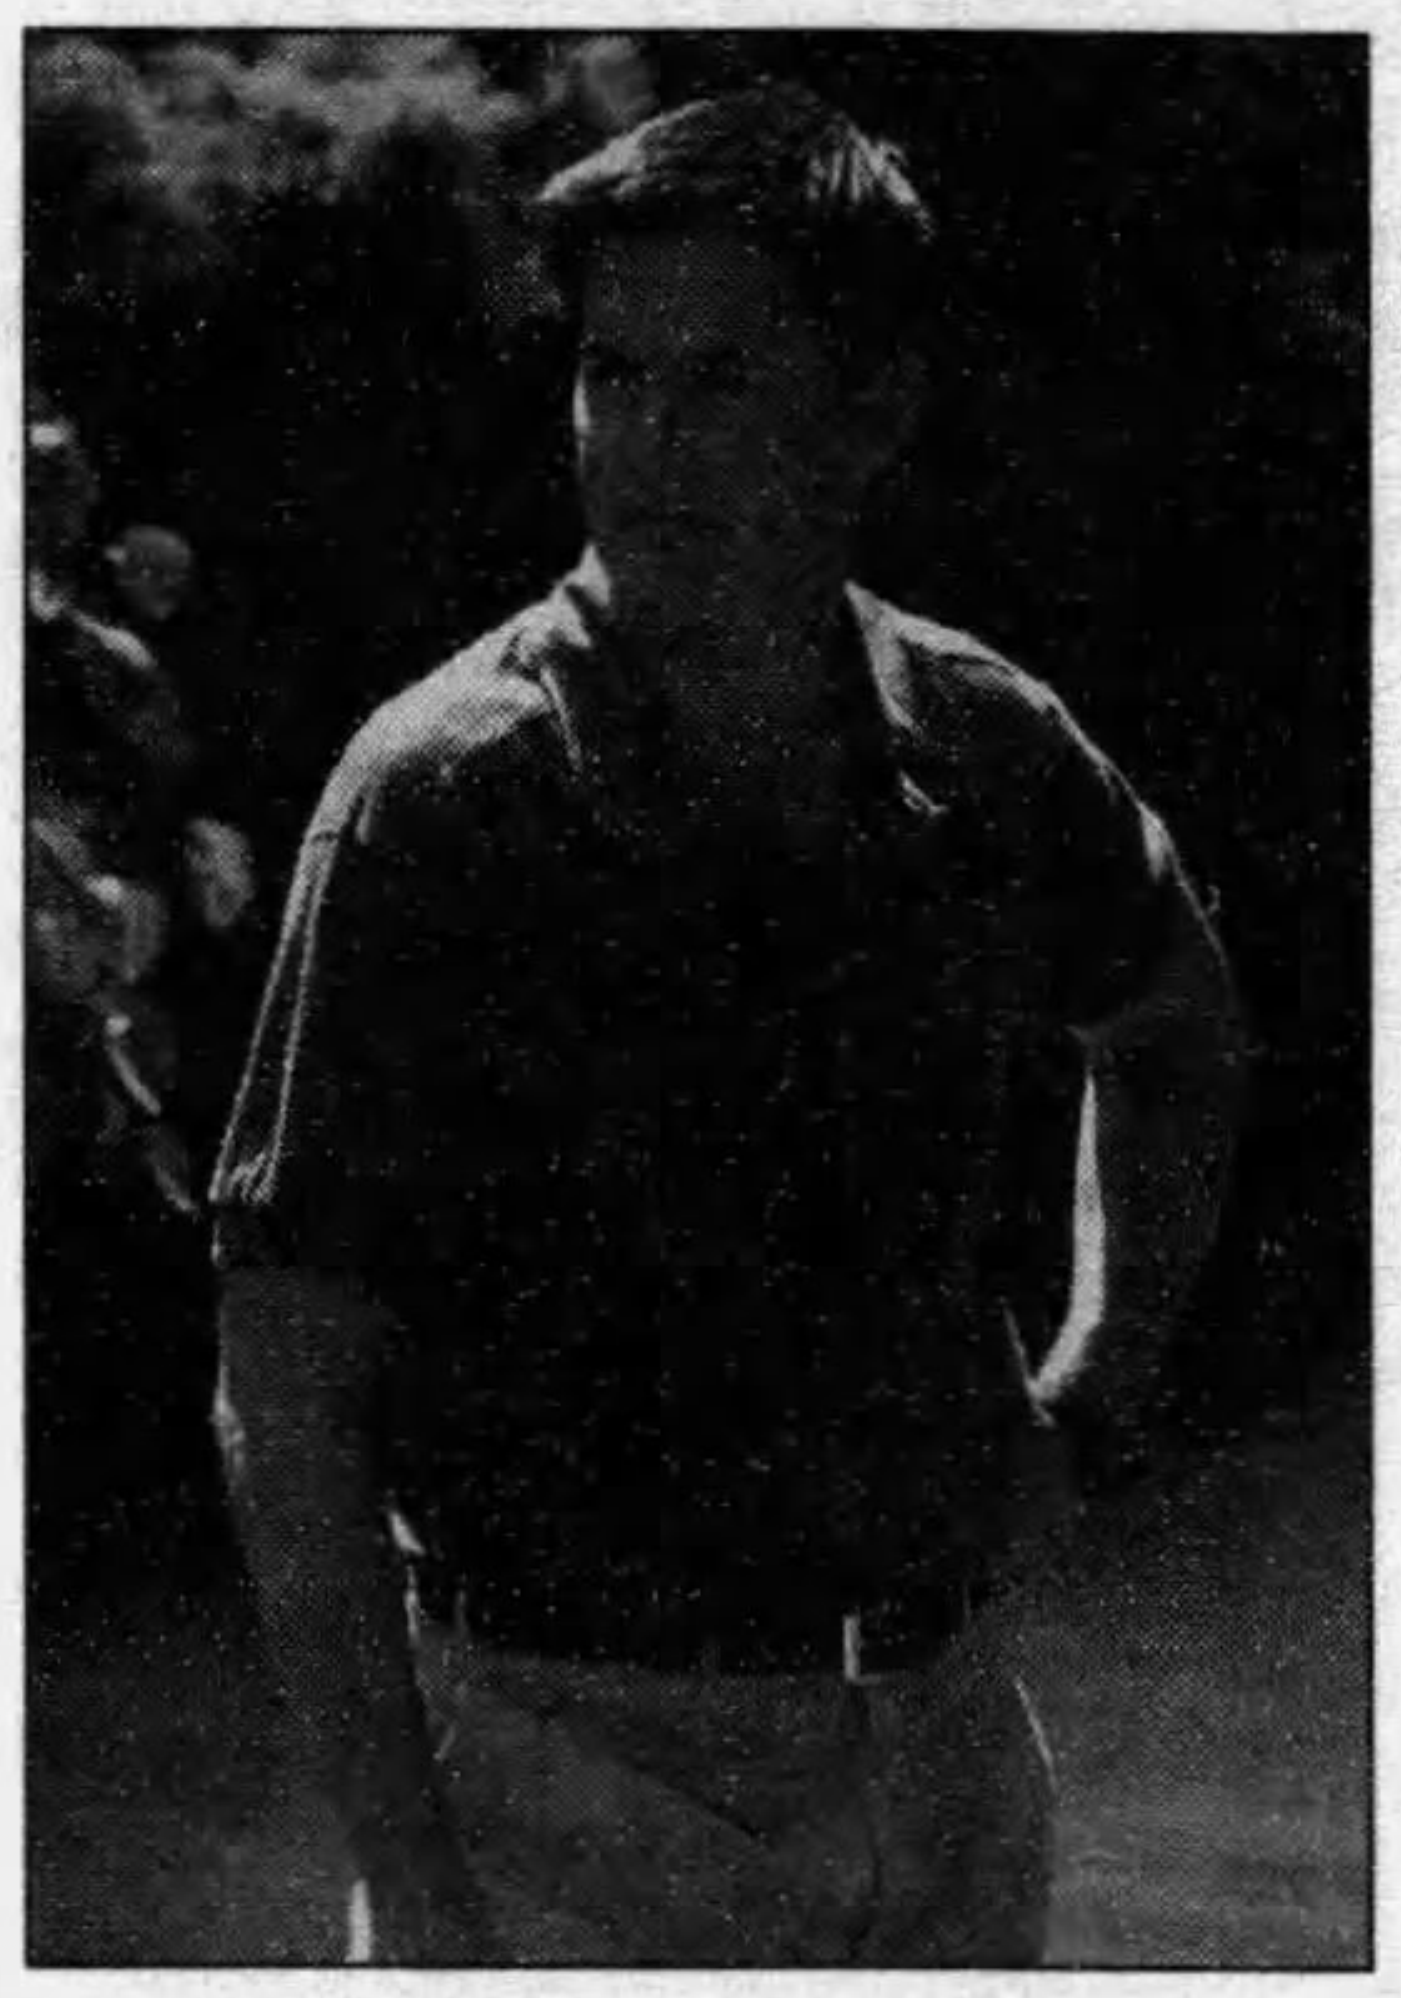
Movie: The Loretta Claiborne Story

Life dealt a harsh hand to young Loretta Claiborne. Partially blind and developmentally disabled, she's constantly picked on and always getting into fights. But with the help of a tough-as-nails mom, a sympathetic teacher and a savvy social worker, she channels her energy into athletics. She becomes a star runner in the Special Olympics, an advocate for the physically and mentally challenged, and the first developmentally disabled person to receive a major sports award (the Arthur Ashe Award for courage at the 1996 ESPYs).

7 P.M. ON CBS

City of Angels

This new drama is Emmy-winning producer Steven Bochco's ("NYPD Blue," "Hill Street Blues," "L.A. Law") attempt to score the same success with doctors that he did with lawyers and cops. It's set at an inner-city hospital, where the wait is often long and money and tempers are always short. Blair Underwood ("L.A. Law") stars as surgeon Ben Turner, with Vivica A. Fox as medical director Lillian Price, Turner's former fiancee. In the premiere, a poor patient (Fran Bennett) is caught between a rock and a hard place when she needs a lifesaving operation but has nobody to care for her grandchildren while she's laid up.



Kyle MacLachlan
THE SPRING

7 P.M. ON A&E

Biography

Oprah Winfrey's fans may think they know her whole life story; she's spoken frankly about her drug use, sexual abuse and weight battles. But there's even more to the remarkable rags-to-riches story of this talk show pioneer, actress and media mogul, as she shares in a candid, emotional interview with host Harry Smith for this two-hour profile.

8 P.M. ON NBC

Movie: The Spring

"Logan's Run" meets "Lost Horizon" in this new drama, which places the fabled fountain of youth in the Pacific Northwest. While on a camping trip, a father and son (Kyle MacLachlan, Joseph Cross) stumble upon a remote town with a spring whose waters give the residents eternal youth. Only it's not quite eternal; once they reach their 100th birthdays, it's check-out time. Alison Eastwood ("Midnight in the Garden of Good and Evil") and George Eads also star.

It's three weeks into the year 2000, and talk show hosts are reflecting on their New Year's celebrations and working on their resolutions.

Maury Povich enjoyed ringing in the new year while his wife, Connie Chung, worked.

"I celebrated New Year's Eve," he says, "the way I have done the last 15 years — as my wife's spouse, joining her on a New Year's assignment in Las Vegas, thanks to ABC."

As for his resolution, the happy host acknowledges an ongoing battle.

"I am taking it one millennium at a time," Povich admits. "My New Year's resolution is also the same as it has been the last 15 years. Get the cigarette pack out of my pocket and into the trash can."

Talk the Talk

The hosts of "Donny & Marie" are also committed to self-improvement.

Marie Osmond says she is very definite about what she is resolving to change for 2000.

"My New Year's resolution is to be on time. I was chronically late in 1999; even my baby arrived late," she says. "In fact, I'm late getting this quote in. Have I missed the deadline?"

Her brother and co-host, Donny Osmond, is ready with his own vow for the start of the new century.

"My New Year's resolution is to be more patient with Marie's lack of punctuality," he says.

If Marie is successful with her resolution, then it looks as if Donny won't have to worry about his.

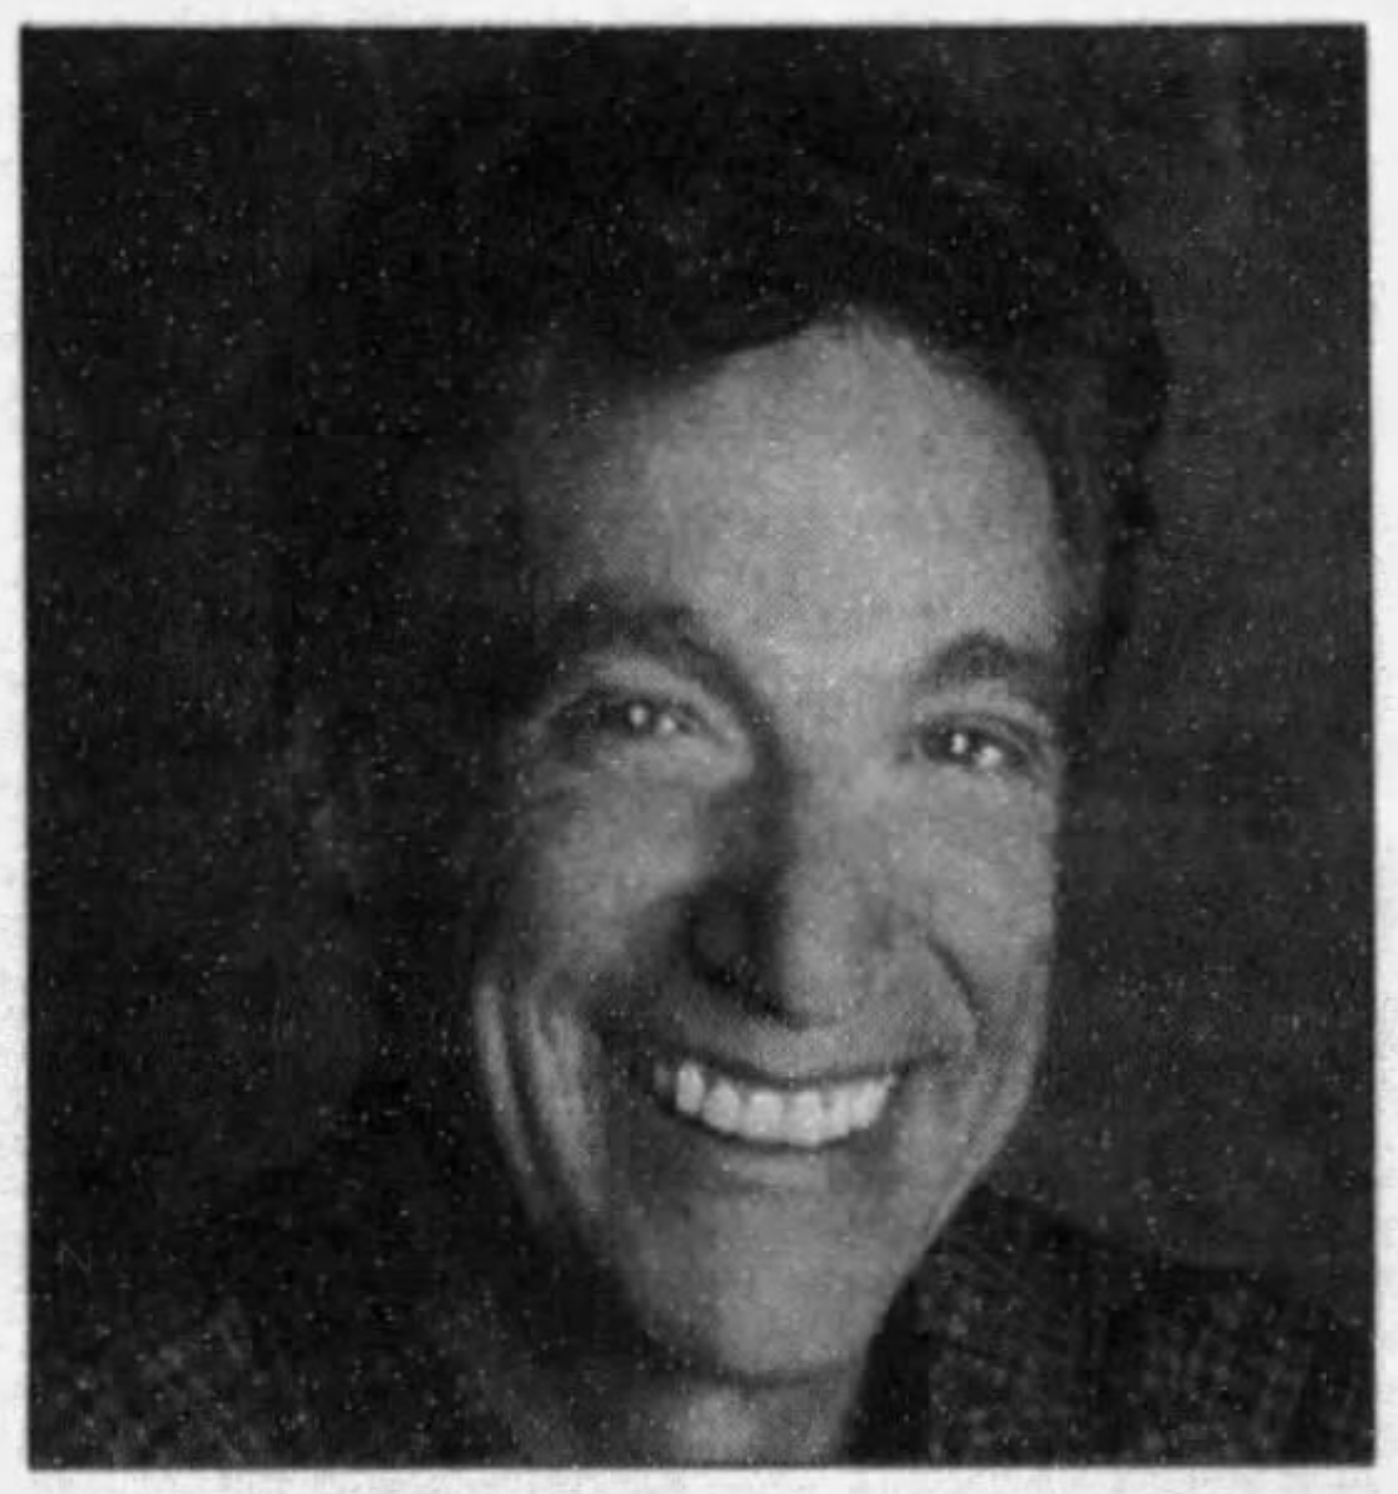
Leeza Gibbons had a storybook New Year's celebration in Europe. Gibbons and her family spent the holiday with actress Jane Seymour at her European castle. The talk show host and her husband, Steve, dressed in period costumes — he as Henry VIII and she as Anne Boleyn. Their sons were knights, and her daughter was a lady-in-waiting.

Their gala celebration gave the family a "chance to honor our rich history from the last millennium, and to focus on hopes and dreams toward the future," she says.

Her resolution takes on global aspirations.

"My most heartfelt wish is for the people of the world to respect our differences and build on our similarities," Gibbons says. "I pray for an end to hate and injustice."

Roseanne says she was in way too big a hurry over the holidays to think about her own resolutions.



Maury Povich

Her daughter, Jenny, made a snap decision to marry her boyfriend, Jeff, during all the festivities. Mom had to change all her plans in order to be present for the big moment. Another special occasion will occur this summer when Jenny and Jeff's baby is born.

Grandma Roseanne is undoubtedly planning ahead for that blessed event.

TRIVIA

MONDAY'S BEST BETS

7 P.M. ON ABC

The American Music Awards

Going into the 27th annual awards show, the divas have it. Shania Twain is tied with Whitney and Britney — Houston and Spears, that is — for most nominations, with three each. The three are also rivals for the favorite female artist trophy in the pop/rock category, but both Houston and Twain have another chance at the same honor in the soul/R & B and country categories, respectively. Among those slated to present awards are actors Rick Schroder, Melissa Joan Hart and Kellie Martin.

7 P.M. ON MAX

Movie: Coming to America

Eight years before "The Nutty Professor," Eddie Murphy flexed his multitasking muscles in this 1988 romantic comedy. He and co-star Arsenio Hall have three roles each in addition to their main ones: an African prince and his pal visiting New York to find a suitable bride for His Highness. Shari Headley ("413 Hope St.," "The Preacher's Wife") plays the lady he favors, whom he meets in — where else? — Queens. Look for Eriq La Salle ("ER") and Cuba Gooding Jr. in small roles, and Ralph Bellamy and Don Ameche reprising their "Trading Places" characters.

7 P.M. ON NASH

Movie: Melvin and Howard

Mary Steenburgen won the best supporting actress Oscar for her work in this gentle 1980 comedy-drama. Paul Le Mat plays Melvin Dummar, a chronically unlucky fellow who rescues a stranded Howard Hughes and later claims he's received a will naming him the billionaire's sole heir. Jason Robards gives a memorable, Oscar-nominated performance as Hughes. The real Dummar has a bit part as a lunch-counter attendant.

Jane Krakowski
ALLY MCBEAL

8 P.M. ON FOX

Ally McBeal

In "Just Friends," Ally (Calista Flockhart) has a romantic dream starring John (Peter MacNicol) but is taken aback by his reaction to the news. Speaking of taken aback, Elaine (Jane Krakowski) is surprised to learn her most recent date asked her out because she's "easy." Gil Bellows, Courtney Thorne-Smith and Greg Germann also star.

8 P.M. ON A&E

Investigative Reports

The fictional Gotham City has Batman, and Metropolis has Superman, but New York doesn't need no stinkin' superheroes; it has the Emergency Services Unit. "NYPD Emergency" profiles this elite police corps whose members are trained to handle everything from medical emergencies to drug raids. The hour looks at the rigorous training ESU members undergo and follows them on several heart-stopping calls, including rescuing a would-be bridge jumper, nabbing a drug dealer and extricating a family from a car wreck.

Tuesday's Best Bets

7 P.M. ON FOX

That '70s Show

Bob (Don Stark) and the boys plan a hunting trip, and Kitty (Debra Jo Rupp) talks a reluctant Red (Kurtwood Smith) into going along. But once they're in the woods, Red's the one calling on his powers of persuasion, trying to get Eric to kill a deer. While the guys are away, the gals lay their cards on the table for a session of female bonding over poker.

7 P.M. ON WB

Buffy the Vampire Slayer

Just as Buffy and Riley are dealing with their new insights into each other, the Hellmouth reopens, forcing Buffy and company back to high school to ward off disaster. Too bad for Spike, whose depression has been lifted by the possibility of apocalypse.

7 P.M. ON A&E

Biography

"Sidney Sheldon: Storyteller" profiles the author whose life reads like one of his books. He quit college for lack of funds but quickly found his niche in screenwriting, winning an Oscar for one of his first efforts. In his 50s, he tried doing a novel. It flopped, but his next attempt, 1974's soapy "The Other Side of Midnight," was a huge hit, the first of many. Sheldon's books have been known to top the best-seller lists even before they hit the stores. The profile is also part travelogue, as the cameras follow Sheldon to some of the exotic places he writes about.

SPORTS NIGHT

7 P.M. ON USA

Movie: The Mary Kay Letourneau Story: All-American Girl

Seattle-area schoolteacher Mary Kay Letourneau's affair with a 13-year-old produced two babies and heated debate nationwide. Some condemned her as a child abuser; others considered their story a classic case of star-crossed love. Penelope Ann Miller stars in this new dramatization of Letourneau's story, with Omar Anguiano as her young lover, Vili Fualaau. Mercedes Ruehl also stars.

8 P.M. ON NBC

Will & Grace

In an encore of last season's finale, "Object of My Rejection," Jack (Sean Hayes) stuns everyone by marrying Karen's (Megan Mullally) maid, Rosario (guest star Shelley Morrison), who needs to wed an American to avoid deportation. Will and Grace reevaluate their living arrangements when Grace wants to renew ties with her ex-fiance.

8:30 P.M. ON ABC

Sports Night

The team's live broadcast of a big boxing match is plagued with trouble in "The Cut Man Cometh." The ringside commentator is apparently drunk, unkind remarks from Dan's (Josh Charles) father are giving him a crisis of confidence, and Dana is in the throes of heartbreak. Add to that the unscheduled very early end of the fight, and you have a full-blown case of Murphy's Law. Peter Riegert ("Animal House") guest stars.

WEDNESDAY'S BEST BETS

7:30 P.M. ON ABC

The Norm Show

Norm (Norm Macdonald) goes to work as a driver for an escort service and starts thinking about getting into the big-bucks end of the industry. Artie (Artie Lange) has a new gig, too: selling cosmetics. But things get a little crazy when Laurie (Laurie Metcalf) becomes his customer. Speaking of customers, Cloris Leachman guest stars as a prospective one of Norm's in "Norm vs. the Oldest Profession."

8 P.M. ON CBS

Movie: Murder in the Mirror

Wealthy psychiatrist Mary Richland (Jane Seymour) knows she didn't kill her husband, but she's having a hard time convincing the authorities of that fact. A woman matching her description was seen at the scene, a dress matching the killer's has been found in her closet, and her fingerprints are all over the murder weapon. But a little amateur sleuthing on her part turns up some surprises and at least two other likely suspects: her husband's ex and a hooker he was dating, who both happen to look a lot like Mary. James Farentino, Nan Martin and Hayley DuMond also star in this new mystery thriller.

8 P.M. ON A&E

A&E's Live by Request Starring the Eurythmics

For fans of Annie Lennox and Dave Stewart, this two-hour special is what sweet dreams are made of. Viewers of previous "Live by Request" specials know the drill: Tell them what you want to hear — from the breakthrough '80s hit "Sweet Dreams" to the currently hot "17 Again" — via special phone, fax and Internet connections, and they'll sing it. Mark McEwen hosts the concert from New York.

THE NORM SHOW

8 P.M. ON ESPN

College Basketball

Without a clear-cut favorite to win the regular-season ACC title, teams are looking to crash the championship party usually reserved for Duke and North Carolina. Two of those teams, Maryland and Wake Forest, meet in College Park, Md. The visiting Demon Deacons returned all but one player from last year's NIT squad and are now looking to reap the benefits of two years of rebuilding following the departure of NBA superstar Tim Duncan. On the other bench, the Terrapins are on the way to another 20-win season, their fourth straight.

8:30 P.M. ON ABC

Spin City

Be careful what you wish for, Mike; you might get it. In the encore of "Rebel Without a Chair," what Mike (Michael J. Fox) wants is for the world to see he's still the mayor's (Barry Bostwick) top guy, despite Caitlin's (Heather Locklear) machinations. He tells a reporter how close he is to the boss. But oops! The reporter is from a gay publication and concludes that Mike's talking about a very special kind of close relationship. Boomer Esiason guest stars.

Marcia Gay Harden also stars.

Movie: Maximum Risk

When his long-lost twin brother, who had ties to Russian organized crime, is found dead, a French policeman (Jean-Claude Van Damme) seeks revenge by assuming his identity and kicking some Muscovite mobster butt in New York's Russian district. Soon he and his new girlfriend — his brother's ex — have both the FBI and the bad guys on their tail. Natasha Henstridge also stars in this 1996 adventure, which marked the U.S. debut of Hong Kong director Ringo Lam.

Biography

"Harold Robbins: Fact, Fiction and Fantasy" remembers the author of "Never Love a Stranger," "The Carpetbaggers," "The Betsy" and other best sellers that broke new ground in between-the-covers sex. At the peak of his popularity, his extravagant, party-hearty lifestyle resembled the plot of one of his books, but he paid with his health. Interviewees include fellow author Jackie Collins, two of Robbins' three wives, his daughter, his sister and actress Carroll Baker, who starred in the film version of "The Carpetbaggers."

9 P.M. ON NBC

ER

Alan Alda digs his scrubs and stethoscope out of mothballs for a short stint at County General. He plays Dr. Lawrence, who has a larger-than-life reputation for brilliance in emergency medicine ... and an ego to match, much to Dr. Greene's (Anthony Edwards) annoyance. But egos aren't the only thing exploding when a shooting victim fingers the triggerman and more shots are fired right there in the ER. Noah Wyle also stars in the encore of "Greene With Envy."

FRIDAY'S BEST BETS

7 P.M. ON FOX

Beyond Belief: Fact or Fiction

Actor Kent McCord ("Adam-12") guest stars in a new installment of this offbeat series, in which several stories, some true, some false, are presented and viewers are invited to guess which is which. This episode's collection of strange tales includes a medical misdiagnosis that changes history, a dream realized with an ironic twist and a gift that saves a family's life. Jonathan Frakes ("Star Trek: The Next Generation") hosts.

7 P.M. ON NBC

Providence

Syd (Melina Kanakaredes) makes a potentially dangerous misdiagnosis in "Mother and Child." She wrongly attributes a young patient's trouble to Munchausen syndrome by proxy — the disorder that causes mothers to sicken or injure their children to get attention. Robbie's budding relationship with Heather hits a snag when her ex-boyfriend shows up.

7 P.M. ON AMC

Movie: The Nutty Professor

Eddie Murphy's 1996 remake has its moments, but Jerry Lewis' 1963 version remains the definitive "Professor." Lewis co-wrote, directed and starred in the tale of shy nerd Julius Kelp, transformed by a potion of his own invention into the suave but obnoxious Buddy Love. Frequent Lewis co-stars Del Moore, Kathleen Freeman and Buddy Lester also star, with Stella Stevens as the object of Julius' affection.

Cheech Marin
NASH BRIDGES

8 P.M. ON ABC

Sabrina, the Teenage Witch

Sabrina (Melissa Joan Hart) turns a magic squirt gun on Mr. Kraft (Martin Mull), hoping its dream-come-true formula will get him to resign. But Harvey (Nate Richert) gets in her line of fire and has a quite different reaction to the magic: superpowers. Only trouble is, they're not very reliable.

8 P.M. ON A&E

Investigative Reports

Young female heroin addicts haven't gotten much attention from the drug-abuse prevention and treatment establishment. So they're learning to take care of themselves. In addition to examining the drug's growing popularity among middle-class women, the encore of "The Junkie Next Door: Women and Heroin" visits with a community of "girl junkies" in Santa Cruz, Calif., who publish their own magazine and operate a needle exchange program.

9 P.M. ON CBS

Nash Bridges

Cassidy's (Jodi Lyn O'Keefe) fancy new apartment turns out to be hazardous to her health. No, it's not lead paint or radon gas; it's the fact that Mia, the woman she's subletting from, has mob connections, and some dangerous dudes are after Cassidy, believing she's Mia. But fortunately, she has connections of her own — to the cops. Joe (Cheech Marin) gets a shock when he meets the person with whom he's been carrying on via e-mail.

SATURDAY'S BEST BETS

7 P.M. ON ABC

Movie: The Birdcage

When Robin Williams and Nathan Lane team up as Armand and Albert, a gay couple playing it straight, nobody can keep a straight face. Unwilling to make himself scarce when Armand's son brings his fiancee's ultraconservative parents over for dinner, Albert dons his most divine drag duds to pose as Mom. Gene Hackman, Dianne Wiest, Hank Azaria and Calista Flockhart also star in this delightful 1996 adaptation of "La Cage aux Folles."

7 P.M. ON A&E

Biography

"Jamie Lee Curtis: Hollywood's Girl Next Door" profiles the second-generation movie beauty who made her big-screen debut in 1978's "Halloween," then quickly proved, in a succession of comic and dramatic roles, that there's more to her talent than looking pretty and acting scared. In 1996, the one-time movie scream queen became a real-life baroness when her husband, actor Christopher Guest, inherited the title of Baron Haden-Guest of Saling.

7 P.M. ON AMC

Movie: To Catch a Thief

A reformed burglar (Cary Grant) becomes the prime suspect in a new outbreak of jewel thefts on the French Riviera. He sets out in search of the copycat thief, armed with an insurance agent's list of possible future victims. They include a wealthy American woman (Jessie Royce Landis) with a very lovely, very marriageable daughter (Grace Kelly).

Kelly Hu
MARTIAL LAW

8 P.M. ON CBS

Martial Law

You've heard of a busman's holiday? Sammo (Sammo Hung) is on what might be called a taximan's holiday. He's supposed to be on vacation, but he just can't sit still. In addition to taking a part-time gig as a cabdriver, he also keeps his hand in at the police station, helping his co-workers hunt down a jewel thief. Kelly Hu also stars in "No Fare."

8:30 P.M. ON NICK

Double Dare 2000

Jason Harris hosts a new incarnation of the game show that tripled Nickelodeon's afternoon ratings in the 1980s. Like the original, this version has two families answering trivia questions, going through obstacle courses, daring their opponents to do likewise and, of course, getting slimed. A new feature is the Triple Dare Challenge, in which a team that's dared to do a stunt can opt for a messier one with a bigger payoff.

10 P.M. ON FOX

Mad TV

An encore from October features rapper Busta Rhymes paying a visit and performing "Bus-A-Bus" with Flipmode Squad's Rah Digga. Comedy sketches include "Albanian Pie," an is-nothing-sacred spoof of the film "American Pie" set in Kosovo, and the return of Miss Swan, the oddball nail-salon owner.

Strong women take center stage on prime-time TV

By Candace Havens
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Cover story

For years, male-driven sitcoms and dramas were the norm on prime-time television. Women only showed up to play supporting characters — and victims of the week in TV movies. And though there were a few shows in the last decade — "Roseanne," "Designing Women," "Murphy Brown" and "Grace Under Fire" — with female leads, men dominated the market.

In the mid-to-late '90s, however, a new trend toward stronger roles for women began. Not since Wonder Woman tossed out her golden lasso for the last time in 1979 have there been such tough chicks on TV, from The WB Network's Buffy (Sarah Michelle Gellar, "Buffy the Vampire Slayer") to USA Network's Nikita (Peta Wilson, "La Femme Nikita") and Universal Television's Xena (Lucy Lawless, "Xena: Warrior Princess"). These heroines were among the first to prove viewers wanted to see women take control.

But as the past two TV seasons have shown, strong women on television don't necessarily have to pack a punch. Last year, "Providence" joined the NBC lineup as a midseason replacement. Critics were shocked when viewers made the female-oriented series one of the highest-rated shows of the season. The success of "Providence" helped to spawn a slew of new shows featuring women for the fall 1999 season, all of which are pulling in good ratings for the networks.

CBS'" Judging Amy" pairs two dynamic actresses: Tyne Daly as semiretired social worker Maxine Gray and Amy Brenneman as Judge Amy Madison Gray. They are a mother and daughter who are not afraid to fight for what they think is right. And oh, how the righteous fight.

The inspiration for "Judging Amy" is Brenneman's mother, a judge who was one of the first women to graduate from Harvard Law School.

"I really couldn't have had a better role model growing up," Brenneman says. "Most of my friends' mothers stayed at home or worked in what was considered normal jobs. My mom was a superior-court judge.

"In a way, I am playing her job, although I probably have a very different style from her on the bench," Brenneman says. "But in the relationship of me to Maxine, I'm very much me. I react to my own mother in many of the same ways. My mother and I are strong women with our own opinions, and so is Tyne. It makes for an interesting relationship and great dialogue for the show."

Daly was hesitant about returning to TV, but she knew the role was worth it. "I did take my time in coming back, but I saw something special in this role," Daly says. "I play a mother who gets a reality of her own, rather than just being seen through the eyes of her children."

Learn about 'Law & Order'

By Taylor Michaels
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Is Mariska Hargitay of "Law & Order: Special Victims Unit" the daughter of Jayne Mansfield and Mickey Hargitay? It seems to me that was the name of their baby at the time of Jayne's untimely death. -Betty Ridings, West Farmington, Ohio.

Yes. Hargitay, who turns 36 on Jan. 23, was 3 years old when she and her two brothers survived the automobile accident that killed Mansfield.

I loved the recent TV movie version of "Annie," but I disagree with a friend who says Victor Garber and Kathy Bates did their own singing. -Tullio Marchetti, San Francisco.

Your friend is correct. In fact, Garber has an extensive background of musical credits, including Tony-nominated performances in "Damn Yankees" and Stephen Sondheim's "Sweeney Todd." Bates also did some singing early in her career but took some lessons to get back into vocal shape for "Annie."

~~Where can~~ I ~~write to The~~ Nashville Network to express my unhappiness with all the weird changes they are making? It seems they are taking off all the good programs that have anything to do with country singers. -Beverly Shelby, Braceville, Ill.

You can vent by sending a letter to Viewer Services, The Nashville Network, 2806 Opryland Drive, Nashville, TN 37214.

Stephen Collins of "7th Heaven" looks so familiar. What else has he done? -Ethel Tarqueno, Worth, Ill.

The 52-year-old actor and novelist has had a varied career on both stage and screen. Before "Heaven," he had series roles in "Sisters," "Tales of the Gold Monkey," "Tattingers" and "Working It Out."

He also starred in high-profile TV movies and miniseries such as "Chiefs," "A Woman Named Jackie" and "Scarlett."

Among his many feature films are "The First Wives Club," "The Promise," "Star Trek: The Motion Picture" and "All the President's Men."

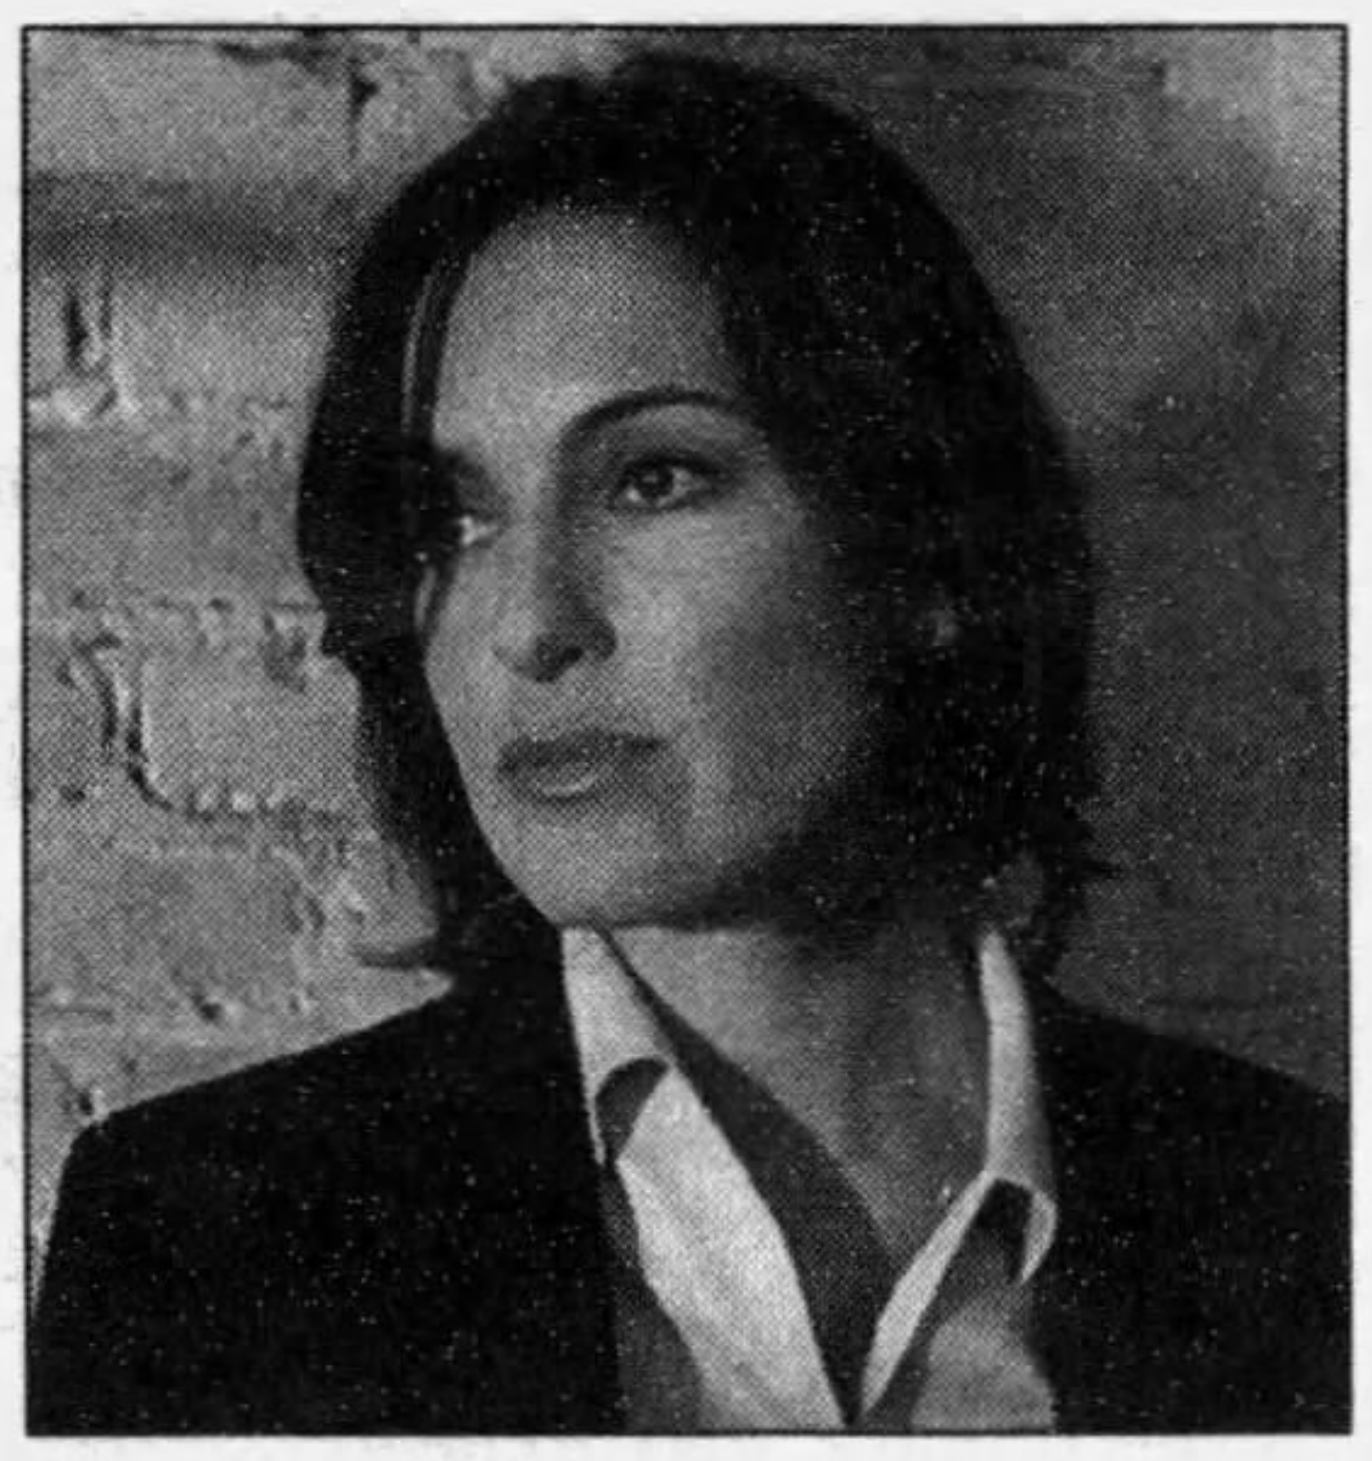
My husband insists that the actress who played Ally's mother on the Thanksgiving episode of "Ally McBeal" is the same woman who played Mrs. Keaton on "Family Ties." Is he right? -Kim in Utica, Ky.

No. That was two-time Oscar nominee Jill Clayburgh on "Ally"; Meredith Baxter played Elyse Keaton on "Ties."

Did Alfred Molina ("Ladies Man") previously play the soldier who dressed as a woman on "M*A*S*H"? -V. Boyer, Ranger, Texas.

The British-born Molina, 46, was never on "M*A*S*H." Jamie Farr, 63, played Cpl. Max Klinger.

Is it true that the father on "The Wonder Years," Dan Lauria, died? -L.J. in Whitefish, Mont.



Mariska Hargitay
LAW & ORDER: SPECIAL VICTIMS UNIT

No, and you can see him in the new Showtime movie "Common Ground," premiering Saturday, Jan. 29.

SUNDAY'S BEST BETS

Movie: First Kid

6 P.M. ON ABC

Comic-actor Sinbad stars in this 1996 family comedy as Sam, a Secret Service agent assigned to the president's obnoxious teen-age son, Luke (Brock Pierce). The boy isn't really a brat; he's a normal kid in abnormal circumstances who just wants to have fun. Sam becomes his buddy as well as his bodyguard, showing him the finer points of impressing girls, battling bullies and other youthful arts. But he has to revert to a more traditional job description when Luke is kidnapped.

Touched by an Angel

7 P.M. ON CBS

In "A House Divided," Monica (Roma Downey) serves as legal counsel for a sixth-grade boy (guest star Eli Marienthal) who's tired of being caught in the middle of his divorced parents' screaming matches. He wants a divorce of his own ... from them. But Tess (Della Reese) is the judge on the case, and she just might have a less drastic solution up the sleeves of her robe. Peter Onorati ("Kate & Allie," "Civil Wars") and Judith Hoag ("Armageddon") also guest star.

The 57th Annual Golden Globe Awards

7 P.M. ON NBC

The Hollywood Foreign Press Association thinks Jack Lemmon is so nice, it nominated him twice. He's competing with himself for the Golden Globe for best actor in a TV movie or miniseries, with nominations for "Tuesdays With Morrie" and "Inherit the Wind." "American Beauty" is the most favored movie, with six nominations; among TV series, "The Sopranos" and "Sex and the City" lead their respective categories, drama and comedy, with five. Barbra Streisand is slated to receive the prestigious Cecil B. DeMille Award for contributions to the entertainment industry.

Sinbad and Brock Pierce

FIRST KID

Face to Face: The Schappell Twins

7 P.M. ON A&E

In this poignant two-hour portrait, 37-year-old twin sisters Lori and Reba Schappell, joined at the forehead, talk about life in the institution that housed them for 24 years, life on the outside and their dreams for the future. Lori wants to get married; Reba wants to sing. But one thing neither woman wants is surgery to separate them. The special follows the sisters through their daily routine and accompanies them on a trip to New York, and talks with friends, former caregivers and medical experts.

The Practice

9 P.M. ON ABC

In "Spirit of America," an encore from 1997, an anti-death-penalty organization enlists Bobby (Dylan McDermott) and his colleagues to help Randy Jefferson (Marcello Thedford, "Dangerous Minds"), a convicted murderer about to die by lethal injection. The life-or-death effort is made more difficult by a documentary film crew that's recording the lawyers' every move. Camryn Manheim, Kelli Williams and Steve Harris also star.

It seems Jerry Springer loves a dare.

Some fans dining at the same Chicago hot spot as the talk show host allegedly dared a female member of their group to approach Springer and kiss him in the busy restaurant.

According to this group, Springer obliged her request. Oh, the trials and tribulations of being a famous talk show host!

The fans also reported that Springer allegedly came back to their table and schmoozed them, although some of his comments were surprising.

A member of this group says, "One of us asked him what the theme of the show was that day, and Jerry said, 'Theme? What theme?' "

When the viewer persisted, Springer allegedly said, "Have you ever seen my show? Do you think I can remember what the topic was?"

Maybe that kiss produced temporary memory loss!

Talk the Talk

Speaking of memory, Sally Jessy Raphael recently reminisced about some of the exciting things that have happened on her show. In the midst of the show's 17th season, Raphael is especially happy with the hot young musical acts that appear.

The Dixie Chicks debuted on the show, and Christina Aguilera made one fan's dream come true with a face-to-face meeting on the air.

Last month, Tionne "T-Boz" Watkins of the music group TLC spoke about the swirl of rumors regarding her band's possible breakup due to problems with member Lisa "Left Eye" Lopes.

"I'm not breaking up, but if she wants to go, then you can't stop somebody who wants to go," Watkins says. "I can't hold nobody back. You gotta let somebody live."

Much came out of this exclusive interview, including Watkins' admission of early low self-esteem and a point in her life when, she says, "I hung with the wrong crowd. I made straight F's. I hurt my mother. I even stole clothes."

With her song about her own early feelings of being unattractive — "Unpretty" — hitting the charts, Watkins' frank discussion about her fight with sickle cell anemia and her rebellion with her mother was especially timely.

This isn't the first time Raphael has met with a TLC member. Fans may also recall an earlier show when member Chili was reunited with her biological father.

MONDAY'S BEST BETS

Movie: Jack
7 P.M. ON ABC

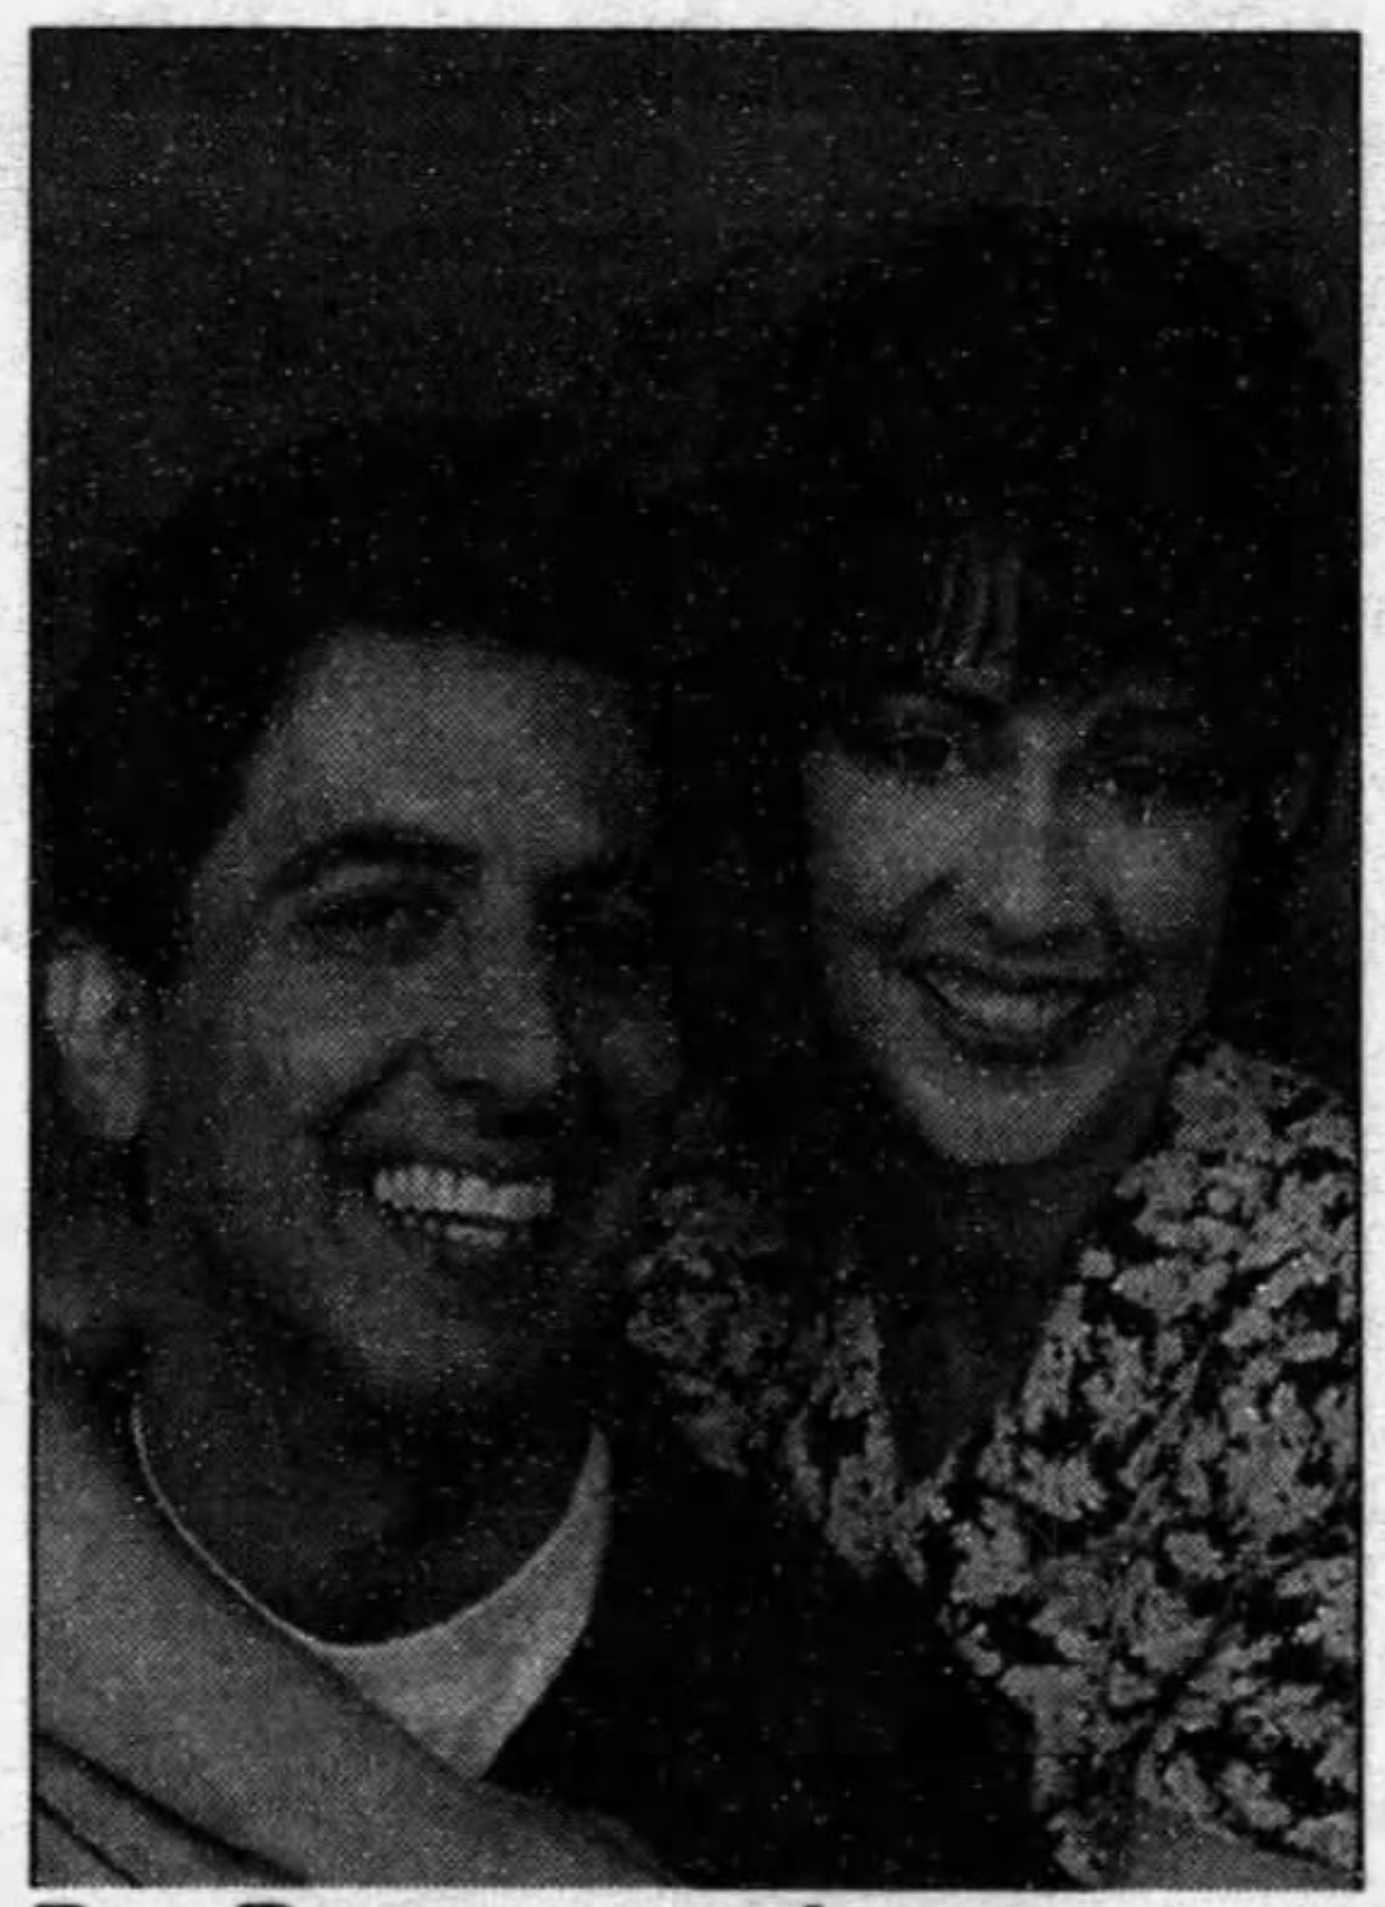
Robin Williams gives one of his trademark overgrown-kid performances (think Mork) in the title role of this bittersweet comedy-drama from Francis Ford Coppola. Jack is a child who is aging abnormally fast. Ten years old and looking 40, he decides he's missing too much staying home with a private tutor and enrolls in public school. He's teased at first, but soon his classmates discover the advantages of having a pal who can buy "Penthouse" and pass as the principal.

Biography
7 P.M. ON A&E

"Ernest Borgnine: Hollywood's Uncommon Character" profiles the veteran actor who joined the ranks of Oscar winners with his performance as the shy butcher in 1955's "Marty." The part was a departure for the burly Borgnine, who had made his name in brutal bad-guy roles such as the sadistic sergeant in "From Here to Eternity." Interviewees include co-stars Tim Conway ("McHale's Navy") and Tony Curtis ("Suppose They Gave a War and Nobody Came?") and Borgnine's wife, Tova.

Everybody Loves Raymond
8 P.M. ON CBS

As they make out their wills, Ray and Debra (Ray Romano, Patricia Heaton) have something bigger to decide than who gets the money if they die: Who gets the kids? When they finally settle on a pair of guardians, not everyone agrees, causing some tension among the friends and relatives. Doris Roberts and Peter Boyle also star in the encore of "The Will."



Ray Romano and Patricia Heaton
EVERYBODY LOVES RAYMOND

Movie: The Courage to Love
8 P.M. ON LIFE

In pre-Civil War New Orleans, the traditional career path for a free young woman of color is an everything-but-marriage relationship with a wealthy Frenchman or Spaniard. But Henriette Delille finds her own path: to the Catholic Church, where she ministers to the poor and wages her own war on racism and oppressive church politics. Vanessa Williams stars in this inspiring new biodrama about the first African-American woman to be recognized by the Church as a candidate for sainthood. Diahann Carroll, Stacy Keach and Gil Bellows ("Ally McBeal") also star.

Brutally Normal
8 P.M. ON WB

Single-camera shooting and a touch of cartoony surrealism help this new sitcom stand out from the pack of teen-centered series. The premiere, "You Get What You Get," introduces Robert, a k a Pooh (Mike Damus, "Teen Angel"), and his friends Anna, Russell and Dru (Lea Moreno, Eddie Kaye Thomas, Tangie Ambrose), typical denizens of the wild and crazy world of high school. Regular fantasy sequences take viewers inside the characters' teeming teen-age minds, where both triumphs and trials loom larger than life. Joanna Pacula also stars.

TUESDAY'S BEST BETS

JAG
7 P.M. ON CBS

In the encore of "Front and Center," a Marine corporal who's the key witness in a high-profile trial goes AWOL to avoid testifying. As Harm and Bud (David James Elliott, Patrick Labyorteaux) discover while trying to track him down, he has his own secrets that he doesn't want to risk exposing. Dwayne Adway, recently seen in the title role of "Bad as I Wanna Be: The Dennis Rodman Story," guest stars.

That '70s Show
7 P.M. ON FOX

At last, Eric (Topher Grace) gets to sleep with Donna (Laura Prepon). But wait! We mean that literally. In the encore of "Sleepover," Eric envisions great things when Donna sneaks into his room one night, but by the time he's mustered his courage, she's in dreamland. Hyde (Danny Masterson) is thrilled with the opportunity to make some money at a photo shop but less than impressed with his boss (guest star Tommy Chong).

Movie: Hilary and Jackie
7 P.M. ON MAX

Hilary and Piers du Pre's memoir, "A Genius in the Family," inspired this moving 1998 drama about the short, troubled life of their sister, the brilliant British cellist Jacqueline du Pre. Emily Watson earned a best actress Oscar nomination for expertly taking the audience along on Jacqueline's emotional roller coaster. Rachel Griffiths was also nominated for her understated performance as sister Hilary. David Morrissey and James Frain also star.

Danny Masterson and Tommy Chong
THAT '70'S SHOW

NBA Basketball
7 P.M. ON TNT

The Sacramento Kings begin a five-game Eastern swing against the Charlotte Hornets. The Kings are one of the NBA's more entertaining clubs, led by Jason Williams. The flashy second-year guard can burn the opposition with a behind-the-back no-look assist, or set up outside for a three-pointer. With the run and gun offense comes little defense, and the Kings are among the league's worst defensive units. Conversely, the Hornets' Eddie Jones is a demon on defense, leading all guards last year in steals. He can also get the job done on the offensive end, as he uses his quickness and 6-foot-6-inch frame to take smaller guards to the hoop.

NYPD Blue
9 P.M. ON ABC

Sipowicz, Sorenson and Medavoy (Dennis Franz, Rick Schroder, Gordon Clapp) investigate a murder with a particularly grisly twist: the man, a frequent visitor to the city and patron of its male prostitution trade, lost more than his money and his life. Russell, Kirkendall and Martinez (Kim Delaney, Andrea Thompson, Nicholas Turturro) have a funny feeling about a boy's relationship with his teacher in "The Man With Two Right Shoes."

WEDNESDAY'S BEST BETS

Beverly Hills, 90210

7 P.M. ON FOX

In "Fertile Ground," Matt's (Daniel Cosgrove) brother asks him for a huge favor, causing tension in his relationship with Kelly (Jennie Garth). Speaking of strained relationships, Dylan and Noah's (Luke Perry, Vincent Young) friendship is feeling the effects of Dylan's turning in Noah's druggie buddies. Steve and Janet's (Ian Ziering, Lindsay Price) new nanny turns out to be a woman with a secret. Tori Spelling also stars.

Movie: Stolen From the Heart

8 P.M. ON CBS

Is this a kidnapping — or a breaking and entering? True events inspired this terrifying tale of a woman, desperate for a baby to appease her abusive husband, who steals a friend's child ... from the womb. Tracey Gold plays the violated mother who battles to get her child back with encouragement from her own mother (Barbara Mandrell). Lisa Zane ("ER," "L.A. Law") plays the baby thief.

The West Wing

8 P.M. ON NBC

Sensitive issues have President Bartlet (Martin Sheen) walking on eggshells no matter where he turns in "Take Out the Trash Day." An upcoming signing ceremony for a hate-crime bill may have to go on without two key participants — the parents of a slain gay youth. Then there's a sex-education study that needs his reaction. And speaking of education controversies, his own daughter (Elizabeth Moss) is taking a class from a professor whose ideas he can't stand. The drug probe continues, with Josh and Sam (Bradley Whitford, Rob Lowe) talking with the subcommittee about Josh's lack of cooperation. Richard Schiff also stars.

Culture Shock

8 P.M. ON PBS

The arts entertain us, uplift us, and occasionally tick us off, as this two-part special illustrates with examples from the classics. "Born to Trouble: Adventures of Huckleberry Finn" focuses on the century-long controversy surrounding Mark Twain's opus, from the Victorians who condemned its less-than-rosy take on childhood to the more recent attacks on its portrayal of blacks. "The Shock of the Nude: Manet's Olympia" revisits the scandal surrounding the 1865 painting — not so much for depicting a nude as for portraying a prostitute. Two more installments air next week.

Investigative Reports

8 P.M. ON A&E

A recent U.S. Senate investigation of the Internal Revenue Service yielded some shocking stories from employees of the agency, who told of frightening attempts by the IRS to collect at all costs, even destroying innocent lives and careers. In the encore of "IRS Horror Stories," several of these whistle-blowers elaborate on their stories and recount how the agency has tried to retaliate against them for speaking out. They also report that the media exposure has failed to put an end to the fraud and abuse.

THURSDAY'S BEST BETS

The Road to Fame

7 P.M. ON FOX

Big stars' small-time beginnings are revisited in this encore special from 1999. Clips include Gillian Anderson ("The X-Files") on a cable-access show, Calista Flockhart ("Ally McBeal") in a bit role on the soap "Guiding Light," and a screen test featuring rookie actors Heather Locklear and Tom Cruise. The special isn't limited to actors; there's also pre-stardom footage of singers Garth Brooks and Alanis Morissette, talk show host Jerry Springer, and golfer Tiger Woods.

Friends

7 P.M. ON NBC

When Janine's (Elle Macpherson) decorating efforts have a little too much of the woman's touch for Joey (Matt LeBlanc), Chandler (Matthew Perry) gives his pal a pep talk on fighting the frills. Rachel (Jennifer Aniston) is in trouble for passing on a rumor about Ralph Lauren and Phoebe (Lisa Kudrow). Ross (David Schwimmer) tries bleaching his teeth and winds up with glow-in-the-dark choppers capable of blinding his blind date. Courteney Cox Arquette also stars in the encore of "The One With Ross' Teeth."

Popular

7 P.M. ON WB

The upcoming Sadie Hawkins dance has the students thinking about looks and their importance ... or lack thereof. Lily's (Tamara Mello) debate with some of the popular girls over inner vs. outer beauty leads to a challenge: They'll give the school's geekiest girl a make-over if she asks the most unpopular boy to the dance. At least one popular girl, Brooke (Leslie Bibb), is actually thinking about basing her choice of date on personality, not looks. Carly Pope also stars in "Hope in a Jar."

David Hyde Pierce and Bebe Neuwirth

FRASIER

Movie: How Green Was My Valley

7 P.M. ON AMC

Five Academy Awards, including best picture, went to John Ford's vivid, heartfelt 1941 adaptation of Richard Llewellyn's novel about a Welsh mining family in a time of transition. Director Ford also won an Oscar, as did Donald Crisp for best supporting actor. The splendid cast also includes Walter Pidgeon, Maureen O'Hara and Roddy McDowall.

Frasier

7:30 P.M. ON NBC

Bebe Neuwirth returns to the role of Frasier's (Kelsey Grammer) ex-wife, Lilith, who ends up staying for dinner when she brings Frederick (Trevor Einhorn) to his dad's for Thanksgiving. David Hyde Pierce also stars in the encore of "The Apparent Trap."

State of the Union Address

8 P.M. ON ABC/CBS/FOX/NBC

Depending on whether you subscribe to the technically correct or the popular definition of when the century starts, this is either the final State of the Union address of the 20th century or the first one of the 21st. In any event, it's definitely the last one for President Bill Clinton.

SATURDAY'S BEST BETS

7 P.M. ON A&E

Biography Close-Up: So You Want to Be President

As the song says, any little boy in America can grow up to be president. But not every little boy will grow up to have the stomach to pursue the job. Host Harry Smith attempts to find out what motivates people to undergo the toughest pre-employment test in the land: a campaign for the White House. Footage of races past and present is combined with input from those who succeeded (George Bush), failed (Michael Dukakis) and quit (Dan Quayle, Gary Hart). Other interviewees include historian Michael Beschloss and former New York Gov. Mario Cuomo, a favorite son who chose not to run.

7 P.M. ON LIFE

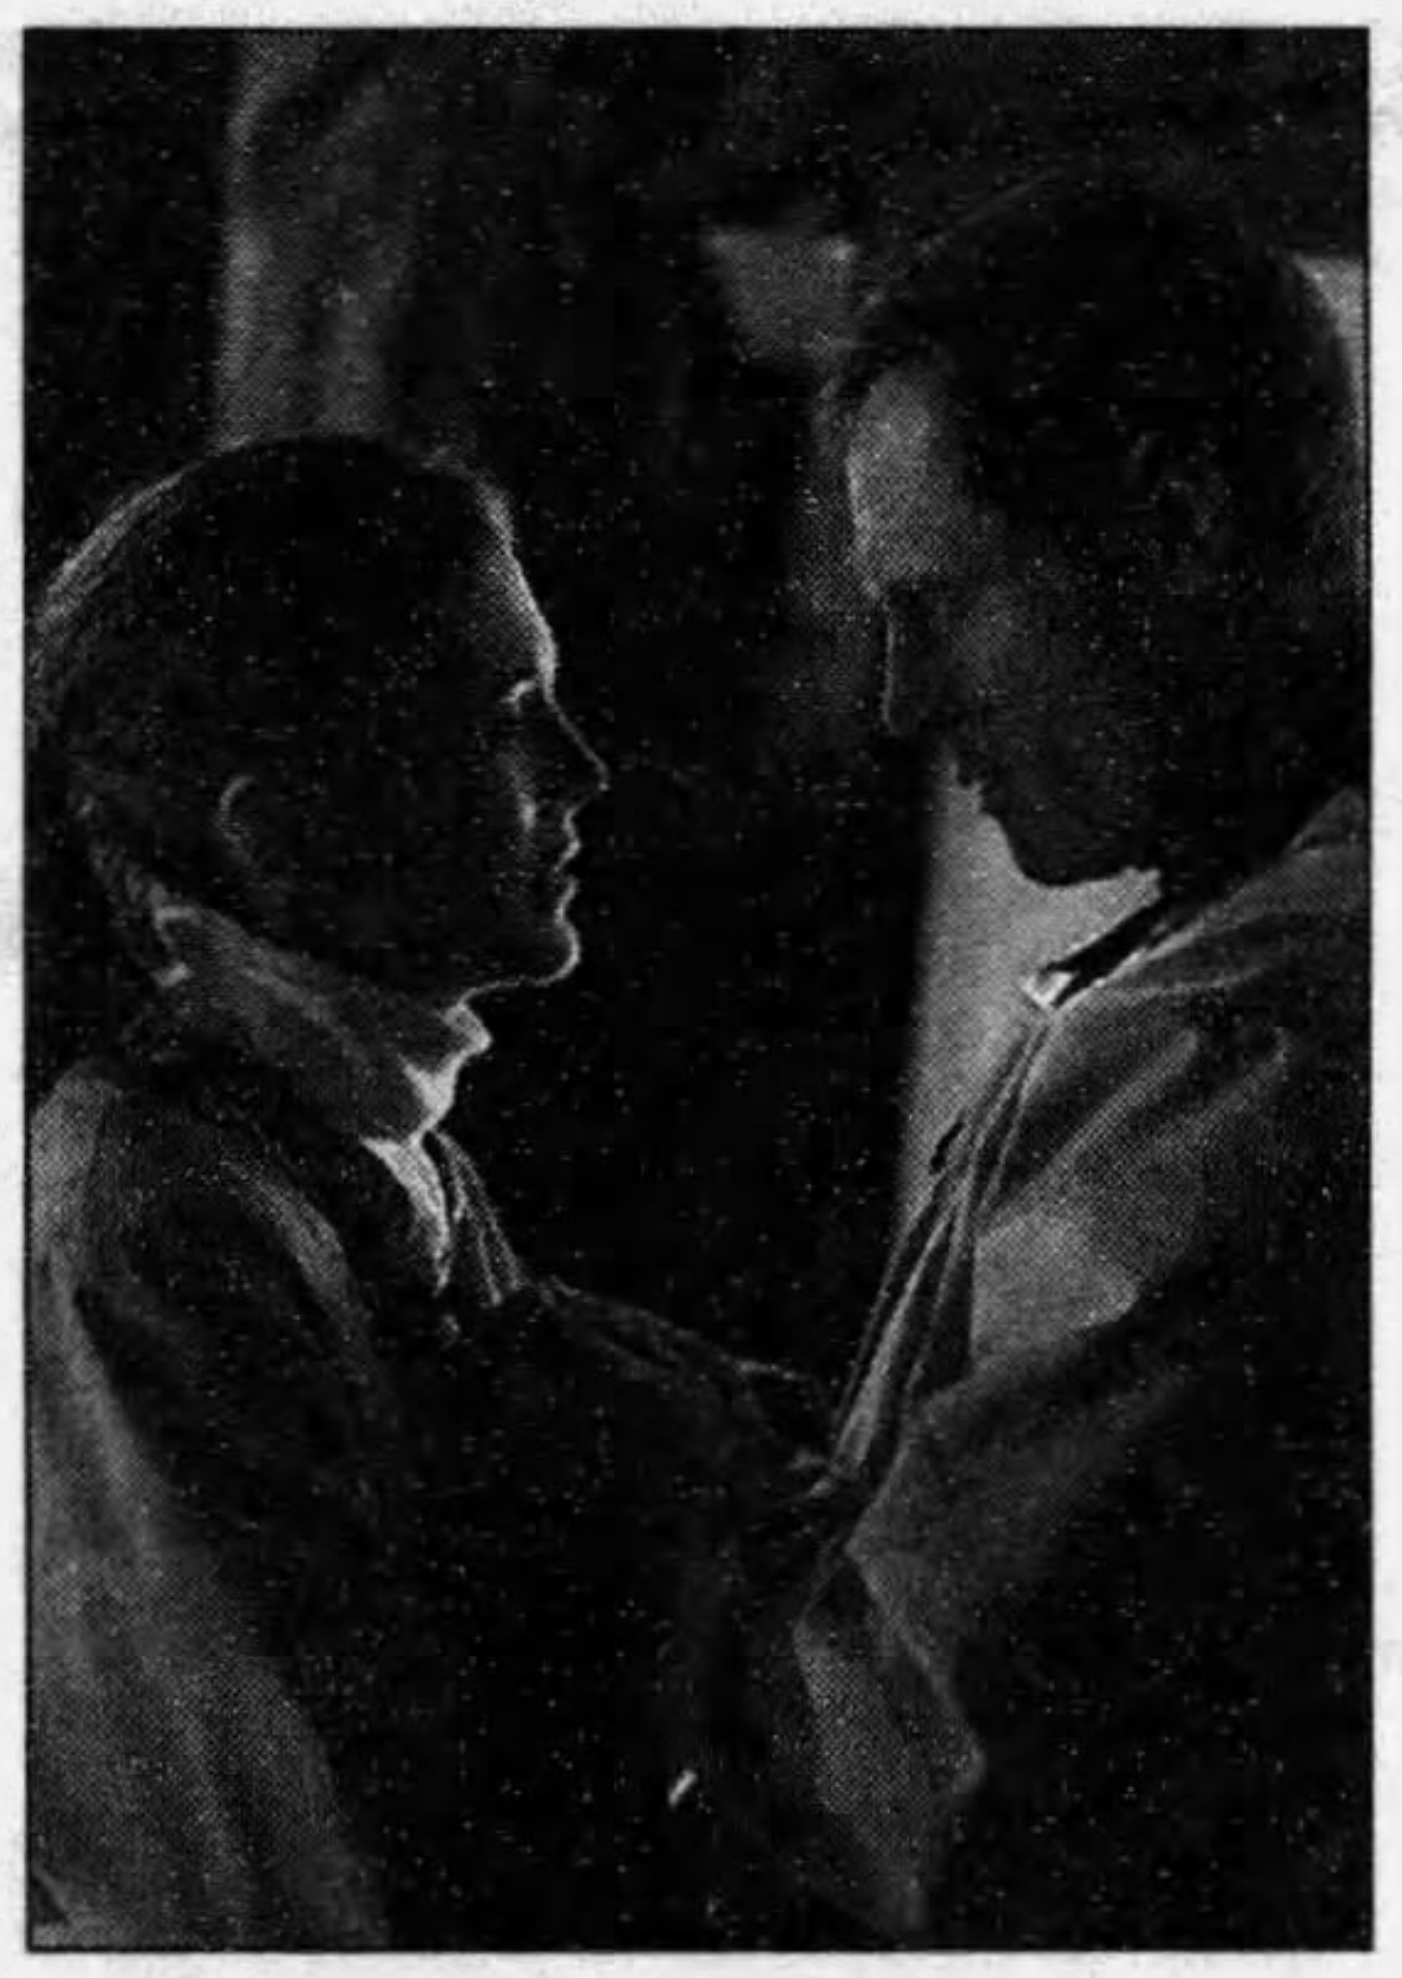
Movie: When Harry Met Sally

Nora Ephron's screenplay for this 1989 comedy-drama earned an Oscar nomination. Billy Crystal and Meg Ryan play the title characters, who swim in a river of denial over their growing attraction to each other during a 12-year on-again, off-again friendship. Carrie Fisher, Bruno Kirby ("Donnie Brasco") and Harley Jane Kozak ("You Wish," "Chicago Hope") also star.

7 P.M. ON SHOW

Movie: Common Ground

Playwrights Paula Vogel, Terrence McNally and Harvey Fierstein wrote this trilogy about changing attitudes toward homosexuality. It opens with the story of a woman (Brittany Murphy) booted from the Navy in the '50s for visiting a gay bar. Then a tormented teen (Jonathan Taylor Thomas) in the '70s tries to sort out his sexual confusion with the help of a teacher (Steven Weber) who's gay but afraid to come out. In the final story, set in the present, Ed Asner plays a man torn between love for his gay son (James LeGros) and his opposition to a same-sex wedding on town property. Eric Stoltz, Margot Kidder and Jason Priestley also star.



Paige Turco, Jason Beghe
RUNAWAY VIRUS

7:30 P.M. ON CBS

Candid Camera

In this encore from November, film fans are floored by a talkative individual who reveals the endings of the movies they're about to see. Another segment captures the reactions of office workers as they encounter one dried-out highlight marker after another ... and later as they watch themselves on TV trying to use them. Bird-watchers rope in strangers to share an unusual sight: a gigantic roadrunner that's actually a man in a bird suit. Peter Funt and Suzanne Somers host.

8 P.M. ON ABC

Movie: Runaway Virus

When a disease resembling the killer flu of 1918 claims a little boy in Guatemala, U.S. government doctors' only hope to arrest a new pandemic — and it's a long shot — is to try harvesting the 80-year-old bug from victims buried under the Siberian permafrost. Back in the West, another panicked search is on for the boy's older sister, who's on her way to the United States. Paige Turco, Jason Beghe and Larry Drake star in this nail-biting new drama.

Kelley at midseason: two hits, two flops, one up in air

By John Crook
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Cover story

As the new TV season was about to start last fall, TV critics were beginning to wonder whether David E. Kelley was more machine than man.

The famously prolific writer and producer had an almost impossible amount of work on his plate. In addition to continuing to write all the scripts for his Emmy-winning comedy "Ally McBeal" and a substantial number of episodes of "The Practice" (an Emmy winner for best drama), "The Kelleynator" planned to launch a new ABC detective series called "Snoops," oversee an innovative new half-hour "Ally" sitcom composed largely of material from the hourlong "McBeal," and take the reins once more on "Chicago Hope" to buy that series a reprieve from cancellation.

Not surprisingly, things didn't exactly come off without a hitch. "The Practice," with a stellar cast that includes Emmy winner Camryn Manheim, Dylan McDermott and Lara Flynn Boyle, remains a critical and popular hit, but while "Ally McBeal" still pulls in powerhouse ratings, several critics rapped its early episodes this season for what seemed to be an overemphasis on sex.

"Chicago Hope" continues to draw marginal ratings, and "Snoops" and the half-hour "Ally" are gone; both were history by Christmas.

"Snoops," which starred Gina Gershon and Paula Marshall as oddly paired high-tech sleuths, pulled mixed to negative reviews, and there were widespread reports of tension on the set. Marshall quit the show, and shortly thereafter, Kelley elected to pull the plug when ABC announced plans to move "Snoops" to a deadly Thursday time slot.

"The bigger disappointment to me was that we never got it to be a good show," he says with disarming candor. "It was still a work in progress that needed a lot of work, and once we got the news that we were being moved to Thursday, I think the writing was on the wall.

"If this had been the only show we were doing, maybe we would have kept trying, but the one promise I made to myself (at the start of the season) was that I wasn't going to let "Snoops" cut into (my time working on) "The Practice" and "Ally.""

"Snoops" was based on an idea Kelley had a few years ago. It sat on the shelf, he says, simply because he didn't feel the kind of passion for it that would make him want to write 100 episodes.

Green will return to 'Buffy' before season's end

By Taylor Michaels

Did Seth Green permanently leave "Buffy the Vampire Slayer"? I really enjoy him and his character. - Lorraine Garceau, Grand Forks, N.D.

Green, 25, is red-hot in Hollywood these days and left "Buffy" earlier this year to make a feature film. Still, he loves the show and will return to the role of Daniel "Oz" Osborne before season's end, according to executive producer Joss Whedon. But whether he'll return as a regular cast member is up in the air, Whedon says. If nothing else, Green's absence has left room for Alyson Hannigan, who plays Oz's former girlfriend, Willow, to shine.

Is Arthel Neville of "Fox Files" related to Aaron Neville of the Neville Brothers? What else can you tell me about her? -Jennifer G. via e-mail.

Arthel Neville, 38, is Aaron's niece (her dad is Art, another singing Neville Brother).

A native of New Orleans, she made her acting debut in the 1984 TV movie ~~"With Intent to Kill." Other TV~~ movies featuring Neville include "Love and Curses ... and All That Jazz" and "The Ultimate Lie." She also had a stint on "Days of Our Lives" in 1993 and appeared in a 1995 episode of "Living Single."

The vivacious Neville is best known for appearing as herself, including a performance in a 1996 episode of "The Fresh Prince of Bel-Air." She also co-hosted a short-lived 1997 talk show with Fred Roggin called "Arthel & Fred."

I recently saw a number of episodes of "$100,000 Pyramid" on the Game Show Network that featured a contestant named Mel Kennerly. Was that really a pre-"Thirtysomething" Mel Harris? -Belinda Wright via e-mail.

Yes. At the time, Harris was married to former White House photographer David Hume Kennerly.

My husband insists that Rosemary Clooney is of Italian descent. What is her background? How is she related to George Clooney? -Jean Martin, Tampa, Fla.

Clooney grew up in Mayesville, Ky., in the Irish-American family of Andrew and Frances Clooney. Her brother is former American Movie Classics host Nick Clooney. Her nephew, Nick's son, is George Clooney.

I'm sure I saw James Cromwell of "Babe" somewhere before. Was he one of Archie's co-workers in "All in the Family"? -Stephen Meyer, Orland Park, Ill.

You're right, Stephen. Some 25 years ago, the 1996 Oscar nominee made his TV series debut as Archie's buddy, Stretch Cunningham.

SUNDAY'S BEST BETS

Movie: The Brady Girls Get Married
1 P.M. ON FAM

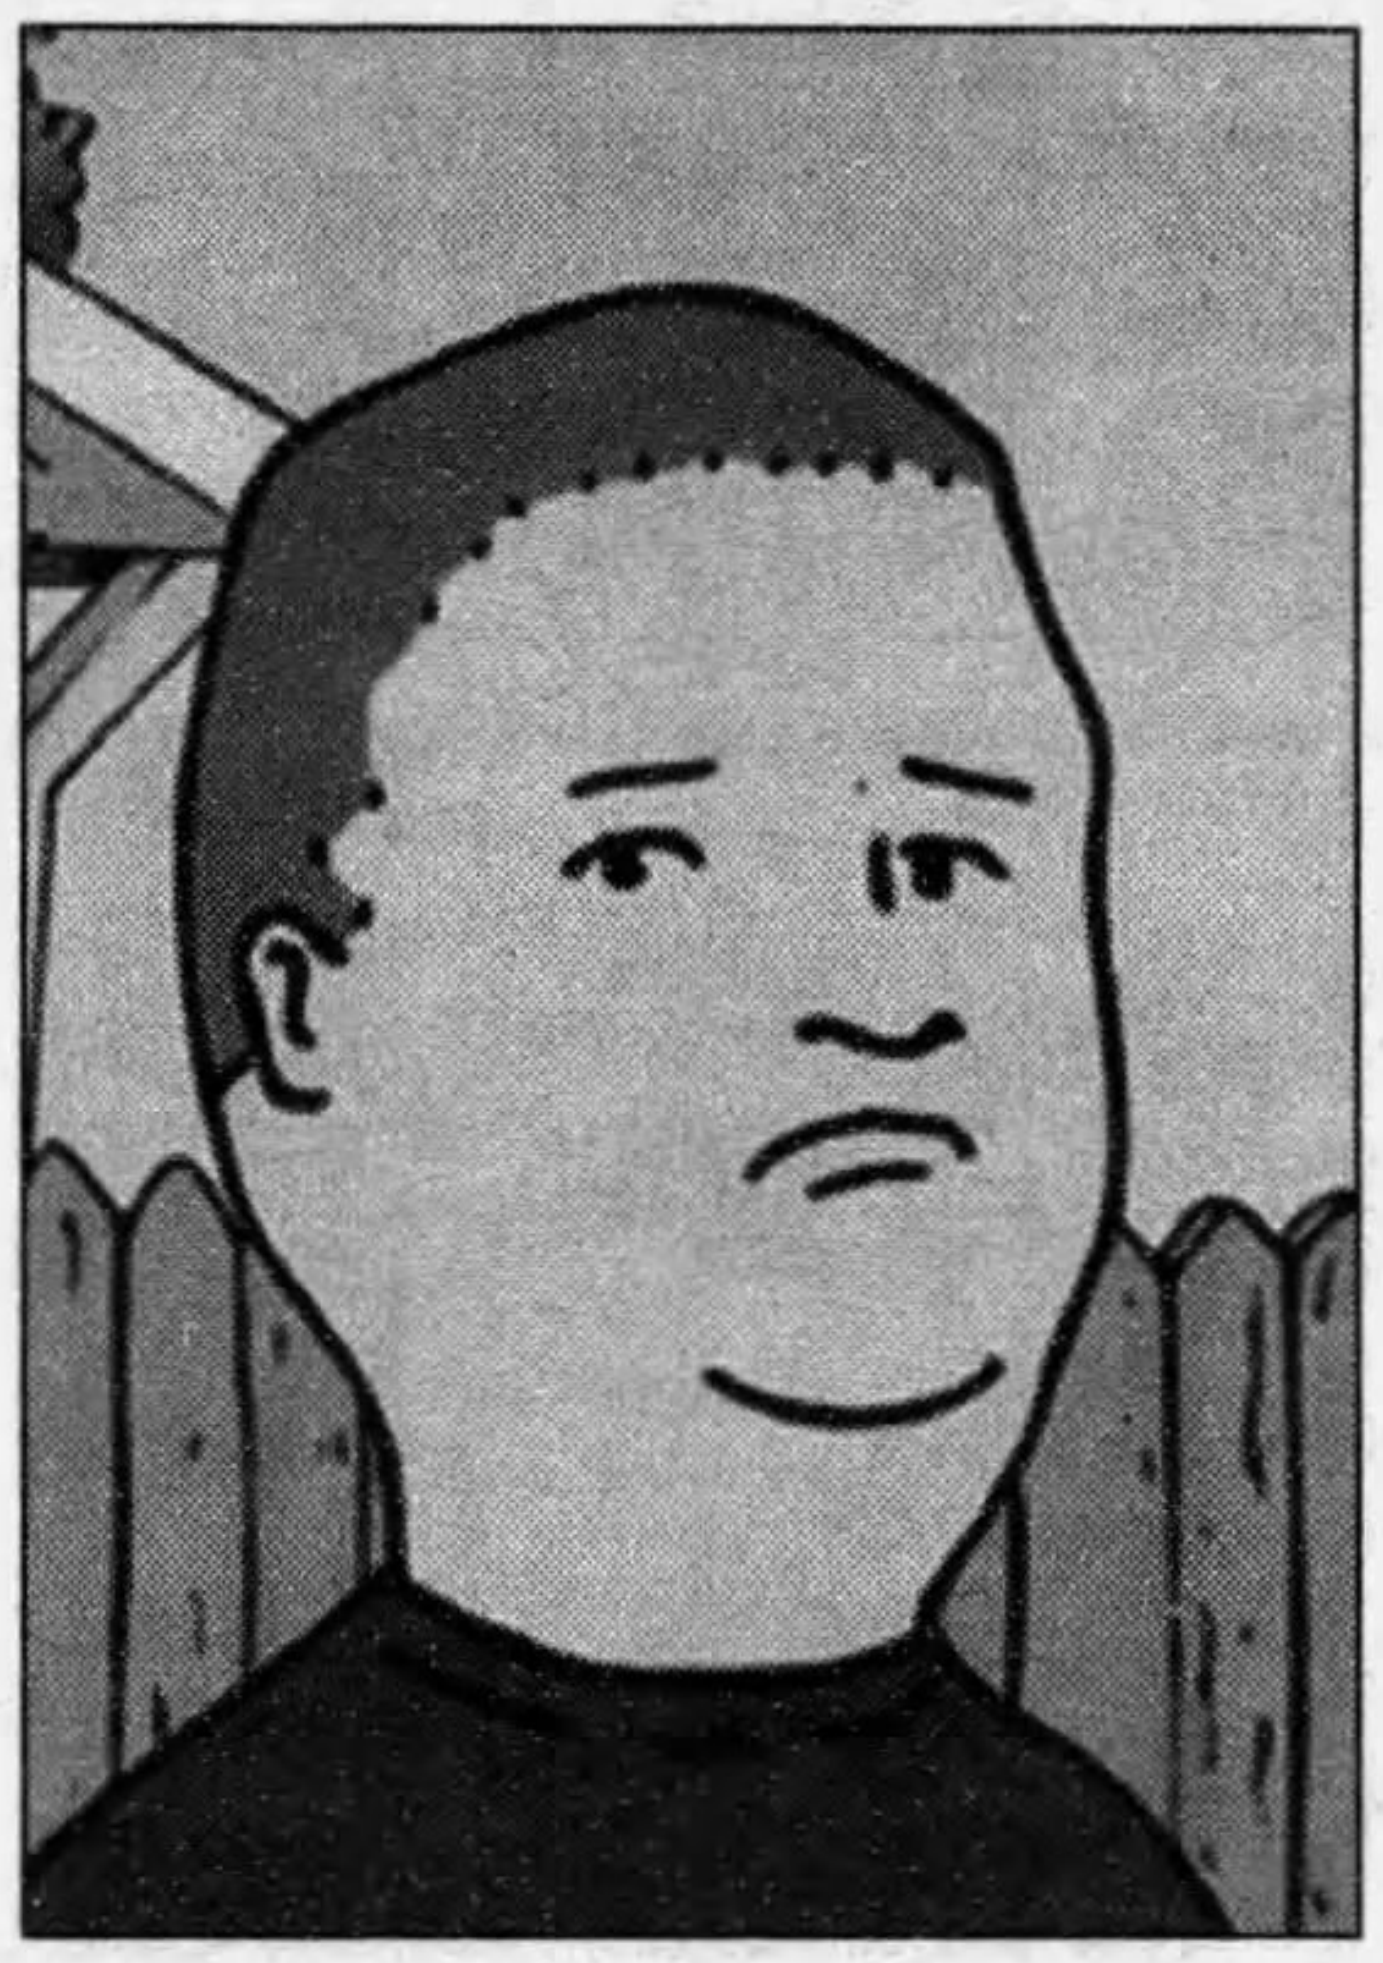
While football fans chow down on their cheese curls and nachos, non-fans can enjoy a different kind of cheesiness — a very Brady mini-marathon. First, Marcia, Jan and their new hubbies (Maureen McCormick, Eve Plumb, Jerry Houser, Ron Kuhlman) set up housekeeping together in the 1981 TV-movie pilot for the short-lived series "The Brady Brides." Next up are six episodes of "Brides"; two more TV movies, "The Brady 500" and "Bradys on the Move"; and an episode of the even drama series "The Bradys."

Super Bowl XXXIV
5:15 P.M. ON ABC

ABC brings its own "football team" — Al Michaels, Boomer Esiason, Lesley Visser and their crew — to the Georgia Dome in Atlanta to call all the action at the NFL's big event. Of course, tradition dictates that the game itself doesn't provide the only excitement; the musical lineup for the halftime show includes Phil Collins, Christina Aguilera, Enrique Iglesias and Toni Braxton.

Movie: It Takes Two
6 P.M. ON NBC

"The Prince and the Pauper" meets "The Parent Trap" in this 1995 family comedy. Mary-Kate and Ashley Olsen star as orphaned Amanda and wealthy Alyssa, who exploit their remarkable resemblance to each other to play matchmaker for Alyssa's dad and Amanda's social worker. Kirstie Alley, Steve Guttenberg, Philip Bosco and Jane Sibbett also star.



Bobby Hill
KING OF THE HILL

King of the Hill
6:30 P.M. ON FOX

All of Arlen has a chance to get to know the inner Hank Hill — well, part of him, anyway — in the encore of "Love Hurts ... and So Does Art." He's shocked to find that one of the works on exhibit at a modern art show is an X-ray of his colon. Young Bobby is having internal difficulties of his own; his fondness for the food at the town's new delicatessen has given him gout.

Movie: The Silence of the Lambs
6:30 P.M. ON LIFE

This 1991 Academy Award-winning suspense film is sure to have even the bravest viewers on the edges of their seats. Best actor winner Anthony Hopkins stars as an imprisoned serial killer.. Best actress winner Jodie Foster plays an FBI cadet who relies on his help to profile another killer, who is helping himself to young women across the United States.

Movie: The Beautician and the Beast
8 P.M. ON NBC

Fans of "The Nanny" will enjoy Fran Drescher's performance as a very similar character — brassy working stiffette rubbing elbows with the rich and powerful — in this 1997 big-screen comedy. She plays a hairdresser identified in the news as a "heroic teacher" after a fire at the school where she teaches her trade at night. This gets her a gig instructing the children of a brutal Eastern European dictator (Timothy Dalton). Eventually he softens up, she tones down, and they live happily ever after.

Backstage sounds interesting

Being backstage at a talk show can be just as interesting, if not more, than being on air.

Donny and Marie Osmond experienced a real family-affairs show last month when the whole Osmond clan guest starred.

Seems Larry King's wife, Shawn Southwick, also stopped by the show with her newborn baby and holiday gifts for Marie. Here's the "small world" connection: Southwick's dad, Karl Engemann, is Marie's manager. Engemann spent the afternoon in her dressing room playing with his new grandson.

On another "inside" note, the word among agents, managers and publicists in Hollywood is that "Donny & Marie" executives serve the best greenroom food in town. Guests dine on fresh shrimp, stuffed meats, Greek salads, and, to satisfy Marie's chocoholic cravings, a variety of gourmet cookies.

Speaking of greenrooms, recent guest Debbie Reynolds solved a backstage dilemma.

Amidst the crazy activity of guests and handlers responding to their pagers and cell phones while jockeying for one of the many greenroom phones, one frustrated publicist was unable to return an urgent call.

Talk the Talk

Overhearing the anguished publicist, Reynolds said, "Go up to my dressing room and use my phone there; it's really not a problem."

Sadly, the Osmonds' stage manager, Sandy Prudden, died last month. He would have been 55 on New Year's Day.

The original "Donny and Marie" variety show was his first television program, and. he returned to the production team 25 years later for the talk show

Prudden's career included working on some hundred TV shows and specials dating back to the early 1970s.

Described as an extremely optimistic man who always had a smile on his face, he will be greatly missed, say the Osmonds.

Staffers from the "Jenny Jones" show aren't wasting any time making use of the new backstage Webcam broadcasting live images 24 hours a day, seven days a week on the show's Website, www.jennyjones.com.

Over the holidays, staffers added a new twist to the traditional greeting card, taking turns speaking via cell phone while waving to family members and friends across the miles.

Donny and Marie Osmond

Web surfers never know what they will see when clicking on the Webcam. Tuning in at one recent taping, a surfer found himself looking straight into the face of a huge white horse that was brought backstage.

Another time, the Webcam caught an Elvis Presley impersonator practicing his moves before he went onstage.

MONDAY'S BEST BETS

Movie: Volcano

7 P.M. ON ABC

An earthquake opens a volcanic vent under Los Angeles, turning the City of Angels into something more closely resembling the devil's digs. Tommy Lee Jones and Anne Heche play the emergency-management official and the geologist who join forces to fight off the killer lava. Gaby Hoffman and Don Cheadle also star in this 1997 disaster tale.

Ally McBeal

7 P.M. ON FOX

John Ritter guest stars in a two-part story from 1998 as Elaine's (Jane Krakowski) friend George. In "It's My Party," Elaine persuades her pal to file a wrongful termination suit against his former employer, a feminist magazine. In "Story of Love," George decides to start his own magazine and bugs Elaine by asking Ally (Calista Flockhart) for advice. Part 2 also features the return of kid lawyer Oren Koolie (Josh Evans), who opposes Ally in an assault suit.

Zoe ...

8:30 P.M. ON WB

"Three Years Later," the second-season premiere of this "Seinfeld"-meets-"Felicity" sitcom formerly titled "Zoe, Duncan, Jack & Jane," finds Zoe (Selma Blair) attending Columbia University and waiting tables on the side. Jane (Azura Skye) is also studying at Columbia and hoping to become a photographer, while her twin, Jack (Michael Rosenbaum), is more interested in extracurricular activities with the ladies than in his college courses. Duncan (David Moscow) is putting his computer skills to work at a software company. Omar Gooding ("Smart Guy") also stars.

Tommy Lee Jones
VOLCANO

Third Watch

9 P.M. ON NBC

Davis (Coby Bell) stops shrugging off Sully's (Skipp Sudduth) talk of bad Mondays when the day brings a decomposed body and a very young rape victim. Kim (Kim Raver) tries to help a teen-age prostitute (guest star Nathalie Paulding), who takes advantage of her. A gunshot victim sparks a conflict over procedure between rookie paramedic Carlos and old-timer Doc (Anthony Ruivivar, Michael Beach) in the encore of "Hell Is What You Make of It."

Children in War

9 P.M. ON HBO

Anyone with a heart will be moved by Alan and Susan Raymond's disturbing look at war through very young eyes. Children and teen-agers in Bosnia, Rwanda, Northern Ireland and disputed Israeli-Palestinian territories speak candidly — sometimes fatalistically — of seeing their parents killed and their homes destroyed, living in fear of their own lives, and in some cases, taking up arms themselves. The statistics presented in the film are as sobering as the stories: A staggering 90 percent of all war deaths are civilians, including children, and more than 2 million children have lost their lives to war in only the past 10 years.

TUESDAY'S BEST BETS

Just Shoot Me

7 P.M. ON NBC

In the encore of "First Date," spacey Cindy (guest star Cheri Oteri), Maya's (Laura San Giacomo) former assistant, is back at "Blush" as a media buyer. When Jack (George Segal) insists Maya take Cindy out for an evening, she invites Elliott (Enrico Colantoni) along. But he and Cindy hit it off a little too well, further complicating his will-they-or-won't-they relationship with Maya. David Spade also stars.

Biography

7 P.M. ON A&E

The encore of "Farrah Fawcett: America's Angel "profiles the bright young beauty who was swept off her feet by Hollywood — and handsome actor Lee Majors — while still in college. A star of TV's "Charlie's Angels" and a pinup queen in the 1970s, she faced personal and professional setbacks in the following two decades and is working to get her life and career back together.

3rd Rock From the Sun

7:30 P.M. ON NBC

Sally (Kristen Johnston) makes a shocking discovery: Sex causes pregnancy! Fortunately, she also discovers birth control. Unfortunately, she's one of those women who react to the pill with wild mood swings, totally discombobulating Don (Wayne Knight). Money, not love, is on the other Solomons' minds in "Sex and the Sally." Dick (John Lithgow) tries to overhaul the tradition of tipping with a more honest approach, while Harry and Tommy (French Stewart, Joseph Gordon-Levitt) accidentally discover the joy of panhandling. Jane Curtin also stars.

Cheri Oteri
JUST SHOOT ME

Will & Grace

8 P.M. ON NBC

They say the camera adds pounds. Grace (Debra Messing) lucks out when her picture appears in the paper with the extra weight in the right place. When her old high-school crush (guest star Salvator Xuereb, "Pensacola: Wings of Gold") gets in touch, she wonders — thanks to Karen (Megan Mullally) — whether he's interested in her or just her apparent endowments. Eric McCormack also stars in the encore of "Das Boob."

Movie: Two of Us

8 P.M. ON VH1

Legend has it that Paul McCartney tried to drop in at John Lennon's place in New York one day in 1976, but they never got together. What if they had? Would one of the greatest songwriting teams in popular music history have created some new hits for a new generation? Aidan Quinn plays McCartney, and Jared Harris ("I Shot Andy Warhol") portrays Lennon in this dramatic re-creation of the reunion that never was. Director Michael Lindsay-Hogg brings some knowledge of the real Beatles to the assignment; he directed their 1970 documentary "Let It Be."

WEDNESDAY'S BEST BETS

Intimate Portrait

6 P.M. ON LIFE

The profile series, which usually spotlights the living or the recently deceased, reaches back into the 1800s with "Harriet Tubman." She didn't invent the Underground Railroad — it was there when she herself escaped slavery — but she became its most famous "conductor," helping more than 300 slaves flee to freedom. The program, narrated by Cicely Tyson, also recalls Tubman's years as a spy for the Union Army in the Civil War and as a crusader for women's rights.

Movie: In the Name of the People

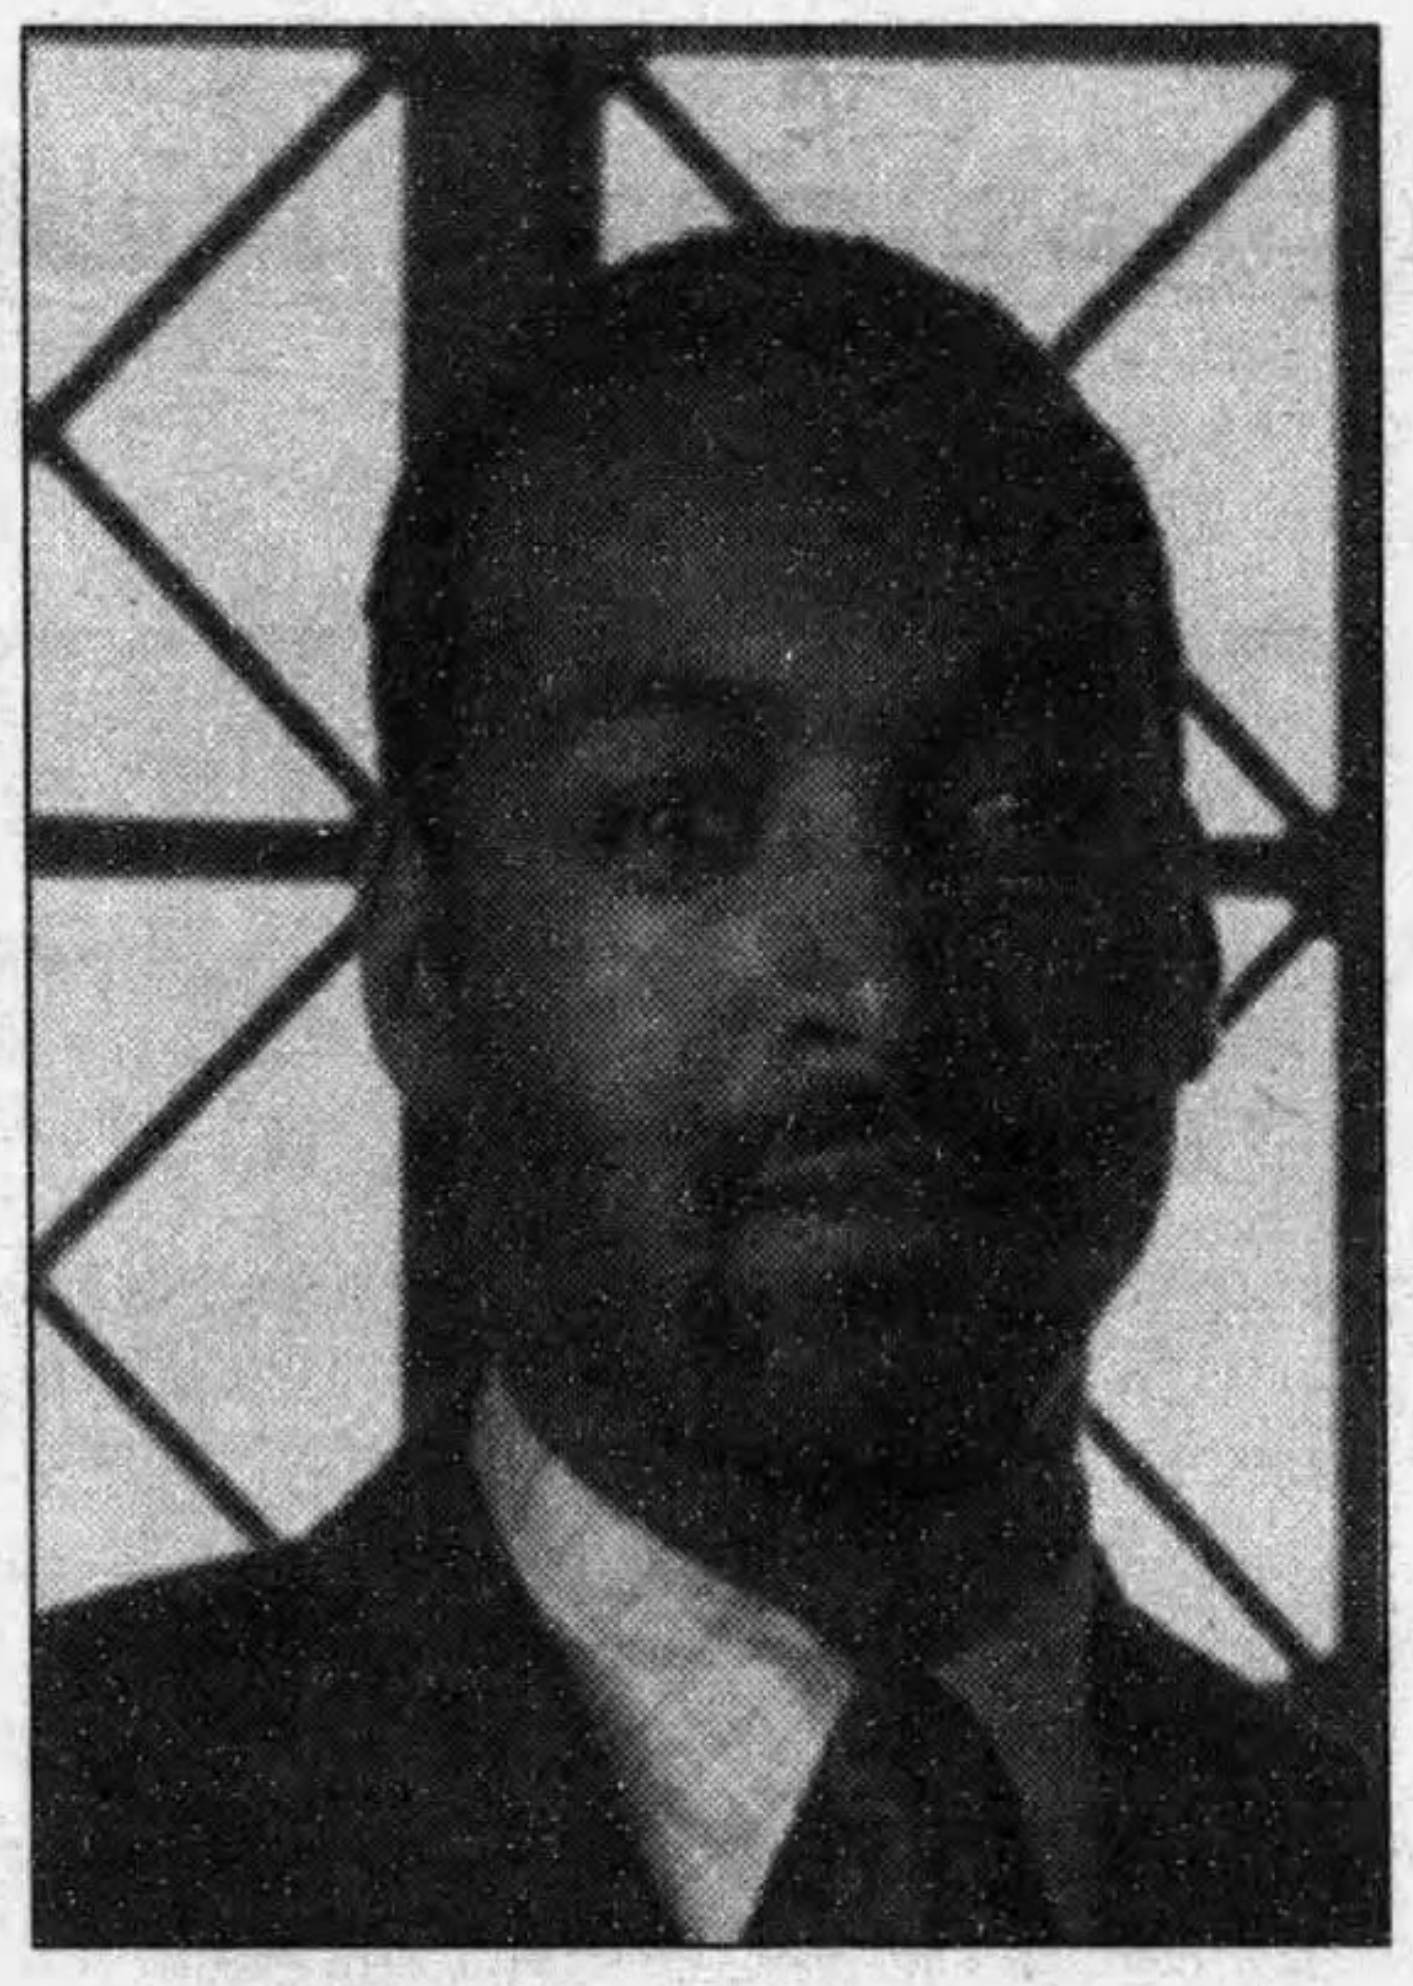
8 P.M. ON CBS

Jack and Connie are eagerly awaiting the execution of the man who murdered their teen-age daughter. Before it's too late, Jack visits the condemned man in search of answers about the girl's final hours. But the killer's love for his own child — who will soon be all alone in the world — touches Jack's heart and changes his mind. His newfound stand on the death penalty, however, could cause the death of his marriage. Richard Thomas, Amy Madigan and Scott Bakula star in this emotional drama based on a play by Tim Boland.

Spin City

8:30 P.M. ON ABC

In order for someone to win, many others must lose. Well, not always. In "Casino," a ticket snafu results in hundreds of winners in the charity raffle that Mike (Michael J. Fox) has organized. Now he needs to come up with $500,000 in prize money or face major embarrassment ... or worse. Caitlin (Heather Locklear) suffers a different kind of embarrassment when a video of her on "Star Search" almost two decades ago shows up at the office. Barry Bostwick also stars.



Jesse L. Martin

LAW & ORDER

Law & Order

9 P.M. ON NBC

Detectives Briscoe and Green (Jerry Orbach, Jesse L. Martin) don't have to look far for suspects in the murder of a wealthy 15-year-old drug user. Several members of her own family and the neighbor clan are under suspicion, but to narrow the search, the detectives need a judge's OK to test DNA. Then a family scandal creates another roadblock in the case for McCoy and Carmichael (Sam Waterston, Angie Harmon) in the encore of "Merger."

"A Parent's Nightmare" recalls a crime with eerie echoes of the JonBenet Ramsey killing. In 1988, 7-year-old Jaclyn Dowaliby was found dead several days after disappearing from her home. Like JonBenet's parents, David and Cynthia Dowaliby became prime suspects in the eyes of police and the public. Unlike the Ramseys, however, the Dowalibys were arrested and tried for their daughter's murder; both were ultimately acquitted. Like the Ramsey murder, the Dowaliby case continues to divide the court of public opinion.

THURSDAY'S BEST BETS

Movie: Dumb & Dumber

7 P.M. ON FOX

Jim Carrey and Jeff Daniels star in this 1994 comedy as two doofuses — one a dog groomer and the other a limo driver — who commit every bathroom joke in the book during their cross-country quest to return a suitcase full of ransom money to a pretty socialite. Lauren Holly, Teri Garr, Charles Rocket and hockey great Cam Neely also star.

Movie: All About Eve

7 P.M. ON AMC

Bette Davis gives a bravura performance as an aging grande dame of Broadway who is cagily upstaged by a seemingly wide-eyed fan (Anne Baxter) who becomes her protegee. The film earned six Oscars, including best picture, director (Joseph L. Mankiewicz) and supporting actor (George Sanders). Celeste Holm, Thelma Ritter and Marilyn Monroe also star.

Jesse

7:30 P.M. ON NBC

Diego's (Bruno Campos) musings about the future — in which he hopes to have seven children — blast Jesse (Christina Applegate) into the past in "Jesse Gives Birth." She has a flashback to that fateful day when she was 17, got her driver's license and went into labor right there in the motor vehicle office. Danny's (Kevin Rahm) controversial role in a musical causes friction between him and Carrie (Jennifer Milmore). Eric Lloyd also stars.

Jim Carrey and Jeff Daniels

DUMB & DUMBER

Charmed

8 P.M. ON WB

Prue and Phoebe (Shannen Doherty, Alyssa Milano) break one of the rules of witchdom — no using magic for personal gain — to save Piper (Holly Marie Combs), who's in the hospital with a dangerous, mysterious disease. The spell backfires and starts spreading the illness to other patients.

Investigative Reports

8 P.M. ON A&E

For decades, American men dissatisfied with domestic romantic prospects have been looking overseas. These days, they search through catalogs, over the Internet and even in person, signing up for expensive matchmaking trips. The encore of "To Russia for Love: Mail Order Brides" spotlights the third alternative, accompanying a group of men on a three-day trip to Moscow, where they're introduced to hundreds of women eager to escape hard times in their homeland.

ER

9 P.M. ON NBC

Abby Lockhart (Maura Tierney), the nurse who helped deliver Hathaway's (Julianna Margulies) babies, is in medical school now and working with the ER crew. Her first day is a baptism by fire, as she's bitten by one patient and misdiagnoses another. The other med student in the bunch, Lucy (Kellie Martin), tries to make a dying man comfortable.

FRIDAY'S BEST BETS

Movie: Flubber
7 P.M. ON ABC

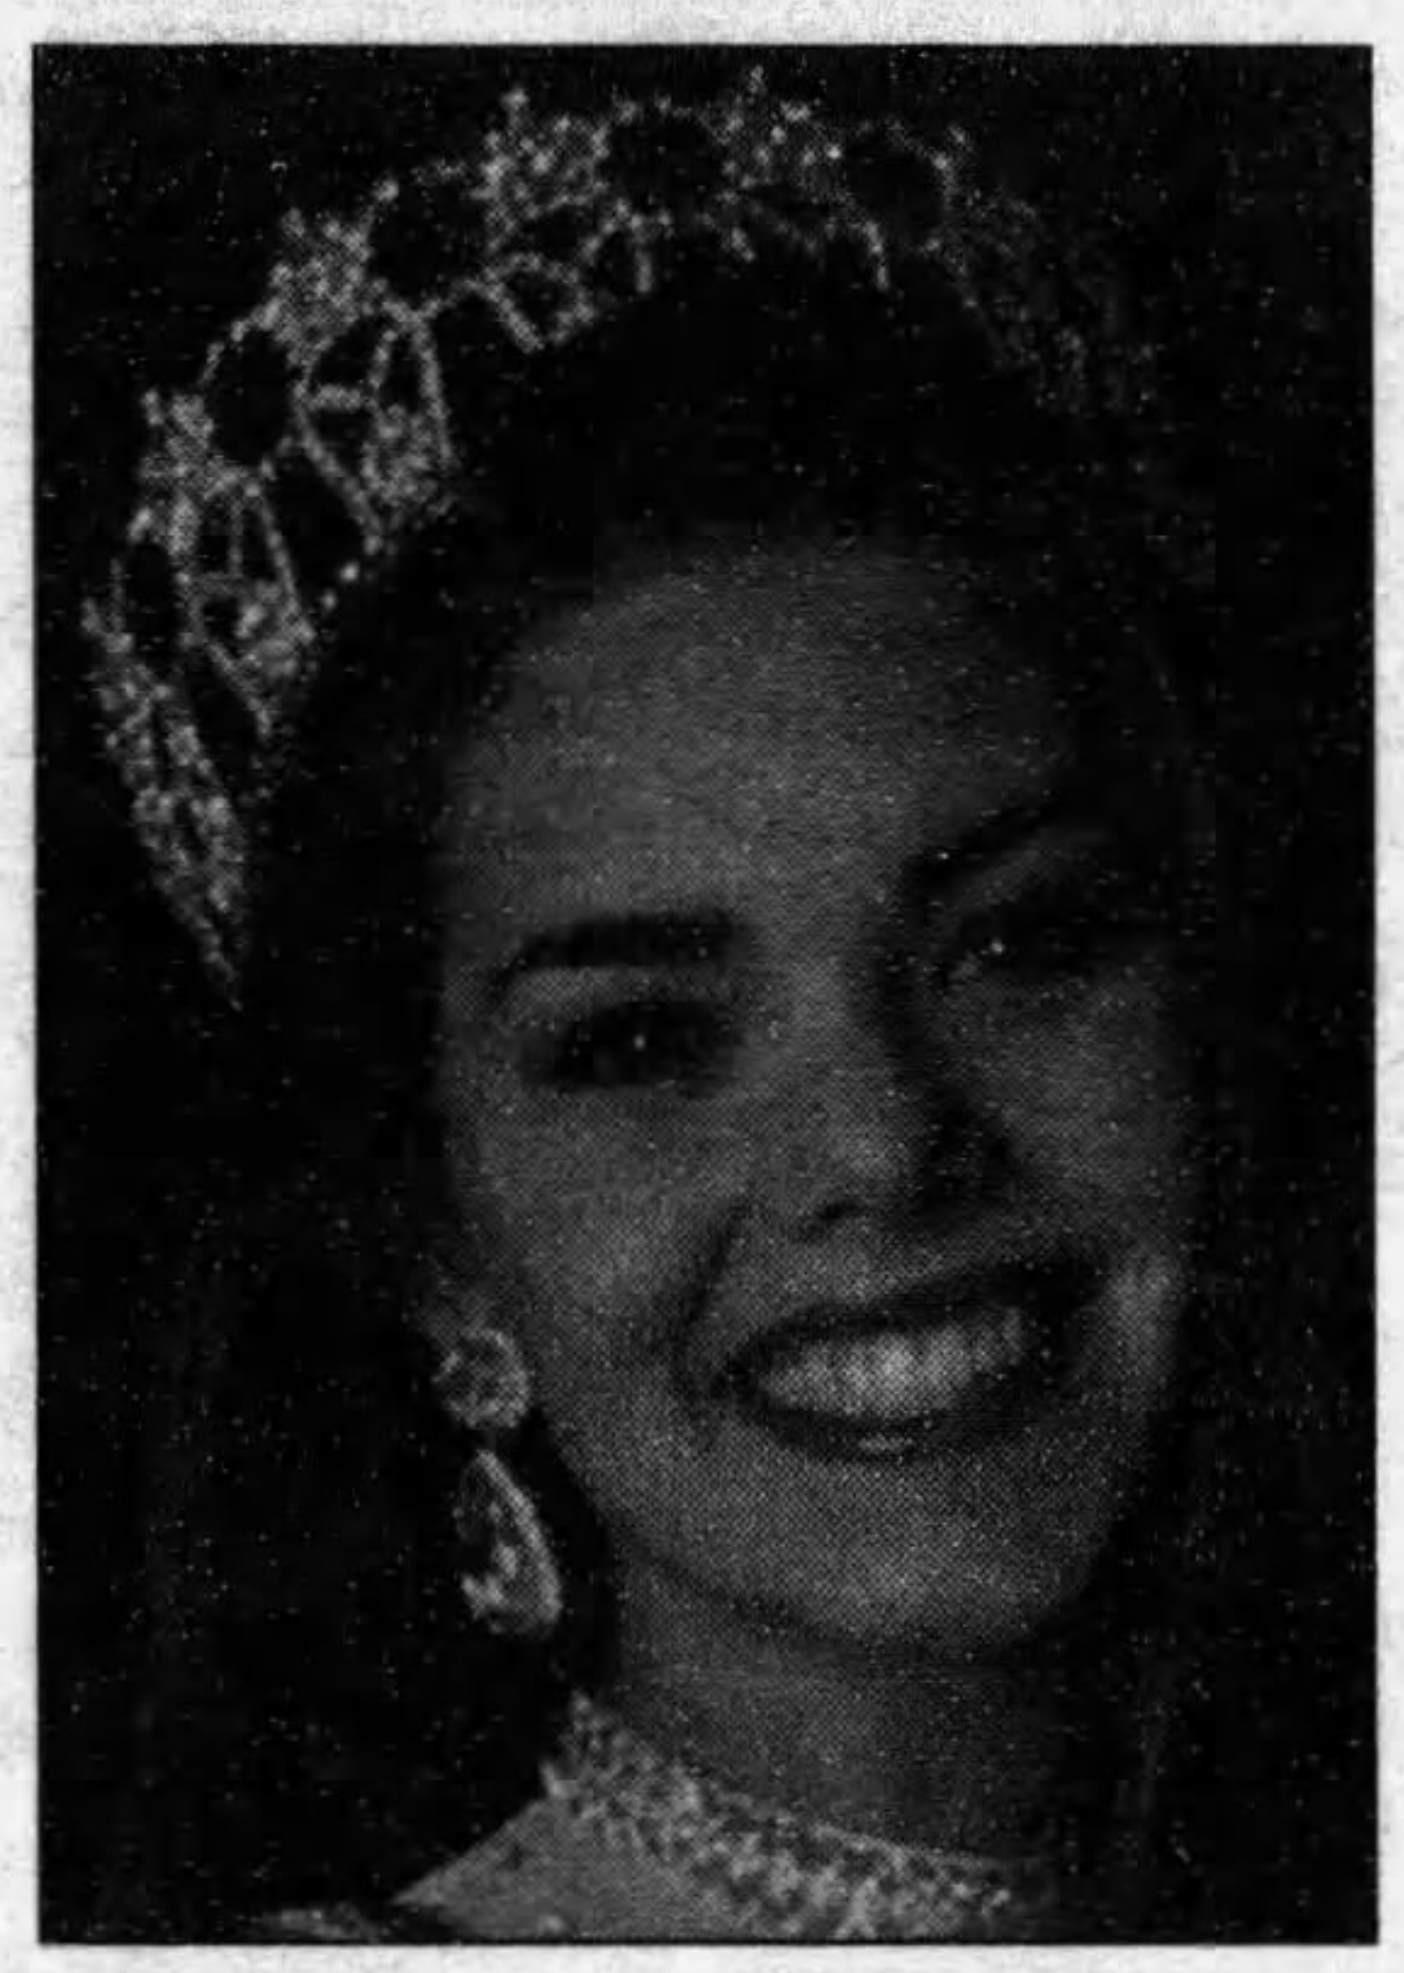
Robin Williams brings his wacky energy to the Fred MacMurray role in this 1997 remake of Disney's "The Absent Minded Professor." His character, Philip Brainard, inadvertently invents a miraculous substance that bounces, flies, looks like a prop left over from "Ghostbusters" and may save his struggling school from financial ruin. Marcia Gay Harden plays the college president, who also happens to be Brainard's girlfriend.

Providence
7 P.M. ON NBC

A high-school reunion brings Syd's (Melina Kanakaredes) best friend (guest star Susan Walter) back to town. She's gone far since their school days, becoming a famous author, businesswoman and TV personality in the Martha Stewart mold. But the doctor — or is it the jealous teen-ager? — in Syd thinks her old pal's devotion to neatness is dangerously close to unhealthy. Mike Farrell also stars in "The Reunion."

Biography
7 P.M. ON A&E

The encore of "Miracle Babies: The Story of the Dionne Quintuplets" tells the poignant tale of the five identical sisters born into a poor Canadian farm family in an era before fertility drugs and high-tech neonatal medicine. Today the three surviving quints look back with bitterness at a system that took them from their family, put them on public display, robbed them of a normal childhood and failed to give them a share of the millions they made as tourist attractions and advertising icons.



Kimberly Ann Pressler
THE 49TH ANNUAL MISS USA PAGEANT

The 49th Annual Miss USA Pageant
8 P.M. ON CBS

Julie Moran ("Entertainment Tonight") and former Miss USA Ali Landry provide color commentary and a peek behind the scenes as 51 young women compete for the Miss USA crown and a shot at the Miss Universe title. Carson Daly (MTV's "Total Request Live") hosts the event. Musical highlights include R & B star Brian McKnight singing his hit "Back at One" with Mark Wills, whose cover of the song is climbing the country charts. Christina Aguilera and Lou Bega are also slated to perform. And of course, Kimberly Ann Pressler, Miss USA 1999, is on hand to crown her successor.

Dateline NBC
8 P.M. ON NBC

Raising 10 children is difficult under the best of circumstances. "New Family" visits with a couple whose kids didn't come from the best of circumstances; they were discovered in 1995 living on their own in squalor after being abandoned by their parents. The retired couple became foster parents to five of the youngsters and later adopted the whole bunch — the five foster kids and their five older siblings. They talk with correspondent Sara James about the highs and lows of raising this ready-made brood.

SATURDAY'S BEST BETS

College Basketball
12 P.M. ON CBS

Two Final Four participants from a year ago meet up for a regular-season matchup as Connecticut visits Michigan State. The Huskies went on to win the title last year but are finding the going tougher this season as teams are motivated to knock off the champs. Today's game features two of the best backcourt men in the country in UConn's Khalid El-Amin and Michigan State's Mateen Cleaves.

Movie: The Rock
7 P.M. ON ABC

Oscar winners Sean Connery and Nicolas Cage star with two-time nominee Ed Harris in this 1996 thriller. Harris plays a mad general who seizes control of Alcatraz Island and threatens to fire poison-gas rockets at San Francisco. To help them break into the old prison, the authorities call on a British spy (Connery) who's the only man ever to break out of it. Cage plays a nerdy FBI scientist who assists with the dangerous mission.

The Pretender/Profiler
7 P.M. ON NBC

Romance is in the air when Jarod (Michael T. Weiss) teams up with the Violent Crimes Task Force in a two-part crossover story. In "Spin Doctor," Jarod, posing as a Secret Service agent, works with the VCTF — including the lovely Rachel (Jamie Luner) — to investigate the death of an old friend from the federal agency. Their discovery of widespread corruption in the Secret Service leads to the deaths of two rogue agents, forcing them to start a whole new investigation in "Clean Sweep." Robert Davi also stars.

Jamie Luner
PROFILER

Movie: 8MM
7 P.M. ON HBO

A widow finds a "snuff" film among her late husband's things and hires a private detective (Nicolas Cage) to find out whether the young woman in the movie really was killed. His investigation takes him deep inside Los Angeles' seamy porn underworld, where he confronts several shady characters and his own demons. James Gandolfini ("The Sopranos"), Peter Stormare ("Fargo") and Joaquin Phoenix also star in this dark, sex- and violence-laden 1999 drama from director Joel Schumacher ("Batman & Robin," "Falling Down").

9 P.M. ON NBC
The Others

Five people with assorted paranormal powers band together to help one another cope ... and help ordinary folk deal with supernatural experiences. In "Pilot," college student Marian Katt (Molly Ringwald look-alike Julianne Nicholson) becomes the newest member of this odd support group after a close encounter with a ghost in her dorm room. Gabriel Macht, Kevin J. O'Connor, Melissa Crider, John Aylward, Bill Cobbs and John Billingsley also star in this new drama, which has echoes of "The X-Files," "Buffy the Vampire Slayer" and a little "Touched by an Angel."
